Reading Modernity, Modernism and Religion Today Patrick Grant, 2024-11-27 Feelings of rootlessness fragmentation and loneliness are endemic in today's secular societies In the late nineteenth century Emile Durkheim described this kind of social malaise as anomie a concept which this book locates within a historical narrative of the emergence of Modernism from Modernity The book focuses on two representative figures Benedictus de Spinoza and Vincent van Gogh on whose work it offers some significant new perspectives Spinoza drew up a blueprint for Modernity which is to say the cultural transformations that took place as a result of the Scientific Revolution and the Protestant Reformation In counterpoint to his overriding confidence in reason a persistent current in Spinoza's writing shows how concerned he was about a possible loss of confidence in his governing idea of a single Substance the philosophical God with which he sought to replace the creator God of the Bible In promoting art as a means of filling the gap left by the absence of Spinoza's philosophical God and the failures of traditional Christianity Van Gogh also discovered the limitations of the vocation to which he had dedicated himself He concluded that in the tension between art and anomie a new kind of religious sensibility and understanding might emerge This remains the case in the current postmodern cultural phase when fragmentation and incoherence are summoning up new assessments and reconfigurations of values promoting new forms of solidarity dialogue and religious understanding

The Reader's Digest De Witt Wallace, Lila Acheson Wallace, 1928

Reading Spiritualities Dawn Llewellyn, 2016-04-01 The phenomenon of sacred text has undergone radical deconstruction in recent times reflecting how religion has broken out of its traditional definitions and practices and how current literary theories have influenced texts inside the religious domain and beyond Reading Spiritualities presents both commentary and vivid examples of this evolution engaging with a variety of reading practices that work with traditional texts and those that extend the notion of text itself The contributors draw on a range of textual sites such as an interview Caribbean literature drama and jazz women s writings emerging church blogs Neopagan websites the reading practices of Buddhist nuns empirical studies on the reading experiences of Gujarati Christian and post Christian women Chicana short stories the mosque cinema modern art and literature These examples open up understandings of where and how sacred texts are emerging and being reassessed within contemporary religious and spiritual contexts and make room for readings where the spiritual resides not only in the textual but in other unexpected places Reading Spiritualities includes contributions from Graham Holderness Ursula King Michael N Jagessar David Jasper Anthony G Reddie Mich le Roberts and Heather Walton to reflect and encourage the interdisciplinary study of sacred text in the broad arena of the arts and social sciences It offers a unique and well focused snapshot of the textual constructions and representations of the sacred within the contemporary religious climate accessible to the general reader as well as more specialist interests of students and researchers working in the crossover fields of religious theological cultural and literary studies

Faith in Reading David Paul Nord,2004-08-19

In the twenty first century mass media corporations are often seen as profit hungry money machines It was a different world in the early days of mass communication in America Faith in Reading tells the remarkable story of the noncommercial religious origins of our modern media culture In the early nineteenth century a few visionary entrepreneurs decided the time was right to reach everyone in America through the medium of print Though they were modern businessmen their publishing enterprises were not commercial businesses but nonprofit societies committed to the publication of traditional religious texts Drawing on organizational reports and archival sources David Paul Nord shows how the managers of Bible and religious tract societies made themselves into large scale manufacturers and distributors of print These organizations believed it was possible to place the same printed message into the hands of every man woman and child in America Employing modern printing technologies and business methods they were remarkably successful churning out millions of Bibles tracts religious books and periodicals They mounted massive campaigns to make books cheap and plentiful by turning them into modern mass produced consumer goods Nord demonstrates how religious publishers learned to work against the flow of ordinary commerce They believed that reading was too important to be left to the market revolution so they turned the market on its head seeking to deliver their product to everyone regardless of ability or even desire to buy Wedding modern technology and national organization to a traditional faith in reading these publishing societies imagined and then invented mass media in America The Congregationalist ,1925

An Esoteric Reading of Biblical Symbolism Mrs. Harriet Tuttle

Bartlett,1916 Faith, Hope, and Love Troy DuJardin,M. David Eckel,2022-07-22 These essays consider the three traditional theological virtues faith hope and love alongside their opposites doubt despair and hate from a scholarly perspective The volume includes contributions not just from philosophers of religion but also from psychologists sociologists and film and literature scholars to paint a complex and nuanced picture of these virtues both of how we might understand them and how we can hope to embody them ourselves While these virtues make up a core part of the Christian tradition the chapters here go far and wide in search of different cultural conceptions of these universal human concerns Inquiries are made into these virtues within Hindu Buddhist Jewish and Islamic thought alongside philosophers including Aristotle Hegel Kierkegaard Nietzsche Levinas and Murdoch The resulting tapestry is often beautiful sometimes horrific but always thoroughly human This text appeals to students and researchers working in these fields Chapter 9 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com

Political Religion Körner, Felix, 2020 Few would deny that these religions have played and still play a major role in world affairs But what exactly does the interaction of religion and society consist of This book looks at seven models of how Christianity and Islam have influenced society concluding that religion is most authentic when it uses its power to shape the world not through violence but in a positive manner

Religion, Theory, Critique Richard King, 2017-07-18 Religion Theory Critique is an essential tool for learning about theory and method in the study of religion Leading experts engage with contemporary and classical theories as well as non Western cultural contexts Unlike other collections this anthology emphasizes the dynamic relationship between religion as an object of study and different methodological approaches and openly addresses the question of the manifold ways in which religion secular and culture are imagined within different disciplinary horizons This volume is the first textbook which seeks to engage discussion of classical approaches with contemporary cultural and critical theories Contributors write on the influence of the natural sciences in the study of religion the role of European Christianity in modeling theories of religion religious experience and the interface with cognitive science the structure and function of religious language the social scientific study of religion ritual in religion the phenomenology of religion critical theory and religion embodiment and religion the impact of colonialism and modernity theorizing religion in terms of race and ethnicity links among religion nationalism and globalization the interplay of gender sex and religion and religion and the environment Each chapter introduces the topic identifies key theorists and issues and respects the pluralistic nature of the scholarship in the field Altogether this collection scrutinizes the explicit and implicit assumptions theorists make about religion as an object of analysis

Living Without God Ronald Aronson, 2010-09 Ronald Aronson demonstrates that atheism represents much more than what one does not believe that it is the precondition for a generous humanism The two closing chapters are models of stoicism at its best Christopher Hitchens author of God Is Not Great

Watson,2019-08-12 For over three decades an Ideological Surround Model ISM has pursued theoretical and methodological innovations designed to enhance the truth and objectivity of research into psychology and religion The foundational argument of the ISM is that psychology as well as religion unavoidably operates within the limits of an ideological surround Methodological theism therefore needs to supplement the methodological atheism that dominates the contemporary social sciences Methodological theism should operationalize the meaningfulness of religious traditions and demonstrate empirically that the influences of ideology cannot be ignored The ISM more generally suggests that contemporary social scientific rationalities need to be supplemented by more complex dialogical rationalities Beliefs in secularization should also be supplemented by beliefs in trans rationality The Catholic Reading Circle Review ,1895
