Musaicum Books presents to you this carefully created volume of THE HATEFUL 10 Boxed Set 10 Westerns in One Edition This ebook has been designed and formatted to the highest digital standards and adjusted for readability on all devices Excerpt The town lay sprawled over half a square mile of alkali plain its main Street depressing in its width for those who were responsible for its inception had worked with a generosity born of the knowledge that they had at their immediate and unchallenged disposal the broad lands of Texas and New Mexico on which to assemble a grand total of twenty buildings four of which were of wood As this material was scarce and had to be brought from where the waters of the Gulf Bar 20 Bar 20 The Orphan The Coming of Cassidy and Others Hopalong Cassidy Bar 20 Days Buck Peters Ranchman The Man from Bar 20 The Bar 20 Three Tex Bring Me His Ears Clarence E Mulford 1883 1956 was a prolific author whose short stories and 28 novels were adapted to radio feature film television and comic books often deviating significantly from the original stories especially in the character s traits Many of his stories depicted Cassidy and other men of the Bar 20 ranch But more than just writing a very popular series of Westerns Mulford recreated an entire detailed and authentic world filled with characters drawn from his extensive library research     "Ardath " Marie Corelli,1889     Ardath: The Story of a Dead Self Marie Corelli,2005-01-01 Deep in the heart of the Caucasus mountains a wild storm was gathering Drear shadows drooped and thickened above the Pass of Dariel that terrific gorge which like a mere thread seems to hang between the toppling frost bound heights above and the black abysmal depths below clouds fringed ominously with lurid green and white drifted heavily yet swiftly across the jagged peaks where looming largely out of the mist the snow capped crest of Mount Kazbek rose coldly white against the darkness of the threatening sky Night was approaching though away to the west a road gash of crimson a seeming wound in the breast of heaven showed where the sun had set an hour since Now and again the rising wind moaned sobbingly through the tall and spectral pines that with knotted roots fast clenched in the reluctant earth clung tenaciously to their stony vantageground and mingling with its wailing murmur there came a distant hoarse roaring as of tumbling torrents while at far off intervals could be heard the sweeping thud of an avalanche slipping from point to point on its disastrous downward way Through the wreathing vapors the steep bare sides of the near mountains were pallidly visible their icy pinnacles like uplifted daggers piercing with sharp glitter the density of the low hanging haze from which large drops of moisture began presently to ooze rather than fall Gradually the wind increased and soon with sudden fierce gusts shook the pine trees into shuddering anxiety the red slit in the sky closed and a gleam of forked lightning leaped athwart the driving darkness An appalling crash of thunder followed almost instantaneously its deep boom vibrating in sullenly grand echoes on all sides of the Pass and then with a swirling hissing rush of rain the unbound hurricane burst forth alive and furious On on splitting huge boughs and flinging them aside like straws swelling the rivers into riotous floods that swept hither and thither carrying with them masses of rock and stone and tons of loosened snow on on with pitiless force and destructive haste the tempest rolled thundered and shrieked its way through Dariel As the night darkened and the clamor of the conflicting elements grew more sustained and violent a sudden sweet sound floated softly through the turbulent air the slow measured tolling of a bell To and fro to and fro the silvery chime swung with mild distinctness it was the vesper bell ringing in the Monastery of Lars far up among the crags crowning the ravine There the wind roared and blustered its loudest it whirled round and round the quaint castellated building battering the gates and moving their heavy iron hinges to a most dolorous groaning it flung rattling hailstones at the narrow windows and raged and howled at every corner and through every crevice while snaky twists of lightning played threateningly over the tall iron Cross that surmounted the roof as though bent on striking it down and splitting open the firm old walls it guarded All was war and tumult without but within a tranquil peace prevailed enhanced by the grave murmur of organ music men s voices mingling together in mellow unison chanted the Magnificat and the uplifted steady harmony of the grand old anthem rose triumphantly above the noise of the storm The monks who inhabited this mountain eyrie once a fortress now a religious refuge were assembled in their little chapel a sort of grotto roughly hewn out of the natural rock Fifteen in number they stood in rows of three abreast their white woollen robes touching the ground their white cowls thrown back and their dark faces and flashing eyes turned devoutly toward the altar whereon blazed in strange and solitary brilliancy a Cross of Fire At the first glance it was easy to see that they were a peculiar Community devoted to some peculiar form of worship for their costume was totally different in character and detail from any such as are worn by the various religious fraternities of the Greek Roman or Armenian faith and one especial feature of their outward appearance served as a distinctly marked sign of their severance from all known monastic orders this was the absence of the disfiguring tonsure They were all fine looking men seemingly in the prime of life and they intoned the Magnificat not drowsily or droningly but with a rich tunefulness and warmth of utterance that stirred to a faint surprise and contempt the jaded spirit of one reluctant listener present among them This was a stranger who had arrived that evening at the monastery and who intended remaining there for the night a man of distinguished and somewhat haughty bearing with a dark sorrowful poetic face chiefly remarkable for its mingled expression of dreamy ardor and cold scorn an expression such as the unknown sculptor of Hadrian s era caught and fixed in the marble of his ivy crowned Bacchus Antinous whose half sweet half cruel smile suggests a perpetual doubt of all things and all men He was clad in the rough and ready garb of the travelling Englishman and his athletic figure in its plain cut modern attire looked curiously out of place in that mysterious grotto which with its rocky walls and flaming symbol of salvation seem suited only to the picturesque prophet like forms of the white gowned brethren whom he now surveyed as he stood behind their ranks with a gleam of something like mockery in his proud weary eyes
