just one month old It s both a love letter to and an aching examination of art making family identity and belonging Dear Marian the letter from the Company begins You are one of the great writers of this century At 75 Marian Ffarmer is almost as famous for her signature tricorn hat and cape as for her verse She has lived for decades in the one bedroom New York apartment she once shared with her mother miles away from any other family dedicating herself to her art Yet recently her certainty about her choices has started to fray especially when she thinks about her only son now approaching middle age with no steady income Into that breach comes the letter an invitation to the Silicon Valley headquarters of one of the world s most powerful companies in order to make history by writing a poem Marian has never collaborated with anyone let alone a machine but the offer is too lucrative to resist and she boards a plane to San Francisco with dreams of helping her son In the Company s serene and golden Mind Studio she encounters Charlotte their state of the art poetry bot and is startled to find that it has written 230 442 poems in the last week though it claims to only like two of them Over the conversations to follow the poet is intrigued confused moved and frightened by Charlotte s vision of the world by what it knows and doesn t know Do you remember being born it asks her Of course Marian doesn t but Charlotte does This is a relationship a friendship unlike anything Marian has known and as it evolves and as Marian meets strangers at swimming pools tortoises at the zoo a clutch of younger poets a late night TV host and his synthetic foam set she is forced to confront the secrets of her past and the direction of her future Who knew that a disembodied mind could help bend Marian s life towards human connection that friendship and family are not just time eating obligations but soul expanding joys Or that belonging to one s art means above all else belonging to the world

It focuses on the ways in which adults responded to the untimely deaths of children whether and how they expressed their grief. The study engages with the hypothesis of parental indifference associated with the French cultural historian Philippe Ariès by analysing the changing risk of mortality since the sixteenth century and assessing its consequences. It uses paintings and poems to describe feelings and emotions in ways that are not only highly original but also challenge traditional disciplinary conventions. The circumstances of infant and child mortality are considered for France and England while example portraits and poems are selected from England and America. While the work is firmly grounded in demography it is especially concerned with current debates in social and cultural history with the history of childhood the way pictorial images can be read and the use as historical evidence to which literature may be put. This is a wide ranging and ambitious multi disciplinary study that will add significantly to our understanding of demographic structures the ways in which they have conditioned attitudes and behaviour in the past The Complete Works of Robert Burns Containing His Poems, Songs, and Correspondence Robert Burns, 1875 Selected Letters of Robert Penn Warren Robert Penn Warren, 2011-06-14 The years 1969 and 1979 bookend a volatile decade in American history. As an articulate witness to the era of the Vietnam War, Watergate, Jimmy Carter and the national malaise, Robert Penn Warren produced a phenomenal body of work securing his place in the canon of American poetry. Volume five of Selected Letters of Robert Penn Warren, Backward Glances and New Visions, 1969-1979 includes Warren's letters to friends, family, peers, editors, inquiring scholars and critics, recording the details of his personal and professional life and illustrating his pivotal role in twentieth century American literature. In these turbulent but fruitful years, Warren produced both Audubon (1969) and the revised version of Brother to Dragons (1979). In between lay some of Warren's most searching work as poet, novelist, literary critic and social commentator. During this era, Warren's achievements included his highly experimental and complex Or Else (1974) and the Pulitzer Prize winning Now and Then (1978). Before the end of the 1970s, three more novels appeared, concluding with his final book of fiction A Place to Come To. This volume provides insight into Warren's inspiration during a remarkably productive era and will prove an essential resource on his life and work Where Have You Been? Michael Hofmann, 2014-12-02 A collection of essays on poetry and translation from literary critic Michael Hofmann
