

A black and white close-up portrait of a man with a beard and intense gaze. The man has dark, slightly messy hair and a well-groomed beard. He is looking directly at the camera with a serious, almost menacing expression. The lighting is dramatic, with strong highlights on his face and deep shadows. The background is blurred.

Giselle Freeman is a hardworking architect who is known as the Ice Queen. When the famed Saul Parenti barges into her life, the ice around Giselle's heart starts to melt. While secrets from the past threaten to destroy her, a scandalous agreement between her and Saul makes life all the more heated. But will the Ice Queen survive?      Reluctant Surrender Jenny Cartwright, 1992-01-01      The Holy Will Of God Rev. Fr. Leo Pyzalski C.S.S.R., A book to help us determine what God's will really is, why we should conform our wills to His, and see in this conformity our greatest good for like it or not, we do have to live with God's holy will anyway. Brings great solace.      Rosita Michael Angelo Le Houx, 2013-11-25
Rosita The Farmhouse Near the Sea is the second book of the Rosita series. This adventure takes Rosita and her forever family to the Carolina coastal area where she is introduced to a beautiful and wonderful body of water that is so vast it is impossible for her to see across to the other shore. She plays an important role in the restoration of Luke's beloved grandmamma's home and is instrumental in helping him come to terms with the anguish of his early childhood years. Most important, she meets and becomes part of the daily life of a small boy whose story is much like Luke's story, a boy who has never before known how it feels to be loved. Through it all, each in his own way, acknowledges the unchanging and everlasting love of God.

Nationalism and Communism Hugh Seton-Watson, 2022-02-06 This book, first published in 1964, collects a number of essays united by the general theme of national and social revolution. They examine features of revolutionary movements and particularly revolutionary leadership in an analysis of the social conditions and personal motives which impel men towards forming revolutionary elites.      Unreconstructed Carin Peller-Semmens, 2025-09-15
Carin Peller Semmens's Unreconstructed grapples with the longstanding systemic effects of white supremacist brutality in northwest Louisiana, highlighting the constancy of racial subjugation in one of the most violent areas of the South. Tracing the commitment of the region's white slaveholders to racial violence from antebellum enslavement through to Reconstruction, Peller Semmens unearths the durable ideology of mastery in the Red River region. She demonstrates that white supremacy and vigilante violence were slaveholding recloaked and became effective, calibrated tools of political, social, and economic control during Reconstruction. White supremacist violence, demonstrative, controlling, and visceral, attempted to redress mastery and subjugate and subdue newly emancipated Black individuals, imposing parameters on freedom. Unreconstructed shows that white violence and racial control were foundational elements of the regional ideology and identity that Reconstruction galvanized. This ideology of mastery transcended class, creating a shared ethos steeped in racist behavior that remained crucial to postwar conceptions of white selfhood. Barbarity, harnessed boldly and overtly, formed the apex of a diversified campaign of persistent violence that chipped away at freedpeople's experience of freedom and resulted in several seismic incidents of racial violence, including the massacres at Shady Grove, Colfax, and Coushatta. Peller Semmens's arguments concerning racial power structures speak to race issues prevalent in America today contributing significantly to a vibrant discourse on the inheritances of slavery and Reconstruction Indeed the implications of Reconstruction violence in this region still reverberate nationwide making this corner of the South integral to the larger narrative of southern racism white supremacy and segregation
