God's Not Forgotten Me Tricia Williams, 2022-05-24 What happens to faith if you get dementia Does the real you disappear Does your relationship with God evaporate as neurons begin to disconnect Will you forget God Here the voices of Christians from the evangelical tradition bring insight to the profound questions faith encounters amidst the disorientation of dementia even when my brain falls apart nothing can separate me from the love of God faith is stronger Tricia Williams seeks deeper understanding of their faith experience and practice through careful listening and theological reflection within the boundaries of a biblical agenda who I am knowing God experience and practice of faith the shadows of suffering embodied memory spiritual growth and hope for now Fresh theological insights and challenges for the church call for creative practices to nurture the faith of disciples of Jesus who live with this disease They must remind me In this book these voices reveal a growing positive experience of faith in the light of dementia and of hope in Christ Faith does not end with diagnosis God has not forgotten me

Interrogating Trauma Mick Broderick, Antonio Traverso, 2013-09-27 Throughout the past century traumatic experiences have been re enacted frequently by evolving media and art forms Now there is a significant body of theory across academic disciplines focused on the representation of cataclysmic European and

US historical events However less critical attention has been devoted to the representation of havoc outside the West even though depictions of Third World disasters saturate contemporary media and art around the globe This book considers traumatic histories internationally in a broad range of creative arts and visual media representations Deploying diverse applications of the conventional theories of trauma it examines the theoretical limitations at the same time as considering alternative methodologies Interrogating Trauma is concerned with the examination of the concept of trauma and how it is often unproblematically used to theorise the cultural representation of disaster and atrocity It offers a theorisation of trauma in order to reappraise the relationship between cultural representation and the socio historical processes which are marked by violence conflict and suffering This book was published as a special issue of Continuum Journal of Media and Cultural Studies

War, Revolution and Remembrance in World Cinema Nancy J. Membrez, 2021-05-14 Two World Wars engulfed Europe Asia and the United States leaving indelible scars on the landscape and survivors The trauma of civil wars in Spain declared and Latin America tacit spanned decades yet contradictorily bind parties together even today Civil wars still haunt Africa where in more recent years ethnic cleansing has led to wholesale genocide Drawing on the emerging field of Memory Studies this book examines narrative and documentary films made far from Hollywood that address memory both traumatic and nostalgic surrounding these conflicts despite attempts by special interests to erase or manipulate history

Lay Me in God's Good Earth Kent Burreson, Beth Hoeltke, 2024-08-20 Current burial practices in the West fail to confront us with the reality of death and make it harder to grieve properly Burreson and Hoeltke argue that natural burial offers a more accurate picture of Christian hope and resurrection This immensely practical guide is also an application of the hope of the resurrection to those grieving

Asian American Poets Guiyou Huang, 2002-05-30 Even though Asian American literature is enjoying an impressive critical popularity attention has focused primarily on longer narrative forms such as the novel And despite the proliferation of a large number of poets of Asian descent in the 20th century Asian American poetry remains a neglected area of study Poetry as an elite genre has not reached the level of popularity of the novel or short story partly due to the difficulties of reading and interpreting poetic texts The lack of criticism on Asian American poetry speaks to the urgent need for scholarship in this area since perhaps more than any other genre poetry most forcefully captures the intense feelings and emotions that Asian Americans have experienced about themselves and their world This reference book overviews the tremendous cultural contributions of Asian American poets Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 48 American poets of Asian descent most of whom have been active during the latter half of the 20th century Each entry begins with a short biography which sometimes includes information drawn from personal interviews The entries then discuss the poet's major works and themes including such concerns as family racism sexism identity language and politics A survey of the poet's critical reception follows In many cases the existing criticism is scant and the entries offer new readings of neglected works The entries conclude with bibliographies of primary and secondary texts and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography To The Stars George Takei, 2015-03-10 Best known as Mr Sulu helmsman of the Starship Enterprise and captain of the Starship Excelsior George Takei is beloved by millions as part of the command team that has taken audiences to new vistas of adventure in Star Trek the unprecedented television and feature film phenomenon From the program's birth in the changing world of the 1960s and death at the hands of the network to its rebirth in the hearts and minds of loyal fans the Star Trek story has blazed its own path into our recent cultural history leading to a series of blockbuster feature films and three new versions of Star Trek for television The Star Trek story is one of boundless hope and crushing disappointment wrenching rivalries and incredible achievements It is also the story of how after nearly thirty years the cast of characters from a unique but poorly rated television show have come to be known to millions of Americans and people around the world as family For George Takei the Star Trek adventure is intertwined with his personal odyssey through adversity in which four year old George and his family were forced by the United States government into internment camps during World War II Star Trek means much more to George Takei than an extraordinary career that has spanned thirty years For an American whose ideals faced such a severe test Star Trek represents a shining embodiment of the American Dream the promise of an optimistic future in which people from all over the world contribute to a common destiny

Flight to Freedom Rossana P?rez, Henry A. J. Ramos, 2007-11-30 This compelling and historically significant volume collects the personal narratives of Central American refugees who fled the violence in their homelands and became leading community advocates at the forefront of social justice Each of the people interviewed is a leader in the Salvadoran Central American refugee movement Consequently this book offers insight into the early philosophy and framework of the movement as revealed by some pioneers Narratives of Parental Death, Dying and Bereavement Caroline Pearce, Carol

Komaromy, 2021-05-25 This collection shows what happens when facing the inevitable and sometimes expected death of a parent and how such an ordinary part of life as parental death might connect with the children left behind In many ways individual deaths are extraordinary and leave a unique legacy a kind of haunting The authors' accounts seek to make sense of death through witnessing its enactment and recording its detail All the authors are experienced researchers in the field of death studies and their collective expertise encompasses ethnography psychology sociology and anthropology The individual descriptions of death and grief capture the everyday practicalities of managing death and dying including for example the difficulties of caring responsibilities and the realities of dealing with strained family relationships These accounts show the raw detail of death they are deeply personal observations framed within critical theories As established scholars and practitioners that have researched and worked in end of life and bereavement care the authors in this anthology offer a unique perspective on how identity is shaped by a close bereavement The book employs a strong editorial narrative that blends memoir with theoretical engagement and will be of interest to death studies scholars as well as practitioners involved in end of life care and bereavement care and anyone who has experienced the death of a parent Textbook of Neural

Repair and Rehabilitation: Volume 2, Medical Neurorehabilitation Michael E. Selzer, Stephanie Clarke, Leonardo G. Cohen, Gert Kwakkel, Robert H.
