Religions of the World, from Primitive Beliefs to Modern Faiths. General Editor: Geoffrey Parrinder. [1st U.S. Ed.]

Edward Geoffrey Parrinder, 1971 Religion Dans L'histoire Michel Despland, Gérard Vallée, Canadian Corporation for Studies in Religion, 1992-03-03 The history of the concept of religion in Western tradition has intrigued scholars for years This important collection of eighteen essays brings further light to the ongoing debate Three of the invited participants W C Smith M Despland and E Feil has each previously written impressive books treating this subject the last two acknowledged the impact and continuing influence of Smith s work The Meaning and End of Religion An introduction and a recapitulation of Smith s contribution as a scholar set the stage for a retrospective look at the published literature Contributors then examine the transformation of words the classical religio to the modern religion particularities of religion in nineteenth century France Troeltsch s concept of religion the study of religion from an Asian point of view and the categorization of World Religions The concluding essays elaborate contemporary anthropological cross disciplinary semiological deconstructive and psychoanalytical methodological approaches to the concept and study of religion Exploring critically different aspects of the concept and study of religion these provocative essays typically reflect the methodological pluralism currently existing in the field of Religious Studies Of interest to scholars and students alike this collection also contains a complete bibliography of W C Smith s publications Theories of Religion Seth Daniel Kunin, Jonathan Miles-Watson, 2006 This book provides a comprehensive selection of readings that relate to and explore the definition of religion The texts come from a wide range of approaches unified both by the questions they are addressing and their broadly social scientific perspective The disciplines covered include anthropology phenomenology psychology and sociology The editors have also included some key texts relating to the feminist approach to and critique of religion The first section of the book includes some of the foundational texts such as materials by Marx Freud and Durkheim The remaining sections look at more recent discussions of the issues from the different disciplinary perspectives Each reading is introduced by a biographical sketch of the author The book also includes introductory discussions to each section that both raise the key issues developed in a particular discipline and address the disciplinary approaches from a more critical stance Theories of Religion A Reader is an invaluable critical resource accessible to a broad audience as well as students of theology and religious studies Contributions of Science to Religion Shailer Mathews, William Emerson Ritter, 1924 Edward Burnett Tylor, Religion and Culture Paul-François Tremlett, Graham Harvey, Liam T. Sutherland, 2017-09-21 Through revisiting and challenging what we think we know about the work of Edward Burnett Tylor a founding figure of anthropology this volume explores new connections and insights that link Tylor and his work to present concerns in new and important ways At the publication of Primitive Culture in 1871 Tylor

was at the centre of anthropological research on religion and culture but today Tylor's position in the anthropological canon is rarely acknowledged Edward Burnett Tylor Religion and Culture does not claim to present a definitive new Tylor The old Tylor the founder of British anthropology the definer of religion the intellectualist the evolutionist the liberal the utilitarian the avatar of white Protestant rationalism the Tylor of the canon remains Part I explore debates and contexts of Tylor's lifetime while the chapters in Part II explore a series of new Tylors including Tylor the ethnographer and Tylor the Spiritualist re writing the legacy of the founder of anthropology in the process Edward Burnett Tylor Religion and Culture is essential reading for anyone interested in the study of religion and the anthropology of religion Religious Truth Robert Cummings Neville, 2001-01-01 Explores religious truth in a range of world religions and discusses the issue and philosophical implications of comparison itself The Handbook of Contemporary Animism Graham Harvey, 2014-09-11 The Handbook of Contemporary Animism brings together an international team of scholars to examine the full range of animist worldviews and practices The volume opens with an examination of recent approaches to animism This is followed by evaluations of ethnographic cognitive literary performative and material culture approaches as well as advances in activist and indigenous thinking about animism This handbook will be invaluable to students and scholars of Religion Sociology and Anthropology

Religion in Contemporary America Charles H. Lippy, Eric Tranby, 2013 This book provides a fresh engaging multi disciplinary introduction to religion in contemporary America Students and instructors will find the combination of historical and sociological perspectives an invaluable aid to understanding this fascinating but complex field The World's Religions: The Study of Religion, Traditional and New Religion Peter Clarke, Stewart Sutherland, 2002-11 Examines the primitive traditional non mainstream religion and also 20th century sects such as the Moonies and Scientology Looks at the nature of religion the general philosophical issues Written by international specialists Proceedings of the International Conference Social - Humanities in Maritime and Border Area (SHIMBA 2023) Azhari Setiawan, Rizky Octa Putri Chairin, Rizqi Apriani Putri, Agung Dhamar Syakti, Hilfi Pardi, ONanong Thippimol, Ziaul Haque Munim, Jalaluddin Abdul Malek, Andi Misbahul Pratiwi, 2023-12-01 This is an open access book The 2nd International Conference Social Humanities in Maritime and Border Area SHIMBA 2023 is our response to issues on the development of maritime and border area This will be a great opportunity among the stakeholders private sectors academia researchers governments non government etc who have roles interests and contributions to the related issues Religion Seth Daniel Kunin, 2003 Over the course of the twentieth century the way we understand the religious experience has been transformed Various thinkers and intellectual approaches have shaped the ways in which scholars examine rituals symbols and belief systems In Comparative Religion Louis Henry Jordan, 1905 The Reconstruction of Religion Charles Abram Ellwood, 1922 A selected list of books in English suggested for collateral reading p 319 324 Empire of Religion David Chidester, 2014-03-19 How is knowledge about religion and religions produced and how is that knowledge authenticated and circulated David Chidester seeks to answer these questions in Empire of Religion documenting and analyzing the emergence of a science of comparative religion in Great Britain during the second half of the nineteenth century and its complex relations to the colonial situation in southern Africa In the process Chidester provides a counterhistory of the academic study of religion an alternative to standard accounts that have failed to link the field of comparative religion with either the power relations or the historical contingencies of the imperial project In developing a material history of the study of religion Chidester documents the importance of African religion the persistence of the divide between savagery and civilization and the salience of mediations imperial colonial and indigenous in which knowledge about religions was produced He then identifies the recurrence of these mediations in a number of case studies including Friedrich Max Müller's dependence on colonial experts H Rider Haggard and John Buchan's fictional accounts of African religion and W E B Du Bois's studies of African religion By reclaiming these theorists for this history Chidester shows that race rather than theology was formative in the emerging study of religion in Europe and North America Sure to be controversial Empire of Religion is a major contribution to the field of comparative religious studies The Routledge

Jan-Erik Lane, Hamadi Redissi, 2020-07-24 Muslim societies are struggling under the need for modernization and the drift towards Islamic fundamentalism The balance between these two forces is struck differently in the various Muslim societies depending upon the constellation of groups as historical legacies However the tension is real In this work Jan Erik Lane and Hamadi Redissi look at the underlying social consequences of religious beliefs to account for the political differences between major civilizations of the world against a background of the rise of modern capitalism Offering a timely new appraisal of the political and social impact of Islam this expanded second edition of Religion and Politics has been fully updated in line with new events and will be welcomed by political scientists and historians alike In a readable and accessible style this thought provoking work raises the question of whether the tenets of Islam might be reconciled with the requirements of post modernity
