Publish Or Die Complete Unabridged:

Publish or Perish Imad A. Moosa, 2024-02-12 In this thoroughly revised second edition of Publish or Perish Imad A. Moosa extends and develops his analysis of the continual pressure to publish research which plagues the academic sphere. Perceptive and provocative, the book identifies the duress placed upon academics to either publish their work regularly or face the negative consequences ranging from a lack of promotion to redundancy. Science, 1928. Outlook Alfred Emanuel Smith, Francis Walton, 1880. Harper's Magazine Henry Mills Alden, Thomas Bucklin Wells, Lee Foster Hartman, Frederick Lewis Allen, 1914. Important American periodical dating back to 1850. DHEW Publication No. (OE)., 1978. The Publishers Weekly, 1901. Precedent in International Arbitration Emmanuel Gaillard, Yas Banifatemi, International Arbitration Institute, 2008-06-01. IAI Series No 5. The International Arbitration Institute (IAI) series on international arbitration is a new periodic series of publications that will focus on cutting edge issues and developments in international arbitration. About the IAI. The International Arbitration Institute (IAI) is an organization created under the auspices of the Comité Français de l'Arbitrage (CFA) was created to promote exchanges international arbitration. The IAI is designed to promote exchanges on current issues in the field of international commercial arbitration. Its activities include the regular organization of international conferences colloquiums as well as conducting various research projects. About the book. Arbitrators routinely refer in their decisions to awards rendered by other arbitral tribunals that deal with the same issues. However, natural it may seem to arbitrators and to parties who will refer to arbitral precedents in an attempt to support their position, such an approach raises many practical and theoretical questions. Is there such a thing as arbitral precedent? What weight should arbitrators give to decisions previously rendered by other arbitral tribunals? Can arbitral case law exist without consistency? Does such consistency exist? Is it necessary or simply desirable? What is the respective weight to be given to arbitral and national case law when arbitrators have to decide a case in accordance with a given law? These are some of the questions that this book explores in the context of both international commercial arbitration and investment arbitration.

The Rise of Transparency in International Arbitration Alberto Malatesta, Rinaldo Sali, 2013-08-01. The Rise of Transparency in International Arbitration is inspired by a joint research conducted in the last years by the Milan Chamber of Arbitration and the Law School of the University Carlo Cattaneo LIUC Castellanza in Italy. The two bodies have shared a common concern in order to increase the use of international commercial arbitration and to develop a proper culture in the field: the need for enhancing transparency and especially for a wider dissemination of arbitral awards. The advantages of arbitration as the main alternative means of dispute resolution are well known and undisputed. Privacy and confidentiality are among them and at the same time among the prevailing features of any arbitral proceedings. However, sometimes users have the feeling to deal with a close and too slow growing world. The need, if not the request for a greater accountability of the arbitral world in the whole is more and more widespread. In this context, the aim of this book is on the one hand to spur discussion and to shed new light on the traditional idea of confidentiality in international commercial arbitration and in some other figures alike Although this idea is sometimes founded upon sound reasons that cannot be ignored or totally set aside it must be reconsidered by taking into account the rise of transparency On the other hand a specific proposal is made in order to step ahead from the current situation with particular reference to the issue of the publication of the awards In this respect the main outcome is the Guidelines for the Anonymous Publication of Arbitral Awards already adopted and experienced by the Milan Chamber They are addressed to institutions practitioners scholars with the goal to favor the circulation of the awards and of the related decisions

Kuno Francke's Edition of the German Classics (1913-15) Jeffrey L. Sammons, 2009

The twenty volume edition of The German Classics Masterpieces of German Literature Translated into English was edited by Kuno Francke of Harvard 1855 1930 the most prestigious professor of German in America at the time While it bears the imprint dates 1913 and 1914 it was not completed until mid 1915 just in time for the submarine sinking of the passenger liner Lusitania in May of that year The edition was publicized with great fanfare and was well received at first but with the outbreak of the European war in 1914 and the entry of the United States into it in 1917 American sentiment turned against all things German The reviews became hostile the edition was nearly pulped its publisher went bankrupt and Francke felt obliged to resign his Harvard professorship Kuno Francke's Edition of The German Classics 1913 15 describes the origins of the edition recounts the careers of the editors and some fifty professional contributors seeks to identify approximately 115 translators and comments on the nearly 500 illustrations mostly German art of the nineteenth century This book also introduces the selections from the 114 featured authors almost a third of whom were still alive at the time of publication and evaluates the critical commentary The edition emerges from the study as a laboratory of the high prestige of German literature and culture in the United States before it fell into permanent decline at the time of World War I
