Remembering Your Creator Matthew Mead, C. Matthew McMahon, 2020-11-13 Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth while the evil days come not nor the years draw nigh when thou shalt say I have no pleasure in them Ecclesiastes 12 1 Puritan minister Matthew Mead delivers a stirring call to awaken the soul to its greatest duty remembering and honoring God while strength and time remain With unwavering clarity he lays before the reader the weight of Solomon's charge urging men and women especially in their youth to set their hearts fully upon the Lord Jesus Christ before the cares of this world harden them to eternal things This is no idle sermon nor a mere call to moral living It is a rich and masterful work of scriptural exposition driving deeply into the text and unfolding the full measure of God's claim upon the soul Mead does not deal in half hearted religion nor does he flatter the reader with excuses for delay He sets forth Christ as the only refuge the only hope and the only rightful object of a life well spent Whether you are young and standing at the threshold of life or older and in need of renewed zeal Remembering Your Creator is a call to fix your thoughts upon the Lord to seek Him early and to live in the light of eternity

The Development of Dogma Guy Mansini, 2023-10-27 The Development of Dogma examines the nature of dogmatic statements and the causes of development It devotes particular attention to the emergence of the form of dogmatic statements at the Council of Nicaea but notes how this form is anticipated in the New Testament It situates dogma and its development within the matrix of the great fundamental theological realities of Scripture Tradition and Magisterium Fr Mansini examines at some length how the Church comes to recognize a development as a genuine development rather than as a distortion of the word of God The Development of Dogma is especially valuable today for its discussion and defense of the philosophical presuppositions of dogma which are often simply presupposed but should not be ignored in a complete account of development These presuppositions touch on fundamental philosophical issues including the nature of knowledge the objectivity and trustworthiness of names and the various logical forms employed in understanding how development is related to a closed revelation The historicity of human knowledge is also addressed and the role of dogma itself in heading off the extreme relativism the historical nature of man is supposed to imply for ecclesial faith and life The Church's dogma about dogma enunciated at the First Vatican Council is also examined The role of certain fundamental concepts in understanding the possibility of the irreformability of dogma it speaks of is expressly addressed concepts in principle accessible to all human beings and that enable a trans cultural trans temporal proposal and reception of revealed truth question Who am I When I removed all the labels such as daughter wife mother and teacher and then even my name too I realised how vulnerable I was I wondered what was left of me That was the catalyst that began my search for the Greater Me my eternal Spirit self As I searched listened and read I gained new belief systems that were wider than religion and more liberating than my social conditioning The greatest freedom came though when I finally understood the language of symbols especially those used in the ancient Marseilles Tarot Pack I spent almost twenty years exploring the blueprint of the archetypes that are embedded in these cards Each of the 22 major arcana cards took me on a deep souljourney towards consciousness knowledge and a change of heart What I discovered was that I am more than I could ever have imagined and so are you When we become conscious of painful and inhibiting beliefs that no longer serve us we begin a journey into loving acceptance of self and others too
