Renderings Max Kozloff,1970 Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren,2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included Art Criticism and Modernism in the United States Stephen Moonie,2022-03-22 This study is an analysis of high and late modernist criticism in New York during the 1960s and early 1970s Through a close reading of a selection of key critics of the period which will expand the remit beyond the canonical texts the book examines the ways that modernist criticism s discourse remains of especial disciplinary interest Despite its alleged narrowness and exclusion the debates of the 1960s raised fundamental questions concerning the nature of art writing Those include arguments around the nature of value and judgement the relationship between art criticism and art history and the related problem of what we mean by the contemporary Stephen Moonie argues that within those often fractious debates there exists a shared discourse And further contrary to the current consensus that modernists were elitist dogmatic and irrelevant to contemporary debates on art the study shows that there is much that we can learn from reconsidering their writings The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history modern art art criticism and literary studies American Studies Jack Salzman,1986-08-29 This is an annotated bibliography of 20th century books through 1983 and is a reworking of American Studies An Annotated Bibliography of Works on the Civilization of the United States published in 1982 Seeking to provide foreign nationals with a comprehensive and authoritative list of sources of information concerning America it focuses on books that have an important cultural framework and does not include those which are primarily theoretical or methodological It is organized in 11 sections anthropology and folklore art and architecture history literature music political science popular culture psychology religion science technology medicine and sociology Each section contains a preface introducing the reader to basic bibliographic resources in that discipline and paragraph length non evaluative annotations Includes author title and subject indexes ISBN 0 521 32555 2 set 150 00 Figuring Jasper Johns Fred Orton,1994 The author begins this challenging monograph by probing Modernism s surfaces and subjects its public and private meanings in order to establish Johns s importance as the modern allegorical artist in the years after Abstract Expressionism Yet Figuring Jasper Johns is not an essay that presumes to offer an instant interpretation Rather Fred Orton self consciously constructs a Jasper Johns whose work is introduced and explained in three chapters each of which addresses a specific picture or sculpture like Flag Painted Bronze Savarin and Untitled 1992 These in depth studies situate individual works in their social context as well as in Johns s oeuvre Fred Orton s purpose is to get to terms with and find terms for a difficult and elusive body of work by one of the most important artists of the 20th century

Visualizing Feeling Susan Best,2011-06-30 Is late modern art anti aesthetic What does it mean to label a piece of art affectless These traditional characterizations of 1960s and 1970s art are radically challenged in this subversive art history By introducing feeling to the analysis of this period Susan Best acknowledges the radical and exploratory nature of art in late modernism The book focuses on four highly influential female artists Eva Hesse Lygia Clark Ana Mendieta and Theresa Hak Kyung Cha and it explores how their art transformed established avant garde protocols by introducing an affective dimension This aspect of their work while often noted has never before been analyzed in detail Visualizing Feeling also addresses a methodological blind spot in art history the interpretation of feeling emotion and affect It demonstrates that the affective dimension alongside other materials and methods of art is part of the artistic means of production and innovation This is the first thorough re appraisal of aesthetic engagement with affect in post 1960s art

Sam Gilliam Jonathan P. Binstock,2005-12-05 A fresh intelligent and insightful assessment of Sam Gilliam s lifetime achievements as an artist Binstock accomplishes this through his penetrating critical examination of Gilliam s artistic development innovations and the complexities of his contribution both as an abstract and African American artist Valerie J Mercer author of Explorations in the City of Light Sam Gilliam A Retrospective which gives focus and definition to an artist critical to our understanding of how contemporary painting has evolved in this country is a highly welcome publication Leslie King Hammond Dean of Graduate Studies Maryland Institute College of Art Sam Gilliam A Retrospective is a thorough and serious assessment of a magisterial career Meticulously examining Gilliam s ideas aesthetics influences artistic process and impact on other artists it illuminates his brilliance and the important role played by his work in the recent history of American painting Maurice Berger Fellow The Vera List Center for Art Politics The New School Finally a comprehensive study of one of our most significant artists Jonathan Binstock s erudite account of Sam Gilliam s innovations in the world of art fills a considerable void in our understanding of painterly abstraction The art works themselves cerebral sentient and fascinating consummate the inquiry and make this book a visual delight Richard J Powell John Spencer Bassett Professor of Art and Art History Duke University Binstock s writings on Sam Gilliam s art over the past four decades have placed the artist in the forefront of contemporary American art In this new book he recounts Gilliam s rise to an artist of international prominence and offers a concise history of contemporary art in Washington A must read David D Driskell author of Two Centuries of Black American Art This comprehensive text celebrates one of America s hidden national treasures Gilliam s steadfast and unswerving commitment as an artist shines through his works as in this account of them by Jonathan Binstock What emerges here is a full on profile of an artist and a black American Lowery Stokes Sims President The Studio Museum in Harlem

Fifty Key Writers on Photography Mark Durden, 2013-02-15 A clear and concise survey of some of the most significant writers on photography who have played a major part in defining and influencing our understanding of the medium It provides a succinct overview of writing on photography from a diverse range of disciplines and perspectives and examines the shifting perception of the medium over the course of its 170 year history Key writers discussed include Roland Barthes Susan Sontag Jacques Derrida Henri Cartier Bresson Geoffrey Batchen Fully cross referenced and in an A Z format this is an accessible and engaging introductory guide Machine in the Studio Caroline A. Jones, 1996 Drawing on extensive interviews with artists and their assistants as well as close readings of artworks Jones explains that much of the major work of the 1960s was compelling precisely because it was mainstream central to the visual and economic culture of its time

Allan Kaprow, Robert Rauschenberg, and the Limits to Art Philip Ursprung, Fiona Elliott, 2013-05-10 This innovative study of two of the most important artists of the twentieth century links the art practices of Allan Kaprow and Robert Rauschenberg in their attempts to test the limits of art both what it is and where it is Ursprung provides a sophisticated yet accessible analysis placing the two artists firmly in the art world of the 1960s as well as in the art historical discourse of the following decades Although their practices were quite different they both extended the studio and gallery into desert landscapes abandoned warehouses industrial sites train stations and other spaces Ursprung bolsters his argument with substantial archival research and sociological and economic models of expansion and limits Made in U.S.A. Sidra Stich, University Art Museum Berkeley, 1987-01-01 Made in U S A takes a new look at American art of the 1950s and 1960s and shows us how American it was This is a provocative study of those artists who appropriated everyday images from the world of mass media and suburban living and forced their viewers into a sometimes witty sometimes bittersweet confrontation with the realities of living in late twentieth century America Forms of Curriculum Inquiry Edmund C. Short, 1991-07-03 This book presents an overview of seventeen forms of inquiry used in curriculum research in education Conventional disciplinary forms of inquiry such as philosophical historical and scientific are described as well as more recently acknowledged forms such as ethnographic aesthetic narrative phenomenological and hermeneutic Interdisciplinary forms such as theoretical normative critical deliberative and action research are also included These forms of inquiry are distinguished from one another in terms of purposes types of research questions addressed and the processes and logic of procedure employed in arriving at knowledge claims Art, Politics and Dissent Francis Frascina, 1999 Art Politics and Dissent provides a counter history to conventional accounts of American art Close historical examinations of particular events in Los Angeles and New York in the 1960s are interwoven with discussion of the location of these events normally marginalized or overlooked in the history of cultural politics in the United States during the postwar period René Magritte and the Art of Thinking Lisa Lipinski, 2019-04-04 For Ren Magritte painting was a form of thinking Through paintings of ordinary objects rendered with illusionism Magritte probed the limits of our perception what we see and cannot see the nature of representation as a philosophical system for presenting ideas and explored perspective as a method of visual argumentation This book makes the claim that Magritte s painting is about vision and the act of viewing of perception itself and the process of how we see and experience things in the world including paintings as things Beyond Words Carol-Lynne Moore,Kaoru Yamamoto,2024-11-01 Beyond Words presents a range of illuminating approaches to examining every day social interactions to help the reader understand human movement in new ways Carol Lynne Moore and Kaoru Yamamoto build on the principles that they expertly explored in the first edition of the book maintaining a focus on the processes of movement as opposed to discussions of static body language The authors combine textual discussion with a new set of website hosted video instructions to ensure that readers develop an in depth understanding of nonverbal communication as well as the work of its most influential analyst Rudolf Laban This fully revised extensively illustrated second edition includes a new introduction by the authors It presents a fascinating insight into this vital field of study and will be an invaluable resource for scholars and practitioners in many activities from performing and martial arts athletics to therapeutic and spiritual practices conflict resolution business interactions and intercultural relations Transformative Objects and the Aesthetics of Play Lynn M. Somers,2024-12-26 This book considers the sculpture of Louise Bourgeois 1911 2010 in light of psychoanalyst D W Winnicott s 1896 1971 radical ideas regarding transitional objects potential space and play offering a model for exploring the complex and psychologically evocative work Bourgeois produced from 1947 to 2000 Critical concepts from British object relational theories destruction reparation integration relationality and play drawn from the writings of Winnicott Melanie Klein Marion Milner and Christopher Bollas among others bear upon the decades long study of psychoanalysis Bourgeois brought to her sculptural production that was symbolic metaphorical and most importantly useful The book demonstrates how Bourgeois s transformative sculptural objects and environments are invested in object relations both psychical and tangible and explores Bourgeois s contention that the observer physically engage with the intricate sculptural objects and architectural spaces she produced Each chapter focuses on a key body of work Femme Maison Personages Lairs Janus and Cells examining how these imaginative and playful objects are staged as embodied encounters in space and time to invoke the mutuality reciprocity and ambivalence of our object relationships Weaving a tapestry of aesthetic cultural and psychological encounters Transformative Objects and the Aesthetics of Play addresses critical relationships among Bourgeois s work and that of other artists from Pieter Brueghel to Eva Hesse It brings together practical archival and theoretical material offering close examinations of historically situated objects and analyses of their complex affects and spatiality Gathering critical perspectives from psychoanalysis cultural analysis feminist queer literary and affect studies the book extends its specific art historical scope to investigate the crucial roles that art and cultural experience assume in everyday life The Oxford Dictionary of American Art & Artists Ann Lee Morgan,2018-10-04 This new edition of The Oxford Dictionary of American Art and Artists has been fully revised and updated as well as including dozens of new entries offering an insightful and informative view of America's artistic heritage An indispensable biographical and critical guide to American art from colonial times to contemporary postmodernism this valuable resource provides readers with a wealth of factual detail and perceptive analysis of America's leading artists This new edition has been updated to include a number of entries on prevailing topics such as body art light and space Indian American art scatter art and transactional art and features many new or greatly expanded biographical entries on artists such as Ida Applebroog Guerilla Girls Peter Hujar and Shirin Neshat Morgan offers readers a wealth of authoritative information as well as well informed analysis and criticism of artists and their work Filled with fascinating historical background and penetrating insight The Oxford Dictionary of American Art and Artists is an essential resource for art lovers everywhere New Art City Jed Perl,2007-02-13 In this landmark work Jed Perl captures the excitement of a generation of legendary artists Jackson Pollack Joseph Cornell Robert Rauschenberg and Ellsworth Kelly among them who came to New York mingled in its lofts and bars and revolutionized American art In a continuously arresting narrative Perl also portrays such less well known figures as the galvanic teacher Hans Hofmann the lyric expressionist Joan Mitchell and the adventuresome realist Fairfield Porter as well the writers critics and patrons who rounded out the artists world Brilliantly describing the intellectual crosscurrents of the time as well as the genius of dozens of artists New Art City is indispensable for lovers of modern art and culture

Abstraction and the Holocaust Mark Godfrey,2007-01-01 Mark Godfrey looks closely at a series of American art and architectural projects that respond to the memory of the Holocaust He investigates how abstract artists and architects have negotiated Holocaust memory without representing the Holocaust figuratively or symbolically Critical Essays of the Seventeenth Century ... Joel Elias Spingarn,1908
