Too Much Loss: Coping with Grief Overload Alan Wolfelt, 2020-09-01 Grief overload is what you feel when you experience too many significant losses all at once in a relatively short period of time or cumulatively In addition to the deaths of loved ones such losses can also include divorce estrangement illness relocation job changes and more Our minds and hearts have enough trouble coping with a single loss so when the losses pile up the grief often seems especially chaotic and defeating The good news is that through intentional active mourning you can and will find your way back to hope and healing This compassionate guide will show you how

Coping With Loss Susan Nolen-Hoeksema, Judith Larson, Judith M. Larson, 2013-01-11 Coping With Loss describes the many ways in which people cope with the death of someone they love Most earlier books on bereavement have fallen into two categories distillations of the clinical experience of individual therapists or collections of chapters reporting the results of empirical studies Each category is valuable but has tended to serve a narrow group of readers practitioners with particular theoretical orientations or researchers in quest of the latest findings Coauthored by a leading research psychologist and an experienced therapist who specializes in bereavement education and intervention this book is different The authors weave together the strands of theory research and clinical wisdom into a seamless and readable narrative While they discuss previous work they also present new data never before published from one of the largest studies of bereaved people ever conducted the Bereavement Coping Project Unlike most studies to date which focused on only one type of bereaved group usually widows or widowers the Bereavement Coping Project examined the experiences of several different groups during the first 18 months after the death The groups included those who had lost a spouse a parent an adult sibling or a child and those who had lost their significant other to cancer or cardiovascular disease on one hand as opposed to the stigmatized disease of AIDS on the other The book begins with a critical overview of theories of bereavement succeeding chapters explore in depth the impact of specific types of loss the impact of particular coping strategies on recovery the impact of social supports and religion and the special cases of children and of people who seem to grow and change for the better after a loss A final chapter considers implications for intervention with bereaved people Each chapter is richly illuminated with real life examples throughout and ends with a section called Voices in which bereaved people describe their various attempts to cope in their own words Insightful and informative

Coping With Grieving and Loss Sandra Giddens,Owen Giddens,2002-12-15 Explains the stages of grieving and how to cope with loss and death including where to go for help Coping with Loss Susan Nolen-Hoeksema,Judith Larson,1999 Most earlier books on bereavement have fallen into two categories distillations of the clinical experience of individual therapists or collections of chapters reporting the results of empirical studies Each category is valuable but has tended to serve a narrow group of readers practitioners with particular theoretical orientations or researchers in quest of the latest findings Coauthored by a leading research psychologist and an experienced therapist who specializes in bereavement education and intervention this book is different The authors weave together the strands of theory research and clinical wisdom into a seamless and readable narrative Coping with Loss Joseph V. Palazzola,2013-07 Life is filled with many experiences that young people must cope with each day One of the most severe situations they will encounter is the death or loss of a parent relative or close friend To help teenagers cope with their grief author Joseph V Palazzola has written a workbook to help ease the pain and get youngsters through the seven stages of grief By using various learning strategies that rely on making personal connections participants can realize true understanding of the grieving process Joe is a former educator who has taught in the public schools and at college level His first wife died at a young age and he was left to raise their son Chris who was 15 at the untimely death of his mother Joe and Chris never really dealt with the loss of their loved one together They silently grieved alone They were coping but not addressing the issue of their mutual loss Six years after the death of his mother while a college student Chris was killed in an industrial accident Twenty years after the death of Chris Joe has written a workbook that will help teenagers cope with the pain of losing a loved one Joe realized how difficult it was for Chris so he wrote this workbook of activities He includes many strategies and concepts that he used in his teaching career and information he imparted to his graduate students This book will help ease the hopelessness and despair in a healthy and logical way A Detroit area native Joseph V Palazzola has retired from teaching and now resides in Vero Beach Florida This is his third book Publisher s website <http://sbpra.com/JosephVPalazzola> Spirituality and Coping with Loss

Wendy Greenstreet,2017-04-28 Spirituality and Coping with Loss End of Life Healthcare Practice describes a research study that reflects nurses experience of the nature of loss encountered in end of life care settings as well as the ways in which spirituality is a resource in coping in these situations Key findings indicate how nurses spiritual development impacts their proficiency in spiritual care These findings will be of interest to nurses and nurse educators as well as other healthcare professionals How to Cope with Grief and Loss Ronald A. Valentino,2015-12-01 No one is spared from losing the ones they love death is inevitable and so are other facets of losing Grieving is part of the healing process when one loses a loved one due to death and divorce But loss is not confined to losing the people you love people grieve over the loss of a job an opportunity loss of property due to natural disasters and loss of friends and family who moved out of town or country Losing can be devastating and it brings everyone back to reality that there are things in life that you cannot control Good and bad things happen to people and the way they are handled is the true test of one s character Here are some keys points in this book Grief How To Cope With Grief And Heal Your Grieving Heart After a Loss To Find Peace Within Yourself Once Again to help you about with regards to losing and grieving There is no right or wrong formula in dealing with grief Different strokes for different folks Some are very public while others prefer to keep their feelings to themselves There is no timetable for the grief process You can grieve for as long as it takes Nobody can tell you to stop grieving You stop grieving when you are ready Tips and advice that will help you heal your heart and overcome grief faster Your emotions will be all over the place While you are in the grieving process you will feel as if you are in a roller coaster ride due to the different kinds of emotions that you will feel Thanks and grab your copy today Loss Michael P Pierce,2016-03-11 The title and the contents page both describe what this book is about It is a self help book for health and well being It is written in an easy to understand style and the principles and fundamental advice given in this book can be applied to many different types of loss This book is designed to help the reader now or at other times in their life when they may encounter loss of some kind It would make an ideal gift for someone you care about even yourself
