Reminiscence Of A Forgotten War:

Reminiscence of a Forgotten War Frank O. Pruitt, 1999 Reminiscence of a Forgotten War Frank Pruitt, 2004-02 The memoirs of Frank O Pruitt and his Korean War service with the 40th Division in 1952 and 1953 It covers his service as a rifle platoon leader in E Company and Company Commander of Tank Company of the 223rd Infantry Regiment The book is more of a study of the characters and personalities of the officers and men of the 223rd Regiment and 40th Division than a combat narrative The author develops the tension and interplay which occurred when the regular Army officers who had been assigned to the stateside airborne divisions were released from those assignments in 1952 and anxiously sought assignment in combat units before the war was concluded It is the story of life and combat on the Main Line of Resistance in the Kumwha Valley Punch Bowl and Heartbreak Ridge The book deals with the retraining of the Division at Kapyong during the Summer of 1952 and the conversion of a National Guard Division into a combat tested regular Army unit led by regular Army Airborne officers eager to join the fight The author a late World War II OCS graduate was recalled to service as a reserve officer in June of 1951 and describes the stateside retraining replacement pipeline and Japanese R R experience He returned to Korea in September of 1998 and accompanied by a Korean guide revisited sites where he served at Kumwha Kapyong and the Punch Bowl His account is a blueprint for those interested in more than the quick in and out Korean Veterans package tour or for those veterans or their families who want additional insight into the Korean War experience and what has occurred to this troubled land in the last 50 years World War II Reminiscences Col. John H. Roush, Jr., 2013-03 This volume presents a dramatic collection of significant combat experiences of 79 men in WWII as told from one combat veteran to another In the 86 chapters are stories involving all the various branches of combat service and all of the various theaters of war Within reminiscences veterans of dangerous encounters are much more apt to open up with details in discussions with men who have also experienced combat Many find it emotionally distressing to talk of the war with the general public or to recall the horrors of warfare This is not a history book nor any attempt to tell the big picture of grand campaigns Instead it is a collection of personal involvements in one at a time incidents of conflict Many ask what was it like in WWII for our conflicts in recent years have been vastly different It has been said that war has become and continues to be an intractable social phenomenon While some say its elimination is necessary to the survival of mankind we do not seem to have approached closer to that elimination in the sixty seven years since WWII ended Encounters of Warfare remain a stark reality within the present era That being so perhaps we should read of what happened as recalled in the most vivid memories of men involved in the most overpowering conflict of modern warfare Sincerely John Roush Rhetoric in Martial Deliberations and Decision Making Ronald H. Carpenter, 2004 In this study of the discourse involved in martial deliberations Ronald H Carpenter examines the rhetoric employed by naval and military commanders as they recommend specific tactics and strategies to peers as well as presidents Drawing on ideas of rhetorical thinking from Aristotle to Kenneth Burke Carpenter identifies two concepts of particular importance to the military decision making process prudence and the representative anecdote The Rotarian ,1999-12 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine
