Looking For Los Angeles:

Looking for Los Angeles Charles G. Salas, Michael S. Roth, 2001 In Looking for Los Angeles 12 contributors present their responses to the world's newest major city. A variety of perspectives and approaches are covered. The text balances the importance of place with the importance of culture. Los Angeles Magazine, 1996-05 Los Angeles Magazine is a regional magazine of national stature. Our combination of award-winning feature writing, investigative reporting, service journalism, and design covers the people, lifestyle, culture, entertainment, fashion, art, and architecture and news that define Southern California. Started in the spring of 1961, Los Angeles Magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years. The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian. Los Angeles Magazine, 1996-03 Los Angeles Magazine is a regional magazine of national stature. Welter, 2025-11-18 The first English language volume to explore the work of architect Leopold Fischer and the inaugural study of his California legacy. In 1936, Leopold Fischer, 1901-1975, in exile from Nazi Germany, arrived in California where he created a small but distinct oeuvre of mostly domestic architecture. In contrast to his famous peers, Rudolph Schindler and Richard Neutra, immigrants whose Southern California buildings are frequently examined and who like Fischer studied with the modernist architect Adolf Loos, Fischer and his California structures have until now escaped the attention of architectural history. Exiled in L. A. examines Fischer's important yet overlooked contributions to Southern California architecture. As the whereabouts of Fischer's archives remain unknown Volker M Welter grounds the designer's California works in comparison with his pre-exile projects and the compositions of fellow architects in California. In the 1920s Fischer created experimental working-class housing estates in Germany that pioneered ecological construction and living practices. Comparable to their predecessors, Fischer's California buildings revolve around the functioning of the organization of a home as he defined domestic architecture in 1926. Featuring new photography and detailed architectural plans, this book is an original contribution to the literature on Southern California's built heritage.
