Movement for Self-Healing Mier Schnieder,2011-02-19 Born blind and declared incurably blind after a series of childhood operations left him with only a slight ability to discern light and shadow Meir Schneider remained convinced that his handicap was not permanent As a teenager he began work with two teachers who gave him exercises and techniques to reverse his blindness Within four years he had gained a remarkable degree of vision and begun to develop a system of therapeutic exercise combining movement breathing and mental imagery He also began working with people whose physical problems ranged from chronic headaches to polio and muscular dystrophy inspiring them with his example enthusiasm and faith miraculous recoveries ensued Sections in the book give specific guidelines for healing back problems arthritis multiple sclerosis breathing difficulties eye problems and muscular dystrophy Movement for Self Healing parallels the stories of Schneider and the people he has worked with detailing his holistic methods of stimulating the natural healing powers of the body offering a practical guide to specific exercises and articulating a profound message of inspiration and hope Successful Aging Martin Bloom,Waldo C. Klein,2013-12-01 There is a near universal folk saying that everyone wishes to live a good long life but no one wishes for old age More contemporarily the rock and roll band Little Feat sang You know that you re over the hill when your mind s making promises your body can t fill This book is about the good long life It is a book about primary prevention strategies in the aging process it is not about preventing that process It is not about being old Instead it is about the things that individuals and the helping professionals who provide them with counsel and assistance can do to prevent the preventable problems of advancing age and to better manage those changes in functioning that cannot be prevented In short it is about extending all our capacities to the fullest so that we can better keep all those promises that we make to ourselves and others Aging is a life long process We focus here on the changes that are taking place in our selves and in our society as we age In particular we focus on what we can do to affect these changes by the choices we make and how we live This book offers primary prevention strategies for mature and older adults with the recognition that mature adulthood starts as soon as we are old enough to truly appreciate our active role in our own aging processes
