Los Ultimos Dias De America the Last Days Of America:

Literary Culture and U.S. Imperialism John Carlos Rowe, 2000 John Carlos Rowe considered one of the most eminent and progressive critics of American literature has in recent years become instrumental in shaping the path of American studies His latest book examines literary responses to U S imperialism from the late eighteenth century to the 1940s Interpreting texts by Charles Brockden Brown Poe Melville John Rollin Ridge Twain Henry Adams Stephen Crane W E B Du Bois John Neihardt Nick Black Elk and Zora Neale Hurston Rowe argues that U S literature has a long tradition of responding critically or contributing to our imperialist ventures Following in the critical footsteps of Richard Slotkin and Edward Said Literary Culture and U S Imperialism is particularly innovative in taking account of the public and cultural response to imperialism In this sense it could not be more relevant to what is happening in the scholarship and should be vital reading for scholars and students of American literature and culture Exemplary Ambivalence in Late Nineteenth-Century Spanish America Elisabeth L. Austin, 2012-09-27 Exemplary Ambivalence fills a critical gap within studies of 19th century Spanish America as it explores the inconsistencies of exemplary texts and emphasizes the forms sources and implications of creole ideological and narrative multiplicity This interdisciplinary study examines creole writing subjectivities and ethnic fictions within the construction of national aesthetic and gendered cultural identities highlighting the dynamic relationship between exemplary discourse and readers as active interpretive agents American constitutions: The United States of America; the United Mexican States; the Argentine nation; the United States of Brazil; the United States of Venezuela International Bureau of the American Republics, José Ignacio Rodríguez, 1906

Latsploitation, Exploitation Cinemas, and Latin America Victoria Ruétalo, Dolores Tierney, 2009-05-07 Exploring the much neglected area of Latin American exploitation cinema this anthology challenges established continental and national histories and canons which often exclude exploitation cinema due to its perceived low cultural status It argues that Latin American exploitation cinema makes an important aesthetic and social contribution to the larger body of Latin American cinema often competing with Hollywood and more mainstream national cinemas in terms of popularity Football and Literature in South America David Wood, 2017-02-10 South America is a region that enjoys an unusually high profile as the origin of some of the world's greatest writers and most celebrated footballers This is the first book to undertake a systematic study of the relationship between football and literature across South America Beginning with the first football poem published in 1899 it surveys a range of texts that address key issues in the region's social and political history Drawing on a substantial corpus of short stories novels and poems each chapter considers the shifting relationship between football and literature in South America across more than a century of writing The way in which authors combine football and literature to challenge the dominant narratives of their time suggests that this sport can be seen as a recurring theme through which matters of identity nationhood race gender violence politics and aesthetics are played out This book is fascinating reading for any student scholar or serious fan of football as well as for all those interested in the relationship between sports history literature and society
