Religions In Dialogue:

Religions in Dialogue Alan Race, Ingrid Shafer, 2017-11-30 This title was first published in 2002 Judaism Christianity and Islam as Abrahamic religions share much theological common ground and the momentum for dialogue between them at theological levels has greatly increased in recent decades This book explores the relationship between religion and the modern democratic state from the perspective of these three monotheistic traditions It investigates how the three religions in dialogue might overcome their historic antagonism as a prelude to working for the development of the global common good As part of the test of religious ideals some of the contributions bring theory down to earth by examining the role of religion in three democratic states with different histories Turkey Indonesia India and also in relation to a culture of human rights Drawing together leading Muslim Christian and Jewish authors from America Europe and Asia the book presents a rare collaboration of faiths and ideas to make a contribution to studies of inter religious dialogue and the changing role of religion in the democratic state

Cultures and Religions in Dialogue Panikkar, Raimon, 2018-12-20 Theology and the Dialogue of Religions Michael Barnes, 2002-03-14 Theology of religions is an area of theological reflection on inter religious relations which raises fundamental questions for all people of faith in a pluralist post modern world How to practise a religious faith with integrity while respecting other claims to ultimate truth Must the other always be regarded as a problematic complication on the fringes of a Christianity centred world Is there a third way between an all dominating exclusivism and a vapid relativism This book contributes to the debate about the place of inter religious relations in the life of the Church by developing a theology of dialogue In offering a critique of much current thinking in this area Michael Barnes SJ proposes instead a theology rooted in the themes of welcome and hospitality He argues for a vision of Christianity as a school of faith a community called not just to teach others but to learn from them as well Dialogue with the Other David Tracy, 1990 Dialogue with the Other expresses David Tracy s ongoing interest in the other and The Other His reflections enter into dialogue with figures as diverse as Meister Eckhart and William James and traditions as different as those of Buddhism Christianity and Judaism David Tracy is Distinguished Service Professor at the University of Chicago He is Professor of Theology at the Chicago Divinity School and Professor in the Committee on the Analysis of Ideas and Methods Among his better known are Blessed Rage for Order 1975 The Analogical Imagination 1981 and Plurality and Ambiguity 1987

The Intrareligious Dialogue Raimundo Panikkar, Raimon Panikkar, 1999 An expanded and updated edition of a classic by one of the giants in this field Faith and belief in a multireligious experience are discussed with emphasis on understanding one s own religion and tradition before attempting to understand someone else s World Cultures and World Religions Hendrik Kraemer, 2003-06 The meeting of Christianity and the non Christian religions the impact of East on West and West on East the clash of cultures and the movement of divine and human forces that are changing the pattern of man s life form the basis of Kraemer s magisterial book He deals historically with the world situation as he sees it because history determines the mood in which East and West approach this coming dialogue In a series of masterly chapters Kraemer surveys the position of the world's religions deeply enmeshed in socio cultural systems that create both barriers to change but impetus towards evolution The dialogue with the grand elusive Eastern systems of humanist thinking demands searching thought fundamental re adjustment of methods and readiness to find fresh points of contact It will however vindicate the personal conception of the living God as manifest in Jesus Christ The key word of Oriental philosophies is Harmony glossing over the glaring disharmonies of man's life This is the heart of the dialogue that Kraemer discusses backed by his vast experience and learning Kraemer provides a formative and fundamental tool for Christians and all who are aspire to an intelligent and penetrative understanding of the religious and cultural life of the world Inter-religious Explorations

Thundy,1985-01-02 Controversies in Interreligious Dialogue and the Theology of Religions Paul Hedges,2010 This latest volume in the Controversies in Contextual Theology series provides an introduction to the current state of the field for those new to interreligious dialogue and the theology of religions as well as providing insights and new concepts that will be of interest to specialists In particular the current deadlock between pluralist and particularist approaches is re imagined and a strong argument for radical openness to the religious Other is advanced based upon the resources of the Christian heritage The book draws inspiration from many sources including intercultural theology feminist theologies of religions comparative theology postcolonial identity theory scholarly debates on the nature of religion and biblical concepts of hospitality to outline its new approach It concludes that we must seek mutual fulfillment with religious Others while maintaining Christian integrity It also addresses the problems this involves when seeking ethical partnership across religious boundaries No easy answers are given however a vision for radical openness based on Jesus example the Christian heritage and contemporary scholarship is endorsed Truth and Dialogue John Hick,1974 American ed published under title Truth and dialogue in world religions World Christianity Encounters World Religions Edmund Kee-Fook Chia,2018-10-23 Synthesizing the thinking of the most prominent scholars Professor Edmund Chia discusses practically everything that should be known about Christianity's encounter with other religions in this comprehensive book Topics include the invention of the idea of World Religions and World Christianity the Bible and the church's attitude toward other faiths Vatican II Asian Christianity and interfaith dialoguethe what why when and how of dialoguethe global ecumenical movementtheologies of religious pluralismcross textual hermeneuticscomparative theologyinterfaith worshipreligious syncretismmultiple religious belonginginterfaith learning in seminaries The Wiley-Blackwell Companion to Inter-Religious

Dialogue Catherine Cornille, 2020-06-08 This comprehensive volume brings together a distinguished editorial team including some of the field's pioneers to explore the aims practice and historical context of interfaith collaboration Explores in full the background history objectives and discourse between the leaders and practitioners of the world's major religions Examines relations between religions from around the world moving well beyond the common focus on Christianity to also cover over 12 major religions Features a wealth of case studies on contemporary interreligious dialogue Charts a long term shift away from a competitive rivalry between belief systems and a change in focus towards the more respectful cooperative approach reflected in institutions such as the World Council of Churches Includes up to date commentary on the growing dialogue of recent years written by some of the leading figures working in the field of interfaith discourse Inter-religious Dialogue

Herbert Jai Singh, 1967 Christian Theology and Inter-religious Dialogue Maurice Wiles, 1992 That Professor Wiles has now turned from the field of Christian doctrine and its history for which he is so well known to that of inter faith dialogue is an indication of the importance which that subject is now assuming This is not a book he confesses which he had expected to write but in recent years he has increasingly felt that the close co existence of different faith communities in the modern world is as important a background to Christian theology as the rise of the scientific world view In his book which arises out of lectures at Manchester and Yale universities Professor Wiles begins by asking whether acceptance of the possibility of open dialogue with other religions is not a desertion of the way in which church has understood its faith down the ages He then goes on to argue that pressure to acknowledge other religions is only one of several pressures arising out of changes in contemporary knowledge and experience of the world which Christians face today A third chapter examines how Karl Rahner tried to incorporate these changes into a coherent theological position and the last chapter builds on this approach and offers a personal account of a Christian theology for dialogue At a time of increasing conservatism and opposition to interfaith activity in the churches here is encouragement to those who believe that narrow christocentricity is not the way forward

BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Pathways for Inter-Religious Dialogue in the Twenty-First Century Vladimir Latinovic, Gerard Mannion, Peter C. Phan, 2016-01-26 Without question inter religious relations are crucial in the contemporary age While most dialogue works on past and contemporary matters this volume takes on the relations among the Abrahamic religions and looks forward toward the possibility of real and lasting dialogue The book centers upon inter faith issues It identifies problems that stand in the way of fostering healthy dialogues both within particular religious traditions and between faiths The volume's contributors strive for a realization of already existing common ground between religions They engagingly explore how inter religious dialogue can be re energized for a new century Oppositions of Religious Doctrines William A. Christian, 1972 Guidelines for Inter-Religious Dialogue Inter-religious Think-Tank, Gabrielle Girau Pieck, Amira Hafner Al-Jabaji, Tanja Esthe Kröni, Rifa'at Lenzin, Heidi Rudolf, Doris Strahm, Reinhild Traitler-Espiritu, 2015-12-21 In recent decades more and more people have realised that in our globalised world cultural and religious plurality is here to stay This plurality can enrich us all But suspicion and fear of other cultures and religions is still actively present among us Tolerating difference needs inner strength and fundamental goodwill This goodwill must include the readiness to respect other people and their concerns and take them seriously The Inter Religious Think Tank responsible for these Guidelines is a group of Jewish Christian and Muslim women who have all been active for years in the field of interfaith dialogue The Guidelines are aimed at helping people who are just starting out to plan interfaith projects and events But they are also aimed at people who have been engaged in interfaith dialogue for some time and may have experienced every now and again that they have done or said something dysfunctional they are aware that they have dropped a brick but do not quite understand what happened Examples taken from the praxis of dialogue situations will show where stumbling blocks are liable to be found and how we can avoid them One special feature of these Guidelines is that it has been written by Jewish Christian and Muslim women working together

Christianity and the Religions Jacques Dupuis, 2002 In this incisive and important volume Jacques Dupuis offers new insights on the most important issue facing Christian theology today giving an account of Christian faith as Christians go more deeply along the road of dialogue and collaboration with the followers of other religious traditions His task is to square a dogmatic circle How does one do justice to the Gospel claim that Jesus the Christ is the final and universal savior of all humankind in every age while also doing justice to the experience that truth grace holiness and power are experienced in other religious traditions In the first six chapters Dupuis reviews the history of the Western Christian tradition s teaching on other religious Ways through the breakthrough at Vatican Council II In chapters 7 and 8 he reviews the critical issues of uniqueness of Christ and Christian proposals to account for the mediation of salvation in other religious Ways He discusses also the relationship between the Reign of God the Church and the Religions In chapter 9 he explores the nature and role of dialogue in a pluralistic society In chapter 10 offers sage reflections on interreligious prayer
