Sebastiano Serlio on Architecture: Books VI-VII of 'Tutte l'opere d'architettura et prospetiva' with 'Castrametation of the Romans' and 'The Extraordinary book of doors' Sebastiano Serlio, 1996-01-01 Sebastiano Serlio was the most important architectural writer and theorist of the sixteenth century The author of the first wide ranging illustrated book on architecture he produced a complete set of model designs as well as practical solutions for everyday design problems This volume the second in a two volume series of Serlio's entire works presents the previously unpublished sixth book the seventh book and as well as The Extraordinary Book of Doors his little known Castrametation of the Romans each of which demonstrates Serlio's sophisticated design theories This is the first translation of Serlio's later works and the first time that the long lost sixth volume has been united with its companion works and restored to its intended position The book also includes an introduction and notes by translators Vaughan Hart and Peter Hicks that demonstrate Serlio's significance within the history of architecture and the importance of these neglected texts to our understanding of Serlio's work Cities in the World: 1500-2000: v. 3 Adrian Green, 2018-12-13 Papers presented at the Cities in the World conference held at Southampton University and organised through the Society for Post Medieval Archaeology challenged the commonly held perception that cities are about the present and the future not about the past All cities have an innate sense of the past and this volume encompassing as it does The Cambridge History of Science: Volume 3, Early Modern Science David C. Kagay, 2005 This work the first of a two volume set brings together essays of European and American scholars on the wider regional and topical aspects of the Hundred Years War as well as articles that revisit questions posed and supposedly solved by traditional Hundred Years War scholarship The Architectural History of Venice Deborah Howard, Sarah Quill, Laura Moretti, 2002-01-01 Overzicht van de Venetiaanse architectuur vanaf de stichting in de Romeinse tijd tot nu Conflict and Soldiers' Literature in Early Modern Europe Paul Scannell, 2014-12-18 In Conflict and Soldiers Literature in Early Modern Europe Paul Scannell analyses the late 16th century and early 17th century literature of warfare through the published works of English Welsh and Scottish soldiers The book explores the dramatic increase in printed material on many aspects of warfare the diversity of authors the adaptation of existing writing traditions and the growing public interest in military affairs There is an extensive discussion on the categorisation of soldiers which argues that soldiers works are under used evidence of the developing professionalism among military leaders at various levels Through analysis of autobiographical material the thought process behind an individual's engagement with an army is investigated shedding light on the relevance of significant personal factors such as religious belief and the concept of loyalty The narratives of soldiers reveal the finer details of their experience an enquiry that greatly assists in understanding the formidable difficulties that were faced by individuals charged with both administering an army and confronting an enemy This book provides a reassessment of early modern warfare by viewing it from the perspective of those who experienced it directly Paul Scannell highlights how various types of soldier viewed their commitment to war while also considering the impact of published early modern material on domestic military capability the art of war European War and Diplomacy, 1337-1815 William Young, 2003-10 The history of international relations and warfare of early modern Europe has gained popularity in recent years This bibliography provides a valuable listing of books dissertations and journal articles in the English language for scholars and general readers interested in diplomatic relations and warfare from the Hundred Years War to the Napoleonic Wars A World of Innovation Gerhard Holzer, Valerie Newby, Petra Svatek, 2015-02-27 Gerhard Mercator 1512 1594 was the most important cartographer and globemaker of the 16th century He is particularly remembered for his publication Atlas sive Cosmographicae Meditationes de Fabrica Mundi et Fabricati

Figura 1595 and for his specific cylindrical map projection 1569 which is still used widely today This book brings together the latest research on Mercator with a view to his sources and his relationships with other scientific disciplines and cartographers of his time as well as his role in the wider worlds of Renaissance cartography and Humanism 'The Furie of the Ordnance' Stephen Bull,2008 Shows how new developments in guns and artillery played a decisive role in the English Civil War NEW LOW PRICE The English Civil War has frequently been depicted as a struggle between Cavaliers and Roundheads in which technology played little part The first hand sources now tell us that this romantic picture is deeply flawed revealing a reality of gunpowder artillery and a grinding struggle of siege and starvation As with naval warfare developments in gun technology drastically changed land warfare in the years leading up to 1642 The Civil War was itself shaped largely by the availability of munitions A failure to procure them in 1643 and 1644 combined with abortive attempts on London ultimately proved the downfall of the Royalists Moreover a final move away from fortified local garrisons reshaped both the nature of warfare in England and the country itself STEPHEN BULL is Curator of Military History and Archaeology Lancashire Museums
