Remembrance Past And Present:

Prophetic Remembrance Erica Still, 2014-12-17 Using the term prophetic remembrance to articulate the expression of a constituent faith in the performative capacity of language Erica Still shows how black subjectivity is born of and interprets cultural trauma She brings together African American neo slave narratives and Black South African postapartheid narratives to reveal the processes by which black subjectivity accounts for its traumatic origins names the therapeutic work of the present and inscribes the possibility of the future The author draws on trauma studies black theology and literary criticism as she considers how writers such as Toni Morrison Charles Johnson John Edgar Wideman David Bradley Sindiwe Magona K Sello Duiker and Zakes Mda explore the possibilities for rehearsing a traumatic past without being overcome by it Although both African American and South African literary studies have addressed questions of memory narrative and trauma little comparative work has been done Prophetic Remembrance offers this comparative focus in reading these literatures together to address the question of what it means to remember and to recover from racial oppression The Time of Our Lives David Couzens Hoy, 2012-01-13 A study of the emergence in post Kantian continental philosophy of a focus on the lived experience of temporality The project of all philosophy may be to gain reconciliation with time even if not every philosopher has dealt with time expressly A confrontation with the passing of time and with human finitude runs through the history of philosophy as an ultimate concern In this genealogy of the concept of temporality David Hoy examines the emergence in a post Kantian continental philosophy of a focus on the lived experience of the time of our lives rather than on the time of the universe The purpose is to see how phenomenological and poststructuralist philosophers have tried to locate the source of temporality how they have analyzed time's passing and how they have depicted our relation to time once it has been in a Proustian sense regained Hoy engages with competing theoretical tactics for reconciling us to our fleeting temporality drawing on work by Kant Heidegger Hegel Husserl Merleau Ponty Nietzsche Gadamer Sartre Bourdieu Foucault Bergson Deleuze and Derrida Hoy considers four existential strategies for coping with the apparent flow of temporality including Proust's passive and Walter Benjamin's active reconciliation through memory and Deleuze's critique of poststructuralist politics Foucault's confrontation with the temporality of power and Deleuze's account of Aion and Chronos He concludes by exploring whether a dual temporalization could be what constitutes the singular time of our lives Fashion, Upcycling, and Memory Sanem Odabaşı, 2024-02-06 Fashion Upcycling and Memory questions practices and explores its profound connection to memory and sustainability Through a practice based researcher lens the research examines the intricate interplay between upcycling and memory unveiling assemblages of concepts objects and values that inspire action This book takes readers on a journey through the multidimensional relationship between individuals and clothing It delves into the disposal of garments and the transformative aspirations embedded within the fashion industry Employing the unique research methodology known as Artography which merges artistic practice rigorous research and educational development this book unearths the dynamic interplay between upcycling and memory The author unravels the intricate web of connections within upcycling through diverse practices methods and insightful interviews By critically questioning established norms and scrutinizing the actions of fashion designers the book makes significant contributions to existing literature Additionally it offers practical recommendations for sustainable fashion education making it an indispensable resource for individuals involved in the textile and fashion field Enhanced with visual aids such as images and illustrations this book ensures an engaging reading experience that immerses readers in the research based discourse

Memory, Consciousness and the Brain Endel Tulving, 2013-05-13 Memory and consciousness have been objects of fascination to psychologists and other brain scientists for over one hundred years Because of the complexity of the two topics however and despite great efforts spent on their study the progress in their understanding over most of this time has been rather slow Recently thanks to new techniques and to changing pre theoretical orientations the study of the role of the brain in memory and consciousness has received an immense boost and has become a central focus of research activity by thousands of researchers worldwide The volume reviews recent progress on our understanding of memory consciousness and the brain and identifies a number of acute outstanding problems The purpose of the volume based on a conference in Tallinn is to look to the future and not simply to share knowledge from ongoing research In this sense the volume does not contain a comprehensive overview of the field but rather showcases a selection of exciting ideas in cognitive neuroscience Contributors include some of the world's best known cognitive brain scientists who have greatly contributed to our understanding of memory as a relation between the brain and the mind as well as a number of highly promising younger researchers in the field Memory Consciousness and the Brain will be essential reading for anyone interested in the latest cutting edge thinking at the interface of these topics and in the future directions in which it may take us

Circassia and Ukraine Adel Bashqawi, 2023-08-23 In light of the war of extermination that waged against Ukraine the aggression is a typical scorched earth policy Genocide ethnic cleansing and forced deportation committed in the nineteenth century in Circassia are similar to Russia's war in Ukraine since February 24 2022 The book reminds of dozens of peoples and nations eager to restore their confiscated rights since the dissolution of the Soviet Union until now It is divided into time periods chapters It touches on articles studies prominent occasions developments events and commemorations that occurred during the mentioned period What happened in the past and is developing nowadays necessitated the documentation showing and exposing facts and events which will set the record straight Where actions speak louder than words this confirms an undeniable reality With peoples deprived of their rights the Russian state did not care so far for mending fences and reconciling for peace and fairness That confirms an undeniable fact which is that the Russian state has not cared so far to carry out the duty entrusted to it in order to correct what the successive Russian regimes have committed against the Circassian nation and other victims of wars occupation genocide deportation and forced annexation write a review Ethics in Culture Astrid Erll, Herbert Grabes, Ansgar Nünning, 2008-08-27 Alongside the recent cultural turn in the humanities there has been a noticeable return to ethical considerations With regard to literature as well as other media this has rekindled awareness of a tension antagonism or even disparity between ethics and aesthetics This volume of articles takes a more systematic and cross disciplinary approach to the widely mooted ethical turn in literature and other media than has been pursued so far It brings together a wide range of critical perspectives from literary studies media and cultural memory studies and philosophy tracing the complex and sometimes conflicting relationship between ethics and aesthetics in theoretical contexts and individual case studies as diverse as colonial architecture nineteenth century literary histories and postmodern writing and art The Routledge Companion to Career Studies Hugh Gunz, Mila Lazarova, Wolfgang Mayrhofer, 2019-11-12 The Routledge Companion to Career Studies is an in depth reference for researchers students and practitioners looking for a comprehensive overview of the state of the art of career studies Split into five parts the volume looks at major areas of research within career studies and reflects on the latest developments in the areas of theory empirical studies and methodology The book s five parts cover 1 major theoretical and methodological debates and approaches to studying careers 2 careers as dynamic ongoing processes covering such issues as time shaping careers career outcomes and patterns and the forces shaping careers 3 the local national and global context of careers 4 implementing career research to design practical interventions in areas such as education counseling and national policy and 5 a commentary on the current state of career scholarship and its future development as represented in this volume by founding scholars in the field This book will be a sourcebook for scholars studying careers research students intending to take up the study of careers and anyone scholars and practitioners with an interest not only in understanding careers the factors shaping them and where they lead but also in how this understanding might be used in practice The Eschatological Person Andrew T. J. Kaethler, 2022-07-12 Both Alexander Schmemmann and Joseph Ratzinger insist that the human person remains shrouded in mystery without God s self disclosure in the person of Jesus Christ Like us Jesus lived in a particular time and location and therefore time and temporality must be part of the ontological question of what it means to be a human person Yet Jesus the one who has time for us ascended to the Father and the bride of Christ awaits his return and therefore time and temporality are conditioned by the eschatological With this in mind the ontological question of personhood and temporality is a question that concerns eschatology how does eschatology shape personhood Bringing together Schmemmann and Ratzinger in a theological dialogue for the first time this book explores their respective approaches and answers to the aforementioned question While the two theologians share much in common it is only Ratzinger s relational ontological approach that by being consistently relational from top to bottom consistently preserves the meaningfulness of temporal existence Miki Kiyoshi's The Logic of Imagination Kiyoshi Miki, 2024-06-27 The Japanese philosopher Miki Kiyoshi opens doors to all those interested in rethinking the problem of imagination myth and technology

Miki Kiyoshi is one of the central figures in the Kyoto School often spoken of as the heir of Kitaro Nishida Born in Japan in 1897 he died in prison shortly after the end of World War II in 1945 at the age of 48 Miki's The Logic of Imagination first appeared in the journal Thought in 1937 under the themes of Myth Institution and Technology The next part Experience was serialized in the same journal and Miki continued to work on the final part but was never completed it due to his arrest This translation makes this seminal work available in English for the first time Featuring an introduction and accompanied throughout by contextual notes it includes essential information about Miki's life and work Miki's philosophy of the imagination anticipated later theories found first in Hannah Arendt and then in Paul Ricoeur and most recently in Charles Taylor The connection Miki makes of the imagination with technology anticipates ideas of the technological imagination in Don Ihde and Bernard Stiegler Miki's thinking about the imagination illuminates our understanding of technology and how we behave in the world This accessible critical edition of his work does justice to one of the most unfairly underrated authors of Japanese philosophy

Living with the Dead Laura King, 2025-01-13 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read on the Oxford Academic platform and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations The dead are everywhere in family life From a great grandmother's recipe made time and again to a dog eared black and white photo of a family on a beach and from a carefully curated family bible to a much told story of a family fleeing their home many decades ago families are made by their pasts This book examines the relationship between the living and the dead within family life charting the way families create afterlives for their ancestors It asks who and what gets to be remembered and why Considering different points of connection with the dead in each chapter through graves homes things photos writing research and stories this book demonstrates how death and the dead remain a crucial presence within family life Through an innovative methodology of collaborative critical family history Living with the Dead features interviews personal archives and the results of a collaboration with fifteen family historians including the author's own family What results is a unique way of exploring family pasts of charting not only how families have remembered their dead and passed on their histories over time but the mechanisms of how histories are constructed and shared Living with the Dead reveals how crucial the dead and stories of them are within families and provides new ways for historians to unpick the way history is intimately made

Adventures in Philosophy John Crauford Wordsworth, 1926

Remembrance and Forgiveness Ajlina Karamehić-Muratović, Laura Kromják, 2020-10-26 An enquiry into the social science of remembrance and forgiveness in global episodes of genocide and mass violence during the post Holocaust era this volume explores the ways in which remembrance and forgiveness have changed over time and how they have been used in more recent cases of genocide and mass violence With case studies from Rwanda Ethiopia South Sudan South Africa Australia Cambodia Indonesia Timor Leste Israel Palestine Argentina Guatemala El Salvador the United States Bosnia and Herzegovina and Chechnya the volume avoids a purely legal perspective to open the interpretation of post

genocidal societies communities and individuals to global and interdisciplinary perspectives that consider not only forgiveness and thus social harmony but remembrance and disharmony This volume will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in memory studies genocide remembrance and forgiveness Feminist Eschatology Emily Pennington,2016-08-25 Many feminist theologians have made timely and valuable contributions to rethinking the eschaton by framing it as cyclical and by embracing endings as they are experienced by present relational fluid and sensuous bodies However any sense of eschatological finality or ultimacy has either been rejected or ignored Feminist Eschatology seeks to think differently about Christian eschatology in light of contributions from feminist theologians noting the numerous and varied critiques they have made of traditional models These critiques are identified as being directed towards three key claims eschatology is understood to be actuated by a domineering God populated by masculinised beings and disassociated from present lives Using a form of strategic feminism wherein traits associated with female bodies and some women s experiences of their bodies are used to rethink the end time of the eschaton this book contributes to the meaning and significance of both bodies and eschatology Shining toward Spirit, The book of Divine Love and beginnings Volume II Zara Borthwick,Nicholas Arnold,2015-04-14 Shining toward Spirit Vol II introduces communications and messages from spirits who share their experience of living with the Divine Love This book expands our awareness about the mortal soul and the Immortality of the Divine Love our human faith and living a spirit s life in the spirit world The vision of this work will truly inspire the individual who in their pursuit of information about spirits and spirit communication the Divine Love and the spirit world Shining toward Spirit leads to a beginning Shining toward Spirit Volume II continues on shining from Volume I
