Relocating the Remains Keith Piper, Royal College of Art (Great Britain), 1997      Keith Piper Keith Piper, Royal College of Art (Great Britain), New Museum of Contemporary Art (New York, N.Y.), 1999      Keith Piper, 1997      Keith Piper, 1997      Donald Rodney Richard Birkett, 2023-05-30 An illustrated examination of Donald Rodney's seminal digital media work Autoicon 1997 2000 Donald Rodney's Autoicon a work originally produced as both a website and CD ROM was conceived by the artist in the mid 1990s but not completed until two years after his death in 1998 Referencing Jeremy Bentham's infamous nineteenth century Auto Icon the work proposes an extension of the personhood and presence of Rodney while critically challenging dominant conceptions of the self the body and historicity Grounded in a partial collection of medical documents that constitute biomedicine's attempts to comprehensively know and maintain Rodney's body during his lifelong experience of sickle cell anemia Autoicon pursues the artist's address from the mid 1980s onward of the British social and institutional body's cellular composition through racialized biopolitical power Autoicon consists of a Java based AI and neural network that engages the user in text based chat and provides responses by drawing from a dense body of data points related to Rodney and his work including documentation of artworks medical records interviews images notes and video Pulling both from this internal archive and the external archive of the Internet a montage machine composes constantly mutating images according to a rule based system established around Rodney's working process In this One Work edition curator Richard Birkett traces the distinct contemporary presence of Autoicon and the ideas and relations that emerged around its conception before and after Rodney's death particularly linking the work to the artist's seminal 1997 exhibition 9 Night in Eldorado Birkett addresses Autoicon as both an index of entangled social and material relations around Rodney a form of dispersed memory and a vector of critical creative production that continues to resonate with contemporary artistic practices and radical thought While attuned to late twentieth century discourse around the body's dissolution into the virtual and the technological potential for extending consciousness in its content and structure Autoicon locates these discourses of the human and posthuman in relation to the durable productive forces of post Enlightenment racialization and ableism The workings of the mind that Autoicon presents are intrinsically tied to Rodney's wider use in his work of bodily matter and genealogically bound to a Black history of displacement dispossession and resistance experienced physiologically socially and familiarly by the artist Autoicon offers up a counter manifestation of the subject as formed and multiplied through temporal disjuncture affectability and acts of preservation care and collectivity      Relocating the Remains Keith Piper, 1997

Bodies in Code Mark B. N. Hansen, 2012-10-02 Bodies in Code explores how our bodies experience and adapt to digital environments Cyberculture theorists have tended to overlook biological reality when talking about virtual reality and Mark B N Hansen's book shows what they've been missing Cyberspace is anchored in the body he argues and it's the body not high tech computer graphics that allows a person to feel like they are really moving through virtual reality Of course these virtual experiences are also profoundly affecting our very understanding of what it means to live as embodied beings Hansen draws upon recent work in visual culture cognitive science and new media studies as well as examples of computer graphics websites and new media art to show how our bodies are in some ways already becoming virtual

Federal Register,1999-02 The Sphinx Contemplating Napoleon Gilane Tawadros,2021-01-28 Anchored in artistic practice this vibrant collection of essays and writings spans a period from 1992 2017 and the work of leading artists such as Adel Abdessemed Richard Avedon Sonia Boyce Frank Bowling Omer Fast Mona Hatoum Susan Hiller Alfredo Jaar Glenn Ligon and Shen Yuan A key figure in British and international art Gilane Tawadros draws difference to the surface recuperating it as a potentially radical frame through which to understand contemporary art and the everyday world Playing with forms of writing from critical analyses to fictional narratives the book functions as a practice based meditation on how to write about contemporary art

Committed to Memory Cheryl Finley,2022-08-30 How an eighteenth century engraving of a slave ship became a cultural icon of Black resistance identity and remembrance One of the most iconic images of slavery is a schematic wood engraving depicting the human cargo hold of a slave ship First published by British abolitionists in 1788 it exposed this widespread commercial practice for what it really was shocking immoral barbaric unimaginable Printed as handbills and broadsides the image Cheryl Finley has termed the slave ship icon was easily reproduced and by the end of the eighteenth century it was circulating by the tens of thousands around the Atlantic rim Committed to Memory provides the first in depth look at how this artifact of the fight against slavery became an enduring symbol of Black resistance identity and remembrance Finley traces how the slave ship icon became a powerful tool in the hands of British and American abolitionists and how its radical potential was rediscovered in the twentieth century by Black artists activists writers filmmakers and curators Finley offers provocative new insights into the works of Amiri Baraka Romare Bearden Betye Saar and many others She demonstrates how the icon was transformed into poetry literature visual art sculpture performance and film and became a medium through which diasporic Africans have reasserted their common identity and memorialized their ancestors Beautifully illustrated Committed to Memory features works from around the world taking readers from the United States and England to West Africa and the Caribbean It shows how contemporary Black artists and their allies have used this iconic eighteenth century engraving to reflect on the trauma of slavery and come to terms with its legacy Code of Federal Regulations ,1996 Special edition of the Federal Register containing a codification of documents of general applicability and future effect with ancillaries

Urban Village Renovation Peilin Li,2020-11-24 This book addresses the mystery and diversity of urbanization in China especially with regard to urban villages The village in the city is a unique social phenomenon in the process of Chinese urbanization A local village society composed of deep rooted social networks linked by blood geography folk beliefs and folk customs is the outcome of a complex social process which is accompanied by changes in property rights restructuring of social networks and conflicting benefits and values The end of the village is the epitome of social transformation and for China as a whole this change may take a very long time to complete This book includes various examples of and stories on urban villages offering readers a wealth of insights into the phenomenon and its significance The Body and the Screen Michele White,2006 White shows that despite the onscreen promise of empowerment and coherence through depictions of materiality that structure the experience fragmentation and confusion are constant aspects of Internet spectatorship BOOK JACKET

Embracing the Tune of Term: An Psychological Symphony within Relocating The Remains

In some sort of consumed by screens and the ceaseless chatter of immediate transmission, the melodic beauty and mental symphony developed by the prepared term frequently diminish into the background, eclipsed by the relentless sound and disruptions that permeate our lives. However, nestled within the pages of Relocating The Remains an enchanting literary prize full of fresh feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an outstanding musician of language, that fascinating masterpiece conducts visitors on an emotional journey, well unraveling the concealed tunes and profound affect resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths of this moving evaluation, we will examine the book is main harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing design, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
