Religion And The Human Image:

Religion and the Human Image Carl A. Raschke, James A. Kirk, Mark C. Taylor, 1977 Religion and the Human Image traces major religious philosophies to show how each is a mirror of man It explores religion as a set of symbols of images which reveal various aspects of human life throughout history It shows how to interpret the clues that give significance to the human situation The book discusses how the human image is depicted in the religion of ancient Israel in early Christianity in classical Hinduism and Buddhism and in the traditional religious cultures of China and Japan It concludes with two strong chapters that deal with the disintegration of traditional religious images under the impact of rapid social change and secularization during the past one hundred and fifty years the text concludes with an examination of recent trends in religion which seem to point toward the recovery of a new understanding of the human condition The material presents key traditions rather than covering everything about all religions although the introductory chapter summarizes and critically analyzes the various theories of religion in general It integrates the historical approach to religion with sociology psychology philosophy and theology Publisher      Religion and the Human Future David E. Klemm, William Schweiker, 2009-01-30 This powerful manifesto outlines a vision called theological humanism based on the idea that the integrity of life provides a way to articulate the meaning of religion for the human future Explores a profound quest to understand the meaning and responsibility of our shared and yet divided humanity amidst the uncertainty of modern society Articulates the idea that human beings are mixed creatures striving for integrity not only trying to conform to God's will Sets forth a dynamic and robust vision of human life beyond the divisions that haunt the humanities social sciences theology and religious studies

The Human Image of God Hans-Georg Ziebertz, Friedrich Schweitzer, Hermann Häring, Don Browning, 2021-10-01 A new wave of religious energy is sweeping through the western nations Although God is disappearing from religious discourse in western culture both as a word and as a concept there is a definite undercurrent of religious ardour which is growing in strength It focuses all the more attention on the issue what or who is God in the modern era This is the question examined through systematic studies practical theology and empirical research that are presented here through anthropologically relevant theology Renowned international authors make it plain in this book the question of God is exciting again This book is published in honour of Johannes A van der Ven on the occasion of his 60th birthday      Made in the Image of God Michael Fuller, David Jasper, 2021-05-15 What does it mean to be human and made in the image of God This collection of essays explores the question from a wide range of theological and philosophical perspectives      Religion and the Order of Nature Seyyed Hossein Nasr, 1996-09-26 The current ecological crisis is a matter of urgent global concern with solutions being sought on many fronts In this book Seyyed Hossein Nasr argues that the devastation of our world has been exacerbated if not actually caused by the reductionist view of nature that has been advanced by modern secular science What is needed he believes is the recovery of the truth to which the great enduring religions all attest namely that nature is sacred Nasr traces the historical process through which Western civilization moved away from the idea of nature as sacred and embraced a world view which sees humans as alienated from nature and nature itself as a machine to be dominated and manipulated by humans His goal is to negate the totalitarian claims of modern science and to re open the way to the religious view of the order of nature developed over centuries in the cosmologies and sacred sciences of the great traditions Each tradition Nasr shows has a wealth of knowledge and experience concerning the order of nature The resuscitation of this knowledge he argues would allow religions all over the globe to enrich each other and cooperate to heal the wounds inflicted upon the Earth

Religion and the Inculturation of Human Rights in Ghana Abamfo Ofori Atiemo,2013-06-13 It has been maintained that the secular nature of modern human rights makes them incompatible with the religious orientation of African and non Western societies However in view of the resilience of religion in the global and local public sphere it is important to explore how religion can contribute to the promotion and enjoyment of human rights Based on fieldwork conducted in Ghana Abamfo Ofori Atiemo here establishes a convergence between human rights and local religious and cultural values in African societies He argues that human rights represent universal dream values This allows for a cultural embedding of human rights in Ghana and other non Western societies He argues that dream values are usually presented in religious language and proclaimed for example by prophets and seers or expressed in certain forms of taboo proverbs or legal norms He employs the concept of inculturation adaptation of the way Church teachings are presented to non Christian cultures as a hermeneutical tool for developing a model to understand the encounter between universal human rights and local cultures Offering a new model for explaining the relation between religion and human rights Religion and the Inculturation of Human Rights in Ghana offers a novel perspective on the links between global trends and local cultures underpinned by strong currents of religious ideas

Religions in Dialogue Alan Race,Ingrid Shafer,2017-11-30 This title was first published in 2002 Judaism Christianity and Islam as Abrahamic religions share much theological common ground and the momentum for dialogue between them at theological levels has greatly increased in recent decades This book explores the relationship between religion and the modern democratic state from the perspective of these three monotheistic traditions It investigates how the three religions in dialogue might overcome their historic antagonism as a prelude to working for the development of the global common good As part of the test of religious ideals some of the contributions bring theory down to earth by examining the role of religion in three democratic states with different histories Turkey Indonesia India and also in relation to a culture of human rights Drawing together leading Muslim Christian and Jewish authors from America Europe and Asia the book presents a rare collaboration of faiths and ideas to make a contribution to studies of inter religious dialogue and the changing role of religion in the democratic state

Introducing Religion Robert S. Ellwood,Patrick Horn,2024-08-22 Introducing Religion examines the different ways of looking at religion in the twenty first century Providing a broad overview to the discipline of religious studies this new edition continues to introduce students to engaging and contemporary topics such as sociology of religion psychology of religion history of religion religion and art religious ethics popular religion religion and violence Thoroughly updated throughout this sixth edition includes new coverage of current debates and hot topics in the field such as concerns about essentialism in religion the importance of categorization and the role of psychology in religious experience This textbook is fundamental reading for students approaching this subject area for the first time Religion, Human Rights, and the Workplace Gregory Mose, 2023-08-04 Religious freedom is a fundamental and relatively uncontested right in both the United States and Europe But other values like equality justice and the right to a private life are just as precious Managing such conflicts has become a highly contested and politicized area of law and nowhere are such conflicts more evident or more challenging than those arising in the workplace By comparing United States Federal Courts approach to free exercise in the workplace with that of the European Court of Human Rights this book explores two very different methodologies for adjudicating rights conflicts In examining methods and results case by case issue by issue and addressing each step of the analytical processes taken by judges it becomes apparent that the United States has lost its way in the quest for equality and justice It is argued here that while the European approach has its own flaws its proportionality approach may offer vital lessons for United States practice The book will make compelling reading for researchers academics and policy makers working in the areas of law and religion human rights law constitutional law and comparative law

Dialogically Speaking Kenneth Paul Kramer, 2011-01-01 What makes us authentically human According to Maurice Friedman world renowned Martin Buber scholar translator and biographer it is genuine dialogue When there s a willingness for dialogue Friedman says then one must navigate moment by moment It s a listening process Friedman addresses our humanity in ever unique ways through his dialogue with philosophy literature religion and psychotherapy At least two things make this book new Friedman presents his wide ranging thought directly in five original essays forming an intertextual compass which is then elaborated upon by colleagues familiar with his work Second a special feature of this book is found at the end of each part which invites readers to engage with questions drawn from and pointing toward Friedman s writing The book s intended audience includes teachers scholars and students interested in dialogical approaches to any of the human sciences In a time when we are in danger of losing our human birthright Friedman s interdisciplinary insights point us again to the touch of the other Religion and Psychology Diane Jonte-Pace, William B. Parsons, 2002-09-26 Religion and

Psychology is a thorough and incisive survey of the current relationship between religion and psychology from the leading scholars in the field This is an essential resource for students and researchers in the area of psychology of religion Issues addressed are The Psychology Theology Dialogue The Psychology Comparativist Dialogue Psychology Religion and Gender Studies Psychology as Religion Social Scientific Approaches to the Psychology of Religion The Empirical Approach International Perspectives Marx, Durkheim, Weber Ken Morrison, 2006-08-11 This Second Edition is a thoroughly revised expanded version of the bestselling student text in classical social theory Author Kenneth Morrison provides an authoritative accessible undergraduate guide to the three pivotal figures in the classical tradition Readable and stimulating the Second Edition of Marx Durkheim Weber Formations of Modern Social Thought explains the key ideas of these thinkers and situates them in their historical and philosophical contexts Religion Andy Ross,2024-07-30 Religion is the most influential cultural phenomenon in human history Whether a mystic agnostic or atheist every life has been shaped by the myths and rituals of religion The third volume of this theology for the here and now is a meditation on the religious process How does the experience of the transcendent change our lives Where do myth and ritual come from Where is religion going By contemplating these questions and more the reader will discover that the religious landscape is more significant now than ever before Post-Christian Feminisms Lisa Isherwood,2016-04-08 This book explores the impact and contribution of post theories in the field of Christian feminist theology Post theory is an important and cutting edge discursive field which has revolutionized the production of knowledge in both feminism and theology This book fills a gap by providing a text that can make authoritative statements on the use and status of post theory in feminist theology and secondly it makes an on going contribution to the discourse of Christian feminist theology and its liberation agenda Distinguished and established scholars contribute conclusive essays on the most recent and exciting developments in post theory feminism and theology

Questioning the Human Lieven Boeve,Yves De Maeseneer,Ellen Van Stichel,2014-08-15 Theological anthropology is being put to the test in the face of contemporary developments in the spheres of culture politics and science traditional perspectives on the human person are no longer adequate Yet can theological anthropology move beyond its previously established categories and renew itself in relation to contemporary insights The present collection of essays sets out to answer this question Uniting Roman Catholic theologians from across the globe it tackles from a theological perspective challenges related to the classical natural law tradition part 1 to the modern conception of the subject part 2 and to the postmodern awareness of diversity in a globalizing context part 3 Its contributors share a fundamental methodological choice of a critical constructive dialogue with contemporary culture science and philosophy This collection integrates a wider range of approaches than one usually finds in theological volumes bringing together experts in systematic theology and in theological ethics Authors come from different American contexts including Black and Latino and from a European context that include both French and German Moreover the interdisciplinary insights upon which the different contributions draw stem from both the natural sciences such as neuroscience evolutionary biology and ethology and the humanities such as cultural studies philosophy and hermeneutics This volume will be essential reading for anyone seeking a state of the art account of theological anthropology of the uncertainties it is facing and of the responses it is in the process of formulating The shared Roman Catholic background of the authors of this collection makes this volume a helpful complement to recent publications that predominantly represent views from other theological traditions Introducing Religion Robert Ellwood,2016-10-14 Introducing Religion 4 e explores the different ways of looking at religion in the twenty first century A broad overview to religious studies as a discipline introduces students to the various subjects of religion Introducing Religion teaches readers how to think in academic religious studies and its main areas including sociology of religion psychology of religion history of religion religion and art ethics and more The fourth edition has been expanded with new chapters exploring topics of contemporary interest myth spiritual paths religion and popular culture religion in the computer age religion and war Contemporary topics engage today's students relating the topics to the changing world around them

What is Religion? Wilhelm Bousset, 1911      Revelation and Grace Philip Djung, 2021-06-01 Our globalized world with its increasingly pluralistic societies necessitates a theological framework that enables Christians to embrace their neighbors with respect understanding and love without compromising the essential components of their own faith In Revelation and Grace Dr Philip Djung explores the ways in which Hendrik Kraemer's theology of religions offers the church such a framework By placing Kraemer in conversation with other twentieth century Dutch Reformed theologians namely Herman Bavinck Johan H Bavinck and Abraham Kuyper Dr Djung allows the doctrine of revelation and grace to inform his interpretation of Kraemer's work He provides a critical assessment of Kraemer's theology illustrating the significance of Kraemer's commitment to the uniqueness of Christ and the necessity of Christian mission while advocating for the need to amend certain aspects of Kraemer's perspective to more fully reflect God's presence in world religions      An Introduction to the History of Religion Frank Byron Jevons, 1911      Encyclopædia of Religion and Ethics: Arthur-Bunyan James Hastings, John Alexander Selbie, Louis Herbert Gray, 1910 Scope theology philosophy ethics of various religions and ethical systems and relevant portions of anthropology mythology folklore biology psychology economics and sociology
