Justification James K. Beilby, Paul Rhodes Eddy, 2011-11-10 Therefore since we have been justified by faith we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ Rom 5 1 When Paul wrote these words he seemed confident he had made himself clear But for centuries the Pauline doctrine of justification has been a classic point of interpretation and debate in Christian exegesis and theology And while in recent decades there have been moments of hopeful convergence among the various traditions of the Western church the fine print often reveals more facets and distinctions than ever before This volume focuses on five views of justification and calls on representative proponents to set forth their case and then respond to each other The five views are Traditional Reformed Michael S Horton Progressive Reformed Michael F Bird New Perspective James D G Dunn Deification or Theosis Veli Matti K rkk inen Roman Catholic Gerald O Collins and Oliver Rafferty In addition editors James Beilby Paul R Eddy and Steven E Enderlein provide an extensive introduction to the issues informing this important debate This distinguished forum of biblical interpreters and theologians offers a lively and informative engagement with the biblical historical and contemporary understandings of justification Justification Five Views is not only a fascinating probe into Paul s meaning it is also a case book in theological method

He Who Gives Life Graham A. Cole, 2007-08-16 Often the most misunderstood and therefore ignored member of the Trinity the Holy Spirit deserves our attention and understanding God the Father and God the Son rightfully garner much explanation and exploration and God the Holy Spirit ought to be given the same studiousness curiosity and scholarship In this addition to Crossway s Foundations of Evangelical Theology series Dr Graham Cole has written a work that offers a comprehensive theology of the Holy Spirit This book shows the ultimate selflessness of the Holy Spirit as the member of the Trinity who always works for the glory of God the Father and God the Son and the good of the saints Ideal for pastors teachers and students of theology this book is a superb theology of the Holy Spirit Part of the Foundations of Evangelical Theology series

A Critical Examination of the Doctrine of Revelation in Evangelical Theology Carisa A. Ash, 2015-07-14 How God reveals himself is an important matter for Christians especially evangelicals For too long Carisa Ash contends evangelicals have rightly affirmed that God reveals through the created world but then they functionally neglect such revelation In this monograph Ash offers a corrective to this practice by presenting a theology of revelation that explores the commonalities between various forms of revelation world written and spoken word and Incarnate Word Particularly aimed at theologians interested in theological method Ash's study will also benefit people interested in faith and learning or interdisciplinary integration Ash argues that evangelicals must strive to align more closely their affirmations and their practice Her critique of current practices in theological method and integration along with the proposed theology of revelation are designed to help move the conversation forward
