Stewart, 2009-12-01 This two volume collection of cutting edge thinking about science and religion shows how scientific and religious practices of inquiry can be viewed as logically compatible complementary and mutually supportive Features submissions by world leading scientists and philosophers Discusses a wide range of hotly debated issues including Big Bang cosmology evolution intelligent design dinosaurs and creation general and special theories of relativity dark energy the Multiverse Hypothesis and Super String Theory Includes articles on stem cell research and Bioethics by William Hurlbut who served on President Bush's Bioethics Committee On Cultivating Faith and Science Janez Juhant, Bojan Žalec, 2007 The ethical distress of the post modern world stimulates and directs us to reflect our ethical and cultural grounds Man is a transcendent being He cannot reach or put in order immediate goods he needs if he is not prepared to acknowledge the grounds of his person and develop the virtues of prudence love hope faith wisdom justice courage temperance etc These are ethical questions concerning different worldviews and cannot be solved only by scientific methods Many people who in the past did not care for religion as such now take seriously religious personal and societal aspects of humane life The fundamental crucial questions of man are ethical questions They are in various ways related or perplexed with the question of faith and of science Theological and Ethical Perspectives on Climate Engineering Forrest Clingerman, Kevin J. O'Brien, 2016-09-09 The climate is changing as an unintended consequence of human industrialization and consumerism Recently some scientists and engineers have suggested climate engineering technological solutions that would intentionally change the climate to make it more hospitable

This approach focuses on large scale technologies to alleviate the worst effects of anthropogenic climate change This book considers the moral philosophical and religious questions raised by such proposals bringing Christian theology and ethics into the conversation about climate engineering for the first time The contributors have different views on whether climate engineering is morally acceptable and on what kinds of climate engineering are most promising and most dangerous but all agree that religion has a vital role to play in the analysis and decisions called for on this vital issue Calming the Storm presents diverse perspectives on some of the most vital questions raised by climate engineering Who has the right to make decisions about such global technological efforts What have we learned from the decisions that caused the climate to change that might shed light on efforts to reverse that change What frameworks and metaphors are helpful in thinking about climate engineering and which are counterproductive What religious beliefs practices and rituals can help people to imagine and evaluate the prospect of engineering the climate Social Sciences and Humanities Index ,1916 Cumulative Index to a Selected List of Periodicals ,1899 Subject Index to Periodicals ,1924 The Subject Index to Periodicals ,1916 The United States Catalog Supplement, January 1918-June 1921 Eleanor E.
