Mama's Voice Esther Bganya, 2015-03-31 Mamas Voice is the product of a middle aged Christian psychiatrist and mother who journals her life observations and experiences hoping to pass on some life lessons to her children What started off as random journaling of thoughts ended up being a published book released as a birthday present for her children The book is written in a random manner with life lessons ranging from self esteem bad habits addictions snobbery conflict money selfishness greed and codependent relationships through to family dramas The author attempts to capture some important life lessons with a touch of humor and rawness that depicts the real life dramas Both pleasurable and painful life observations and experiences are unapologetically expressed with a rawness that does not coat it with sweet candy Its about real life seen through the eyes of a mother going through a midlife crisis and questioning most things she had taken for granted The messages are given as direct instructions to her children in second or third person voices and riddles The messages are just as random as they entered the authors thoughts This is a light read for both the middle aged and young who are questioning a few things in their worldview Like the philosopher in the book of Ecclesiastes the author grapples with certain life issues until she finally realizes that she cannot fix the world and she gives up control The forty five year old author starts off by writing a letter to her thirteen year old self and ends the book with her modified version of the Ten Commandments and a futuristic letter to her eighty five year old self
