Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1908 edition. Excerpt: An interesting old gentleman whose blunt but genial presence was always enjoyable was Mr. Moses Harrison. His home and farm were on Valley Road embracing what is now Erwin Park, named for his son Erwin who succeeded him as occupant of the homestead and farm for many years. Mr. Jared Erwin Harrison was a man of thrift and held positions of trust. He, with William J. Harris and Grant J. Wheeler, was active in securing the Newark and Bloomfield Railroad to Montclair, and all three were members of its first Board of Directors. Mr. Harrison conducted a large business in manufacturing cider and vinegar, which had an extensive reputation. He was a man of marked energy, stern but tender-hearted. The old residence is still held and occupied by his descendants. A little to the southwest on Valley Road lived Levi Kent, a friendly and familiar gentleman of the town whose farm was a part of and joined the athletic grounds. His old home was moved back and still stands to give place for the new one built by Mr. Jacob Mayer, who purchased the farm and whose descendants still occupy it. Historic Statistics. Some items from a Gazetteer of the State of New Jersey published in 1834 at Trenton by Thomas F. Gordon will be of interest. Following is its record of the Township of Bloomfield: The villages of the township are Belleville, Bloomfield, Spring Garden, and Speertown. The territory covered by above villages reaches from the top of our Mountain to the Passaic River to the county line on the north and to Orange on the south. The census of 1830 gives the population as 4,309. What is now Montclair would show a census of less than one third of 4,309. The number of horses and mules it states were 387; number of cattle 862.
