

Son, I Remember

When you were an infant my greatest joy,
Came from holding and rocking my baby boy!
At one you took such pleasure in talking,
And suddenly my baby was walking.
You were king of the house when you turned two,
And I spent my days chasing after you.
The time slipped away, and soon you were five,
Such a curious child and so alive!
At six you discovered that school was fun,
And you ran and played till the day was done.
In the blink of an eye my son was eight,
With an interest in sports & staying up late.
Then before I knew it, my boy was ten,
And putting off homework time and again.
At thirteen it seemed you were rarely home,
As through the neighborhood you would roam.
And sixteen found you behind the wheel,
If you only knew how that made me feel!
At eighteen your high school days were done,
They were filled with laughter & friendship & fun!
Now you're a man standing straight and tall,
And though time slipped away...I remember it all!
