Black, 2003-08-28 Confraternities were and are religious brotherhoods for lay people to promote their religious life in common Though designed to prepare for the afterlife they were fully involved in the social political and cultural life of the community and could affect all men and women as members or as the recipients of charity Confraternities organised a great range of devotional cultural and indeed artistic activities in addition to other functions such as the provision of dowries and the escort of condemned men to the scaffold Other works have studied the local activities of specific confraternities but this is the first to attempt a broad survey of such organisations across the breadth of early modern Italy Christopher Black demonstrates clearly the extent diversity and influence of confraternal behaviour and shows how such brotherhoods adapted to the religious and social crises of the sixteenth century thus illuminating current debates about Catholic Reform the Counter Reformation poverty philanthropy and social control      Leonardo Da Vinci David Alan Brown, Leonardo (da Vinci), 1998-01-01 Examines Leonardo da Vinci's beginnings as an artist and his earliest works including the Uffizi Annunciation and the Munich Madonna and Child      Painting in Renaissance Perugia Sheri Francis Shaneyfelt, 2023-05-11 This volume offers the first comprehensive study of painting in Renaissance Perugia from the late fifteenth to the mid sixteenth centuries Showcasing works by Perugino Raphael and Pintoricchio as well as less familiar artists who worked in Perugia from ca 1480 1540 Sheri Shaneyfelt traces the influence and impact of Perugino's workshop in central Italy over more than a half a century She demonstrates why Perugia which has been overlooked in modern scholarship was such a vital center for the production of early modern Italian art Shaneyfelt's study also shifts the focus away from the analysis of individual artistic creativity by highlighting the importance and significance of collaboration and workshop production in Renaissance Italy Interweaving historical and archival evidence with analyses of numerous paintings and drawings her book richly illustrated with 115 color illustrations offers many new insights into the vibrant artistic culture of early modern Perugia      Catalogues of the Berenson Library of the Harvard University Center for Italian Renaissance Studies at Villa I Tatti, Florence, Italy Berenson Library, 1972      Library Catalog of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.).
