Looking For Mies:

Looking for Mies Ricardo Daza, 2008 A short and compelling text Looking for Mies aims to reveal the man behind the architecture The now famous photograph of Mies van der Rohe in a steel and glass building smoking a cigar has fascinated and intrigued the author to such an extent that he has painstakingly researched the events surrounding its taking Our Times, Our Lives Eve Otto, Jozef Otto, 2004-11 Eve Otto explains When I began writing this book I had in the back of my mind that those who are young now might someday be interested in what life was like when their grandparents were growing up how life changed drastically with the coming of World War II in Europe and the turbulent years that followed the traumas of our emigration to America with our three young children and the difficult adjustments we had to make My book then is sort of a legacy to them Sex and Buildings Richard J. Williams, 2013-07-15 Massive modern skyscrapers obelisks towers all are structures that thanks to their phallic shape are often associated with sex But other buildings are more subtly connected as they provide the frameworks for our sexual lives and act as reminders of our sexual memories This relationship between sex and buildings mattered more than ever in the United States and Europe during the turbulent twentieth century when a culture of unprecedented sexual frankness and tolerance emerged and came to dominate many aspects of public life Part architectural history part cultural history and part travelogue Sex and Buildings explores how progressive sexual attitudes manifest themselves in architecture asking what progressive sexuality might look like architecturally and exploring the successes and failures of buildings attempts to reflect it In search of structures that reflect the sexual mores of their inhabitants Richard J Williams visits modernist buildings in Southern California the Westin Bonaventure Hotel the Playboy Mansion in Chicago the Seagram in New York communes from the 1960s and more A fascinating and often funny look at a period of extraordinary social change coupled with aesthetic invention Sex and Buildings will change the way we look at the buildings around us The Third Coast Thomas L. Dyja, 2014-03-25 Winner of the Chicago Tribune s 2013 Heartland Prize A critically acclaimed history of Chicago at mid century featuring many of the incredible personalities that shaped American culture Before air travel overtook trains nearly every coast to coast journey included a stop in Chicago and this flow of people and commodities made it the crucible for American culture and innovation In luminous prose Chicago native Thomas Dyja re creates the story of the city in its postwar prime and explains its profound impact on modern America from Chess Records to Playboy McDonald s to the University of Chicago Populated with an incredible cast of characters including Mahalia Jackson Muddy Waters Howlin Wolf Chuck Berry Sun Ra Simone de Beauvoir Nelson Algren Gwendolyn Brooks Studs Turkel and Mayor Richard J Daley The Third Coast recalls the prominence of the Windy City in all its grandeur From Marriage To Love: CEO, Good Evening Dai MengYeZi, 2020-11-02 As soon as she entered the house she was immediately declared to be married to a fool She desperately escaped from the wolf s den and entered the tiger s den Being coerced threatened and pressed Woman once you enter my room you must give birth to my son Mu Huan foolishly asked Why not daughter He replied with a cold voice Then it will be one son and one daughter In the following days all kinds of knocking sounds could be heard She would be reborn many years later She would be a famous designer but he said that in this life she had only designed the most perfect piece of work for him      Pedagogy and Place Robert A. The Bauhaus Group Nicholas Fox Weber, 2009-10-27 Nicholas Fox Weber for thirty three years head of the Albers Foundation spent many years with Anni and Josef Albers the only husband and wife artistic pair at the Bauhaus she was a textile artist he a professor and an artist in glass metal wood and photography. The Alberses told him their own stories and described life at the Bauhaus with their fellow artists and teachers Walter Gropius Paul Klee Wassily Kandinsky Ludwig Mies van der Rohe as well as these figures lesser known wives and girlfriends. In this extraordinary group biography Weber brilliantly brings to life the Bauhaus geniuses and the community of the pioneering art school in Germany's Weimar and Dessau in the 1920s and early 1930s. Here are Walter Gropius founder of the Bauhaus the architect who streamlined design early in his career and who saw the school as a place for designers to collaborate in an ideal setting a dashing hussar the ardent young lover of the renowned femme fatale Alma Mahler beginning when she was the wife of composer Gustav Mahler Paul Klee the onlooker smoking his pipe observing Bauhaus dances as well as his colleagues lectures from the back of the room the cook who invented recipes and threw together his limited ingredients with the same spontaneity sense of proportion and fascination that underscored his paintings Wassily Kandinsky the Russian born pioneer of abstract painting guarding a secret tragedy one could never have guessed from his lively paintings in which he used bold colors not just for their visual vibrancy but for their sound effects Josef Albers who entered the Bauhaus as a student in 1920 and was one of the seven remaining faculty members when the school was closed by the Gestapo in 1933 Annelise Else Frieda Fleischmann a Berlin heiress an intrepid young woman who later as Anni Albers made art the focal point of her existence Ludwig Mies van der Rohe imperious decisive often harsh an architect who became director the last of the Bauhaus and the person who guided the school's final days after SS storm troopers raided the premises Weber captures the life spirit and flair with which these geniuses lived as well as their consuming goal of making art and architecture. A portrait infused with their fulsome embrace of life their gift for laughter and the powerful force of their individual artistic personalities.
