Religions In Practice An Approach To The Anthropology Of Religion:

Religions in Practice John Richard Bowen, 2005 The third edition of this widely popular book offers a unique perspective on how people engage in everyday religious practices such as prayer sacrifice pilgrimage and dress as well as investigates major issues of gender nation states and laws with respect to religion No other book examines the full spectrum of religions from small scale societies to full blown world religious movements The in depth treatment of Islam and Christianity is of particular interest to students and is easily expanded to include field projects directly related to material covered in the text As one reviewer writes In our post 9 11 era it is great to have a book whose author has done fieldwork in Indonesia and is so knowledgeable about Islam The third edition includes new material on the anthropology of war expanded coverage of American religions and an exploration of how non practitioners of organized religion turn to alternative beliefs such as health food tarot cards and psychics

Religions in Practice John R. Bowen, 2017-07-28 Religions in Practice provides a comprehensive and primarily theme based overview for students of the anthropology of religion Whilst covering traditional topics such as magic witchcraft and spiritual healing the book addresses key contemporary subjects including migration transnationalism nationalism secularism and law It offers an issues oriented perspective on everyday religious behaviors and examines small scale societies as well as major established religions Throughout the text Bowen engages with ongoing debates concerning the place of religion in public life He successfully balances the presentation of theory and concepts with rich case study examples integrating theoretical discussion with a wide range of cross cultural ethnographic material This seventh edition has been updated throughout The opening section now focuses more clearly on the question of what is religion and on approaches to studying religion There is more on materiality as well as a new final chapter on religious mobilizing and violence Further resources are available via a comprehensive companion website

Religions in Practice John Richard Bowen, 2008 This widely used textbook offers a unique perspective on how people engage in everyday religious practices such as prayer sacrifice initiation and healing by investigating broad scale issues such as transnationalism gender and religious laws No other text examines the full spectrum of religions from small scale societies to full blown world religious movements The in depth treatment of Islam Hinduism and Christianity is of particular interest to students and is easily expanded to include field projects directly related to material covered in the text As one reviewer writes In our post 9 11 era it is great to have a book whose author has done fieldwork in Indonesia and is so knowledgeable about Islam

Religion and Gender in the Developing World Tamsin Bradley, 2010-12-07 Faith based development organizations have become a central part of the lives of the women of rural Rajasthan and have come to represent an important aspect of both individual and collective identities And yet religious teachings continue to be used to exclude women from public decision making forums and render them vulnerable to increasing levels of domestic violence In a unique multi disciplinary approach combining a range of subjects Tamsin Bradley provides a unique study of the role of development organizations and faith organizations in the lives of women in rural Rajasthan Faith and religion emerge as being able to afford a space within which women are able to interact with one another and create an identity for themselves However faith proves not just to be a positive sphere in which women are able to assert themselves Its ambiguity becomes clear as the author explains that religious women often find their visions of social justice and equality marginalised by the dominance of male leadership Nevertheless Bradley also look at how religious women challenge male dominance drawing on their beliefs and practices in creative and innovative ways Thus a complex picture emerges and including insights from gender studies and anthropology Bradley argues that religion can both empower and disempower local communities and the women who live within them By analysing development through the prism of gender studies Bradley highlights the complex nature of power relationships that are at the very heart of development agendas and organizations and offers an invaluable contribution to the understanding of the nexus of varied disciplines in the analysis of women and religion in Rajasthan This book will be of interest to students reseachers and policy makers involved in various fields including those of Development Studies Religion Gender Studies and Social Anthropology

Religion Hent de Vries,2008 What do we talk about when we talk about religion Is it an array of empirical facts about historical human civilizations Or is religion what is in essence unpredictable perhaps the very emergence of the new In what ways are the legacies of religion its powers words things and gestures reconfiguring themselves as the elementary forms of life in the twenty first century Given the Latin roots of the word religion and its historical Christian uses what sense if any does it make to talk about religion in other traditions Where might we look for common elements that would enable us to do so Has religion as an overarching concept lost all its currency or does it ineluctably return sometimes in unexpected ways the moment we attempt to do without it This book explores the difficulties and double binds that arise when we ask What is religion Offering a marvelously rich and diverse array of perspectives it begins the task of rethinking religion and religious studies in a contemporary world Opening essays on the question What is religion are followed by clusters exploring the relationships among religion theology and philosophy and the links between religion politics and law Pedagogy is the focus of the following section Religion is then examined in particular contexts from classical times to the present Pentacostal revival leading into an especially rich set of essays on religion materiality and mediatization The final section grapples with the ever changing forms that religion is taking such as spirituality movements and responses to the ecological crisis Featuring the work of leading scholars from a wide array of disciplines traditions and cultures Religion Beyond a Concept will help set the agenda for religious studies for years to come It is the first of five volumes in a collection entitled The Future of the Religious Past the fruit of a major international research initiative funded by the Netherlands Organization for Scientific Research

Approaches to the Study of Religion Peter Connolly,2001-11-30 It has been argued that religious studies is a polymethodic discipline and that the student of religion should be familiar with the approaches of the major disciplines concerned with understanding the nature of religion not least because the approach adopted has profound influence on the phenomena chose for investigation and the conclusions reached This book is the first textbook specifically designed for undergraduate students that provides the essential background on methods of the major relevant disciplines Presenting each of the significant approaches to religion in an informed manner the book brings together experienced researchers from feminism anthropology sociology phenomenology psychology philosophy and theology It presents a consistent approach throughout with each chapter dealing with the same themes the historical development of the approach the characteristics of the approach and the surrounding issues and debates

The Learned Practice of Religion in the Modern University

Donald Wiebe, 2019-11-14 In these essays Donald Wiebe unveils a significant problem in the academic study of religion in colleges and universities in North America and Europe that studies almost always exhibit a religious bias To explore this issue Wiebe looks at the religious and moral agendas behind the study of religion showing that the boundaries between the objective study of religion and religious education as a tool for bettering society have become blurred As a result he argues religious studies departments have fostered an environment where religion has become a learned or scholarly practice rather than the object of academic scrutiny This book provides a critical history of the failure of 20th and 21st century scholars to follow through on the 19th century ideal of an objective scientific study of religious thought and behaviour Although emancipated from direct ecclesiastical control and to some extent from sectarian theologizing Wiebe argues that research and scholarship in the academic department of religious studies has failed to break free from religious constraints He shows that an objective scientific study of religious thought and practice is not only possible but the only appropriate approach to the study of religious phenomena

New Approaches to the Study of Religion: Regional, critical, and historical approaches

Peter Antes, Armin W. Geertz, Randi Ruth Warne, 2004 Internationally recognized scholars from many parts of the world provide a critical survey of recent developments and achievements in the global field of religious studies The work follows in the footsteps of two former publications Classical Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Jacques Waardenburg 1973 and Contemporary Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Frank Whaling 1984 85 New Approaches to the Study of Religion completes the survey of the comparative study of religion in the twentieth century by focussing on the past two decades Many of the chapters however are also pathbreaking and point the way to future approaches

Play and Power in Religion André Droogers, 2011-11-30 At a religion's margins a counterpoint can be found for its power center In a creative manner relatively free from clerical control religious virtuosos take new initiatives there Inspired by their experience with the sacred they explore their liberty to play with meanings images and practices Yet the eventual success of such an innovation calls for organization and thus for the exercise of power Accordingly new movements slow down into institutions till a new virtuoso brings the cycle to a fresh start Over the last thirty years André Droogers has extensively published on the relation between religion power and play In this collection of essays the most relevant articles are reprinted For this volume Droogers wrote an autobiographical introduction showing how the contingencies of a career may nevertheless lead to a more or less consistent approach In Part I of the book articles are included that represent the basic ideas of Droogers' approach with an emphasis on margin inversion ritual and meaning making In part II some of his articles on syncretism and Pentecostalism illustrate his views Part III contains articles that apply the play and power perspective to methodological issues in the study of religion Aesthetics of Religion Alexandra K. Grieser, Jay Johnston, 2017-12-18 This volume is the first English language presentation of the innovative approaches developed in the aesthetics of religion The chapters present diverse material and detailed analysis on descriptive methodological and theoretical concepts that together explore the potential of an aesthetic approach for investigating religion as a sensory and mediated practice In dialogue with yet different from other major movements in the field material culture anthropology of the senses for instance it is the specific intent of this approach to create a framework for understanding the interplay between sensory cognitive and socio cultural aspects of world construction The volume demonstrates that aesthetics as a theory of sensory knowledge offers an elaborate repertoire of concepts that can help to understand religious traditions These approaches take into account contemporary developments in scientific theories of perception neuro aesthetics and cultural studies highlighting the socio cultural and political context informing how humans perceive themselves and the world around them Developing since the 1990s the aesthetic approach has responded to debates in the study of religion in particular striving to overcome biased categories that confined religion either to texts and abstract beliefs or to an indisputable sui generis mode of experience This volume documents what has been achieved to date its significance for the study of religion and for interdisciplinary scholarship Cultural Approaches to Studying Religion Sarah J. Bloesch, M. Cooper Minister, 2018-10-18 This is the first book to provide an introduction to contemporary cultural approaches to the study of religion This book makes sophisticated ideas accessible at an introductory level and examines the analytic tools of scholars in religious studies as well as in related disciplines that have shaped the field including anthropology history literature and critical studies in race sexuality and gender Each chapter is written by a leading scholar and includes the biographical and historical context of each theorist their approaches and key writings analysis and evaluation of each theory suggested further reading Part One Comparative Approaches considers how major features such as taboo texts myths and ritual work across religious traditions by exploring the work of Mary Douglas Phyllis Tribble Wendy Doniger and Catherine Bell Part Two Examining Particularities analyzes the comparative approach through the work of Alice Walker Charles Long and Caroline Walker Bynum who all suggest that the specifics of race body place and time must be considered Part Three Expanding Boundaries examines Gloria Anzald a s language of religion as well as the work of Judith Butler on performative queer theories of religion and concludes with Saba Mahmood whose work considers postcolonial religious encounters secularism and the relationship between East and West Reflecting the cultural turn and challenging the existing canon this is the anthology instructors have been waiting for For primary texts by the theorists discussed please consult The Bloomsbury Reader in Cultural Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Sarah J Bloesch and Meredith Minister Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2004 Topographies of Faith , 2013-04-15 Based on ethnographic explorations in cities across the globe Topographies of Faith offers a unique and compelling analysis of contemporary religious dynamics in metropolitan centers

While most scholarship on religion still sidelines questions of spatiality and scale this book creatively draws on perspectives from urban studies to study the spatiality of religion in modern cities It shows how globalization transnational migration and urban expansion in big cities engender new religious forms and practices and their spatial underpinnings Space affects urban religious diversity religious innovations decline or vitality But it also shapes the relationships between religion and social equalities Spanning distances between New York Delhi and Johannesburg the book also engages with issues of secularity and religious vitality in genuinely new ways Contributors include Irene Becci Synn ve Bendixsen Marian Burchardt Jos Casanova Murat Es Ajay Gandhi Weishang Huang Godwin Onuoha Samadia Sadouni Peter van der Veer and Leilah Vevaina
