Religious Vows The Sermon On The Mount And Christian Living:

Religious Vows, the Sermon on the Mount, and Christian Living Bonnie B. Thurston, 2006 Bonnie Thurston reflects on the Beatitudes and their focus on the kingdom of heaven She hows how the Sermon on the Mount deepens understanding of the spiritual virtues that religious vows are intended to nurture She also reveals how the values embodied in the vows are central to all Christian living The Life of the Vows Thomas Merton, 2012-09-01 As novice master of the Cistercian Abbey of Our Lady of Gethsemani in Kentucky Thomas Merton presented weekly conferences to familiarize his charges with the meaning and purpose of the vows they aspired to undertake In this setting he offered a thorough exposition of the theological canonical and above all spiritual dimensions of the vows Merton set the vows firmly in the context of the anthropological moral soteriological and ecclesial dimensions of human Christian and monastic life He addressed such classical themes of Christian morality as the nature of the human person and his acts the importance of justice in relation to the Passion of Christ to friendship and to love and self surrender as the key to grace prayer and the vowed life Merton s words on these topics clearly spring from a committed heart and often flow with the soaring intensity of style that we have come to expect in his more enthusiastic prose The texts of these conferences represent the longest and most systematically organized of any of numerous series of conferences that Merton presented during the decade of his mastership They may be the most directly pastoral work Merton ever wrote Polydoxy Catherine Keller, Laurel Schneider, 2010-10-04 The essays in this book take an exciting and creative approach to doing theology in the twenty first century Spirit and the Obligation of Social Flesh Sharon V. Betcher, 2013-11-11 Drawing on philosophical reflection spiritual and religious values and somatic practice Spirit and the Obligation of Social Flesh offers guidance for moving amidst the affective dynamics that animate the streets of the global cities now amassing around our planet Here theology turns decidedly secular In urban medieval Europe seculars were uncloistered persons who carried their spiritual passion and sense of an obligated life into daily circumambulations of the city Seculars lived in the city on behalf of the city but contrary to the new profit economy of the time with a different locus of value spirit Betcher argues that for seculars today the possibility of a devoted life the practice of felicity in history still remains Spirit now names a necessary prosthesis a locus for regenerating the elemental commons of our interdependent flesh and thus for cultivating spacious and fearless empathy forbearance and generosity Her theological poetics though based in Christianity are frequently in conversation with other religions resident in our postcolonial cities The Spiritual Landscape of Mark Bonnie B. Thurston, 2008 2009 Catholic Press Association Award Winner To read the Gospel of Mark is to embark on a journey that begins in a desert and ends with a boulder rolled away from the tomb In between Jesus teaches his disciples calls them to journey and learn what it means to follow him and guides them to Jerusalem the scene of the Passion In The Spiritual Landscape of Mark Bonnie Thurston has adapted a retreat that she gave to the Society of the Sacred Cross at Tymawr Convent in Wales thereby inviting all of us to embark on this spiritual journey Mark's gospel is full of places desert house sea valley mountain city cross garden and the winding roads between them Thurston's prose invites us to go away to a guiet place and reflect awhile on what it means to be Jesus s disciple to follow him across the hard landscape Along the way there will be glimpses of his glory when he stills the storm and is transfigured on the mountain when he heals the sick and feeds the hungry Still the primary lesson is the difficult way to which we are called along with the great joy of knowing that Jesus has initiated the journey and leads us exactly where we need to go Bonnie B Thurston PhD lives in West Virginia in solitude She is ordained in the Christian Church Disciples of Christ and the author of several books including Philippians in the Sacra Pagina series and Religious Vows the Sermon on the Mount and Christian Living Liturgical Press and Preaching Mark Fortress Press Sacra Pagina: Philippians and Philemon Bonnie B. Thurston, Judith Ryan, 2016-03-16 Although relatively brief Philippians is one of the most interesting and beloved of Paul's undisputed epistles In Philippians and Philemon Bonnie Thurston makes a convincing case that canonical Philippians is as Paul wrote it one letter Although there is not enough specific evidence to name names she suggests a number of possible audiences A translation conforming as closely as possible to the original Greek is provided along with a careful analysis of the language of the letter that yields insights into the context and theological underpinning of this epistle. The apostle s very brief letter to Philemon stands solidly within the Pauline collection of authentic and canonical letters In this volume Judith Ryan argues that Philemon makes two specific appeals The first seeks to elicit Philemon's partnership and his community support in welcoming Onesimus back as both beloved brother and honored guest The second requests that Onesimus be allowed to use the freedom he already has to serve Christ and his Gospel In this commentary Ryan provides a fresh translation critical notes for each verse and interpretation on defined sections She situates the letter in the historical context of slavery in the ancient world and shows how Paul combined his theology with contemporary rhetorical strategies to produce an effective challenge to his audience Bonnie B Thurston PhD lives in West Virginia in solitude She is ordained in the Christian Church Disciples of Christ and the author of several books including The Spiritual Landscape of Mark and Religious Vows the Sermon on the Mount and Christian Living Liturgical Press and Preaching Mark Fortress Press Judith M Ryan PhD STL is associate professor of New Testament at the University of St Thomas School of Theology at St Mary's Seminary Houston Texas Previously she taught at Catholic University of America Fordham University the University of Scranton College Misericordia and St Mary s Seminary Why Do We Hope? Daniel J. Harrington, 2008 In this follow up to his popular book and University Baltimore Maryland What Are We Hoping For New Testament Images Daniel J Harrington extends his reflections on hope in the Scriptures He draws us into the striking images of the psalms the mountain the sun refuge the kingdom sheltering wings the olive tree and the shepherd to lead us to the discovery that hope is the predominant image of the book of Psalms Even in their darkest laments the psalmists remind us that God hears us and will never abandon us In these brief essays Harrington opens up the language of forty psalms explores their literary and historical context and then ties the psalm to our reading as Christians whose ultimate hope is in Jesus Christ As we read and reflect on the psalms with Harrington's guidance we call to mind the ways we experience God and our hopes both daily and for all time Drawn into the world of the psalmist and discovering how our experiences often mirror theirs we too will express our hope in God's love and mercy and in the coming of God's kingdom

Harrington S.
