The A to Z of Renaissance Art Lilian H. Zirpolo, 2009-09-16 The Renaissance era was launched in Italy and gradually spread to the Netherlands Germany Spain France and other parts of Europe and the New World with figures like Robert Campin Jan van Eyck Rogier van der Weyden Albrecht Dürer and Albrecht Altdorfer It was the era that produced some of the icons of civilization including Leonardo da Vinci's Mona Lisa and Last Supper and Michelangelo's Sistine Ceiling Piet and David. Marked as one of the greatest moments in history, the outburst of creativity of the era resulted in the most influential artistic revolution ever to have taken place. The period produced a substantial number of notable masters among them Caravaggio, Donato Bramante, Donatello, El Greco, Filippo Brunelleschi, Masaccio, Sandro Botticelli, Raphael, Titian, and Tintoretto. The result was an outstanding number of exceptional works of art and architecture that pushed human potential to new heights.

The A to Z of Renaissance Art covers the years 1250 to 1648, the period most disciplines place as the Renaissance Era. A complete portrait of this remarkable period is depicted in this book through a chronology, an introductory essay, a bibliography, and over 500 hundred cross-referenced dictionary entries on major Renaissance painters, sculptors, architects, and patrons, as well as relevant historical figures and events, the foremost artistic centers, schools, and periods, major themes, and subjects, noteworthy commissions, technical processes, theoretical, material, literary, and philosophic sources for art and art historical terminology.

Jacopo Tintoretto: Identity, Practice, Meaning Marie-Louise Lillywhite, Tom Nichols, Giorgio Tagliaferro, Autori Vari, 2022-04-04T17:35:00+02:00 Over the past twenty years or so it has finally been understood that Jacopo Tintoretto 1518-19 1594 is an old master of the very highest calibre whose sharp visual intelligence and brilliant oil technique provides a match for any painter of any time. Based on papers given at a conference held at Keble College Oxford to mark the quincentenary of Tintoretto's birth, this volume comprises ten new essays written by an international range of scholars that open many fresh perspectives on this remarkable Venetian painter. Reflecting current hot spots in Tintoretto studies and suggesting fruitful avenues for future research, chapters explore aspects of the artist's professional and social identity, his graphic oeuvre, and workshop practice, his secular and sacred works in their cultural context, and the emergent artistic personality of his painter son Domenico. Building upon the opening up of the Tintoretto phenomenon to less fixed or partial viewpoints in recent years, this volume reveals the great master's painting practice as excitingly experimental, dynamic, open-ended, and original.

Multiple Selves Richard Lebow, 2024-11-28 Multiple Selves offers an original take on identity, self-fashioning, and the problems of identity politics. It bridges the genres of political science, sociology, philosophy, and even self-help. It draws on current debates in psychology, philosophy, and political science, as well as art and literature, to address a serious life issue that has important political and ethical implications. Multiple Selves denies that we have a single identity, are unique, or could use either identity or uniqueness as a source of political and ethical guidance. We are a jumble of multiple self and social identifications that change in character and rise and fall in importance over time. Some of these identifications are reinforcing, others are in conflict, and all are context-dependent. The book offers a critique of identity politics on both the right and the left. It proposes more realistic ways of self-fashioning, described as much as a social as an individual enterprise. Recognition of our fragmented selves can produce important ethical insights and greater psychological contentment.

A New History of Western Art Koenraad Jonckheere, 2022-10-15 A radical re-examination of 2,500 years of European art.

deconstructing and demystifying its long history from ancient to present How has art evolved from the pursuit of the ideal human form to a black square on a white canvas Why is a banana duct taped to a wall worth more on the art market than a beautiful seventeenth century landscape By taking art for what it actually is a piece of stone or wood a sheet of paper with some lines drawn on it a painted canvas this lively and accessible account shows how seemingly meaningless objects can be transformed into celebrated works of art Breaking with conventional notions of artistic genius Koenraad Jonckheere explores how stories and emotions give meaning to objects and why changing historical circumstances result in such shifting opinions over time Tracing its story from ancient times to present A New History of Western Art reframes the evolution of European art and radically reshapes our understanding of art history Published in association with Hannibal Books Frame Work Alison Wright, 2019-01-01 Frame Work explores how framing devices in the art of Renaissance Italy respond and appeal to viewers in their social religious and political context New Apelleses and New Apollos Diletta Gamberini, 2022-01-19 This book breaks new ground by illuminating the key role of verse writing as a cultural strategy on the part of Italian Renaissance artists It does so by undertaking a wide ranging study of poems by painters sculptors architects and goldsmiths who were active in Florence under Cosimo I and Francesco I de Medici a milieu in which many practitioners of the visual arts appropriated the literary medium to address issues related to their primary professions New Apelleses and New Apollos intervenes in the burgeoning scholarly discourse on the intellectual life of artists in early modern Italy revealing how poetry often provides fresh insights into art theoretical debates patronage questions workshop cultures issues of professional identity and networks of personal relations Sebastiano del Piombo and the World of Spanish Rome Piers Baker-Bates, 2017-07-05 Sebastiano del Piombo c 1485 1547 was a close associate and rival of the central artistic figures of the High Renaissance notably Michelangelo and Raphael After the death of Raphael and the departure of Michelangelo from Rome Sebastiano became the dominant artistic personality in the city Despite being one of most significant artistic figures of the period he remains the last artist of major importance in the western canon about whom no recent work has been published in English In this study Piers Baker Bates approaches Sebastiano s career through analysis of the patrons he attracted following his arrival at Rome The first half of the book concentrates on Sebastiano s network of patrons predominantly Italian who had strong factional ties to the Imperial camp the second half discusses Sebastiano s relationship with his principal Spanish patrons Sebastiano is a leading example of a transcultural artist in the sixteenth century and his relationship with Spain was fundamental to the development of his career The author investigates the domination of Sebastiano s career by patrons who had geographically different origins but who were all members of a wider network of Imperial loyalties Thus Baker Bates removes Sebastiano from the shadow of his contemporaries bringing him to life for the reader as an artistic personality in his own right Baker Bates characterization of the Rome in which Sebastiano made his career differs from previous scholarly accounts and he describes how Sebastiano was ideally suited to flourish in the environment he depicts Sebastiano del Piombo and the World of Spanish Rome thus re appraises not only Sebastiano's place in the canon of Renaissance art but using him as a lens also the cultural worlds of Early Modern Italy and Spain in which he operated

Mythologies of Internal Exile in Elizabethan Verse A.D. Cousins, 2018-10-26 Writers of the English Renaissance like their European contemporaries frequently reflect on the phenomenon of exile an experience that forces the individual to establish a new personal identity in an alien environment Although there has been much commentary on this phenomenon as represented in English Renaissance literature there has been nothing written at length about its counterpart namely internal exile marginalization or estrangement within the homeland This volume considers internal exile as a simultaneously twofold experience It studies estrangement from one's society and correlatively from one's normative sense of self In doing so it focuses initially on the sonnet sequences by Sidney Spenser and Shakespeare which is to say the problematics of romance then it examines the verse satires of Donne Hall and Marston likewise the problematics of anti romance This book argues that the authors of these major texts create mythologies via the myths of and accumulated mythographies about Cupid satyrs and Proteus through which to reflect on the doubleness of exile within one's own community These mythologies at times accompanied by theologies of alienation suggest that internal exile is a fluid and complex experience demanding multifarious reinterpretation of the incongruously expatriate self The monograph thus establishes a new framework for understanding texts at once diverse yet central to the Elizabethan literary achievement

Artistic Responses to Travel in the Western Tradition Sarah J. Lippert, 2018-04-17 In an era when ease of travel is greater than ever it is also easy to overlook the degree to which voyages of the body and mind have generated an outpouring of artistry and creativity throughout the ages Exploration of new lands and sensations is a fundamental human experience This volume in turn provides a stimulating and adventurous exploration of the theme of travel from an art historical perspective Topical regions are covered ranging from the Grand Tour and colonialism to the travels of Hadrian in ancient times and Georgia O'Keeffe's journey to the Andes from Vasari's Neoplatonic voyages to photographing nineteenth century Japan The scholars assembled consider both imaginary travel as well as factual or embellished documentation of voyages The essays are far reaching spatially and temporally but all relate to how art has documented the theme of travel in varying media across time and as illustrated and described by writers artists and illustrators The scope of this volume is far reaching both chronologically and conceptually thereby appropriately documenting the universality of the theme to human experience

The Devout Hand Patricia Rocco, 2017-11-29 After the Counter Reformation the Papal State of Bologna became a hub for the flourishing of female artistic talent The eighteenth century biographer Luigi Crespi recorded over twenty eight women artists working in the city although many of these until recently were ignored by modern art criticism despite the fame they attained during their lifetimes What were the factors that contributed to Bologna's unique confluence of women with art science and religion The Devout Hand explores the work of two generations of Italian women artists in Bologna from Lavinia

Fontana 1552 1614 whose career emerged during the aftermath of the Counter Reformation to her brilliant successor Elisabetta Sirani 1638 1665 who organized the first school for women artists Patricia Rocco further sheds light on Sirani's students and colleagues including the little known engraver Veronica Fontana and the innovative but understudied etcher Giuseppe Maria Mitelli Combining analysis of iconography patronage gender and reception studies Rocco integrates painting popular prints book illustration and embroidery to open a wider lens onto the relationship between women virtue and the visual arts during a period of religious crisis and reform A reminder of the lasting power of images The Devout Hand highlights women's active role in sixteenth and seventeenth century Christian reform and artistic production The Ashgate Research Companion to Giorgio Vasari David J. Cast, 2016-04-01 The Ashgate Research Companion to Giorgio Vasari brings together the world's foremost experts on Vasari as well as up and coming scholars to provide at the 500th anniversary of his birth a comprehensive assessment of the current state of scholarship on this important and still controversial artist and writer The contributors examine the life and work of Vasari as an artist architect courtier academician and as a biographer of artists They also explore his legacy including an analysis of the reception of his work over the last five centuries Among the topics specifically addressed here are an assessment of the current controversy as to how much of Vasari's Lives was actually written by Vasari and explorations of Vasari's relationships with as well as reports about contemporaries including Cellini Michelangelo and Giotto among less familiar names The geographic scope takes in not only Florence the city traditionally privileged in Italian Renaissance art history but also less commonly studied geographical venues such as Siena and Venice How Europe Made the Modern World Jonathan Daly, 2019-10-03 One thousand years ago a traveler to Baghdad or the Chinese capital Kaifeng would have discovered a vast and flourishing city of broad streets spacious gardens and sophisticated urban amenities meanwhile Paris Rome and London were cramped and unhygienic collections of villages and Europe was a backwater How then did it rise to world preeminence over the next several centuries This is the central historical conundrum of modern times How Europe Made the Modern World draws upon the latest scholarship dealing with the various aspects of the West's divergence including geography demography technology culture institutions science and economics It avoids the twin dangers of Eurocentrism and anti Westernism strongly emphasizing the contributions of other cultures of the world to the West's rise while rejecting the claim that there was nothing distinctive about Europe in the premodern period Daly provides a concise summary of the debate from both sides whilst also presenting his own provocative arguments Drawing on a wide range of primary and secondary sources and including maps and images to illuminate key evidence this book will inspire students to think critically and engage in debates rather than accepting a single narrative of the rise of the West It is an ideal primer for students studying Western Civilization and World History courses Art and Identity in Early Modern Rome Jill Burke, 2017-07-05 From the late fifteenth to the late seventeenth century Rome was one of the most vibrant and productive centres for the visual arts in the West Artists from all over Europe came to the city to see its classical remains and its celebrated contemporary art works as well as for the opportunity to work for its many wealthy patrons. They contributed to the eclecticism of the Roman artistic scene and to the diffusion of Roman artistic styles in Europe and beyond. Art and Identity in Early Modern Rome is the first book-length study to consider identity creation and artistic development in Rome during this period. Drawing together an international cast of key scholars in the field of Renaissance studies, the book adroitly demonstrates how the exceptional quality of Roman court and urban culture, with its elected monarchy, its large foreign population, and its unique sense of civic identity, interacted with developments in the visual arts. With its distinctive chronological span and uniquely interdisciplinary approach, Art and Identity in Early Modern Rome puts forward an alternative history of the visual arts in early modern Rome, one that questions traditional periodisation and stylistic categorisation.
