Remaking Of Modern Armies The Revolution In Warfare The:

Revolutionary Armies in the Modern Era S.P. Mackenzie, 2013-01-11 This presents a major re evaluation of the standard view of revolutionary armies the range of attitudes towards the role of heroic individuals the formation and leadership of armies and the differences and similarities between such armies Beginning with an exploration of the New Model Army of the 1640s a force whose name itself seems to denote its revolutionary credentials the author presents ten case studies from around the globe including the American War of Independence The French Revolution The Zulu Boer War the Waffen SS and the Viet Cong Through a detailed analysis of source material he examines the images connected with these armies both historical and recent and assesses these images in their socio political and nationalist contexts The Remaking of Modern Europe from the Outbreak of the French Revolution to the Treaty of Berlin, 1789-1878 Sir John Arthur

Ransome Marriott, 1910 Revolution in the Making of the Modern World John Foran, David Lane, Andreja Zivkovic, 2007-11-05 This volume questions whether ideas of revolution are still relevant in the postmodern and globalized world of the twenty first century Featuring contributions from some of the world s leading sociological and political thinkers on revolution it combines theoretical concerns with a variety of detailed case studies of individual revolutions Subjects covered include democracy and revolution from 1789 to 1989 twentieth century revolutions and theories of revolution including Marxism modernization and structuralist theories revolution in the Third World and the variable geometry of the paths to modernity Islamic revolutions and modernity the 1989 revolutions as democratic revolutions or elite led transitions globalization the nation state and revolution empire and democratic revolution network society and revolution Islamic fundamentalism international terrorism and revolution democratic revolution as a new form of revolution postmodern theories of revolution new social movements identities and new figures of revolution Revolution in the Making of the Modern World will be essential reading for students and scholars of comparative politics political theory revolution and political sociology The Remaking of Modern Europe from the Outbreak of the French Revolution to the Treaty of Berlin, 1789-1878 John Arthur Ransome Marriott, 1913 The Indian Ocean in the Making of Early Modern India Pius

Malekandathil, 2016-09-13 This volume looks into the ways Indian Ocean routes shaped the culture and contours of early modern India IT shows how these and other historical processes saw India rebuilt and reshaped during late medieval times after a long age of relative stagnation isolation and backwardness The various papers deal with such themes including interconnectedness between Africa and India trade and urbanity in Golconda the changing meanings of urbanization in Bengal commercial and cultural contact between Aceh and India changing techniques of warfare representation of early modern rulers of India in contemporary European paintings the impact of the Indian Ocean on the foreign policies of the Mughals the meanings of piracy labour process in the textile sector Indo Ottoman trade Maratha French relations Bible translations and religious polemics weapon making and the uses of elephants The book will be of interest to students and scholars of early modern Indian history in general and those working on aspects of connected histories in particular

The Making of Modern Europe, 1648-1780 Geoffrey Treasure, 2003-12-16 This reissue of a classic textbook has been revised and updated with a new introduction by the author Geoffrey Treasure provides a thoroughly comprehensive account of the European experience at a time when so much of what is today identified as modern began to take shape Discussing key issues of the period The Making of Modern Europe 1647 1980 examines the evolution of the developing society detailed studies of the people their environment attitudes and beliefs economic aspects the growth of the states politics war and diplomacy religion intellectualism and science This work provides an excellent grounding for the study of seventeenth and eighteenth century European history

The Great War and the Making of the Modern World Jeremy Black, 2011-03-17 This new work demonstrates how the outcome of the First World War has formed the modern world we live in today The First World War was the Great War for its leading participants In revisiting the events of 1914 1918 a century on Jeremy Black considers how we now look at the impact of the conflict across the globe and how it came to be World War I in our consciousness For millions both soldiers and civilians the conflict proved fatal The suffering and loss of the war provides much of its resonance and significance but this book seeks to throw light beyond this not least in asking how it ended in victory and defeat Casting aside the conventional narrative Jeremy Black returns to a vast range of original sources and investigates not only the key events of the war but its consequences in restructuring the old order As its significance has changed with time and not only with the loss of first hand testimony Black considers the struggle not only in its historical context but through its memorialisation today

Making Enemies Mary Patricia Callahan, 2003 The Burmese army took political power in Burma in 1962 and has ruled the country ever since The persistence of this government even in the face of long term nonviolent opposition led by activist Aung San Suu Kyi who was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1991 has puzzled scholars In a book relevant to current debates about democratization Mary P Callahan seeks to explain the extraordinary durability of the Burmese military regime In her view the origins of army rule are to be found in the relationship between war and state formation Burma's colonial past had seen a large imbalance between the military and civil sectors That imbalance was accentuated soon after formal independence by one of the earliest and most persistent covert Cold War conflicts involving CIA funded Kuomintang incursions across the Burmese border into the People's Republic of China Because this raised concerns in Rangoon about the possibility of a showdown with Communist China the Burmese Army received even more autonomy and funding to protect the integrity of the new nation state The military transformed itself during the late 1940s and the 1950s from a group of anticolonial guerrilla bands into the professional force that seized power in 1962 The army edged out all other state and social institutions in the competition for national power Making Enemies draws upon Callahan's interviews with former military officers and her archival work in Burmese libraries and halls of power Callahan's unparalleled access allows her to correct existing explanations of Burmese authoritarianism and to supply new information about the coups of 1958 and 1962

Making the Modern American Fiscal State Ajay K. Mehrotra, 2013-09-30 At the turn of the twentieth century the US system of public finance underwent a dramatic transformation The late nineteenth century regime of indirect hidden partisan and regressive taxes was eclipsed in the early twentieth century by a direct transparent professionally administered and progressive tax system This book uncovers the contested roots and paradoxical consequences of this fundamental shift in American tax law and policy It argues that the move toward a regime of direct and graduated taxation marked the emergence of a new fiscal polity a new form of statecraft that was guided not simply by the functional need for greater revenue but by broader social concerns about economic justice civic identity bureaucratic capacity and public power Between the end of Reconstruction and the onset of the Great Depression the intellectual legal and administrative foundations of the modern fiscal state first took shape This book explains how and why this new fiscal polity came to be

The Making of the Modern Mediterranean, 2019-07-09 Studies of the pivotal historic place of the Mediterranean have long been dominated by specialists of its northern shores that is by European historians The seven leading authors in this groundbreaking volume challenge views of Mediterranean space as shaped by European trajectories and in doing so they challenge our comfortable notions Drawing perspectives from the Mediterranean's eastern and southern shores they ask anew What is the Mediterranean What are its borders its defining characteristics What forces of nature politics culture or economics have made the Mediterranean and how long have they or will they endure Covering the sixteenth century to the twentieth this timely volume brings the early modern world into conversation with the modern world in new ways demonstrating that only recently can we differentiate the north and south into separate cultural and political zones The Making of the Modern Mediterranean Views from the South offers a blueprint for a new generation of readers to rethink the world we thought we knew

Total Wars and the Making of Modern Ukraine, 1914-1954 George O. Liber, 2016-01-01 Between 1914 and 1954 the Ukrainian speaking territories in East Central Europe suffered almost 15 million excess deaths as well as numerous large scale evacuations and forced population transfers These losses were the devastating consequences of the two world wars revolutions famines genocidal campaigns and purges that wracked Europe in the first half of the twentieth century and spread new ideas created new political and economic systems and crafted new identities In Total Wars and the Making of Modern Ukraine 1914 1954 George O Liber argues that the continuous violence of the world wars and interwar years transformed the Ukrainian speaking population of East Central Europe into self conscious Ukrainians Wars mass killings and forced modernization drives made and re made Ukraine s boundaries institutionalized its national identities and pruned its population according to various state sponsored political racial and social ideologies In short the two world wars the Holodomor and the Holocaust played critical roles in forming today s Ukraine A landmark study of the terrifying scope and paradoxical consequences of mass violence in Europe s bloodlands Liber s book will transform our understanding of the entangled histories of Ukraine the USSR Germany and East Central Europe in the twentieth century The Making of Modern Turkey Ahmad Feroz,2002-11 Textbook providing a thorough assessment of the political social and economic processes which led to the formation of a new Turkey socio economic change is emphasised throughout The Making of a Modern Army and Its Operations in the Field René Louis Jules Radiguet,1918 Contention and Trust in Cities and States Michael Hanagan,Chris Tilly,2011-04-15 The catalyst for this book is the fact that noted sociologist Charles Tilly upon his death in 2008 left one completed chapter of an unfinished manuscript entitled Cities States and Trust Networks examining the relationships between cities and nation states over the sweep of history and in particular the role of trust networks in mediating this relationship Though this was the catalyst the book serves a broader purpose to survey recent frontier work on cities nation states and the relations between the two in historical and contemporary perspective Essays in the book will address four main themes city state relations trust networks and commitment democracy and inequality and the importance of historical legacies in shaping state structures practices and capacities They will be global in scope with research on the United States Latin America Europe Asia and Africa a number of the pieces will be comparative They will also be interdisciplinary including works of geography history political science sociology urban planning The book addresses several confluent needs of readers One is to simply update themes addressed in earlier edited work such as Bringing the State Back In 1985 A second is to bring together current thinking about cities on the one hand and nation states on the other literatures that are often segregated from each other A third is to perform those two purposes in a way that is global in scope and combines both historical and current analyses to pull together insights from the full range of human experience
