Rencontres 1 Chroniques Et Entretiens:

Luis Buñuel Román Gubern, Paul Hammond, 2012-01-04 The turbulent years of the 1930s were of profound importance in the life of Spanish film director Luis Buñuel 1900 1983 He joined the Surrealist movement in 1929 but by 1932 had renounced it and embraced Communism During the Spanish Civil War 1936 39 he played an integral role in disseminating film propaganda in Paris for the Spanish Republican cause Luis Buñuel The Red Years 1929 1939 investigates Buñuel's commitment to making the politicized documentary Land without Bread 1933 and his key role as an executive producer at Filmfono in Madrid where he was responsible in 1935 36 for making four commercial features that prefigure his work in Mexico after 1946 As for the republics of France and Spain between which Buñuel shuttled during the 1930s these became equally embattled as left and right totalitarianisms fought to wrest political power away from a debilitated capitalism Where it exists the literature on this crucial decade of the film director's life is scant and relies on Buñuel's own self-interested accounts of that complex period Román Gubern and Paul Hammond have undertaken extensive archival research in Europe and the United States and evaluated Buñuel's accounts and those of historians and film writers to achieve a portrait of Buñuel's Red Years that abounds in new information Mists of Regret Dudley Andrew, 2021-11-09 Just before World War II French cinema reached a high point that has been dubbed the style of poetic realism Working with unforgettable actors like Jean Gabin and Arletty directors such as Renoir Carné, Gremillon, Duvivier and Chenal routinely captured the prizes for best film at every festival and in every country and their accomplishments led to general agreement that the French were the first to give maturity to the sound cinema Here the distinguished film scholar Dudley Andrew examines the motivations and consequences of these remarkable films by looking at the cultural web in which they were made Beyond giving a rich view of the life and worth of cinema in France Andrew contributes substantially to our knowledge of how films are dealt with in history Where earlier studies have treated the masterpieces of this era either in themselves or as part of the vision of their creators and where certain recent scholars have reacted to this by dissolving the masterpieces back into the system of entertainment that made them possible Andrew stresses the dialogue of culture and cinema In his view the films open questions that take us into the culture while our understanding of the culture gives energy direction and consequence to our reading of the films The book demonstrates the value of this hermeneutic approach for one set of texts and one period but it should very much interest film theorists and film historians of all sorts Cinema Engagé Jonathan Buchsbaum, 1988

Non dimenticarsi di Proust Anna Dolfi, 2014 On the one hand le cult de Guermantes and on the other that of chez Swann Few places like Illiers Combray offer the tangible measure of a myth that has involved not only readers and writers but also those who have reflected on the meaning and structures of modern fiction As the great criticism of the 20th century and the most innovative reflections on the method would not be conceivable without the Recherche Auerbach Curtius Spitzer Poulet Jauss Deleuze Richard Genette Barthes as well as Solmi Debenedetti Contini and Macchia in Italy measured themselves with essays and other memorable books while Caproni Fortini Ginzburg Raboni tried themselves with translation In short the seduction of a work with a very dense intertextuality and variety of registers still resides not only in the ability to talk about the history and culture of the West offering the grandiose fresco of a universe in decline but in the possibility of inserting itself on many levels including that of meta literature non fiction as an obligatory point of passage Thus contributing to create a world parallel to the real one which is now populated by its doubles cities cathedrals feelings emotions words intermittences From the field of fiction to that induced of narratology no doubt that Proust has changed our life the perception of the world and the way of looking at objects and of reading books and things The collection that is proposed here designed and curated by Anna Dolfi gives a broad and evocative testimony offering itself as an essential object of study on the traces of the unforgettable unseizable Marcel
