Lost In Familiar Places Creating New Connections Between The Individual Society:

Lost in Familiar Places Edward R. Shapiro,A. Wesley Carr,2011 Lost in Familiar Places Edward R. Shapiro,A. Wesley Carr,1993-07-01 We live in a world of accelerating change marked by the decline of traditional forms of family community and professional life Both within families and in work places individuals feel increasingly lost unsure of the roles required of them In this book a psychoanalyst and an Anglican priest using a combination of psychoanalysis and social systems theory offer tools that allow people to create meaningful connections with one another and with the institutions within which they work and live The authors begin by discussing how life in a family prefigures and prepares the individual to participate in groups offering detailed case studies of families in therapy as illustrations They then turn to organizations describing how their consultations with an academic conference a mental hospital a law firm and a church parish helped members of these institutions to relate to one another by becoming aware of wider contexts for their experiences All the people within a group have their own subjectively felt perceptions of the environment According to Shapiro and Carr when individuals can negotiate a shared interpretation of the experience and of the purposes for which the group exists they can further their own development and that of their organizations The authors suggest how this can be accomplished They conclude with some broad speculations about the continuing importance of institutions for connecting the individual and society

Beyond the Psychoanalytic Dyad John P. Muller,2014-01-14 In this original work of psychoanalytic theory John Muller explores the formative power of signs and their impact on the mind the body and subjectivity giving special attention to work of the French psychoanalyst Jacques Lacan and the American philosopher Charles Sanders Peirce Muller explores how Lacan s way of understanding experience through three dimensions the real the imaginary and the symbolic can be useful both for thinking about cultural phenomena and for understanding the complexities involved in treating psychotic patients and develops Lacan s perspective gradually presenting it as distinctive approaches to data from a variety of sources

Group Analysis: Working with Staff, Teams and Organizations Aleksandra Novakovic,David Vincent,2019-02-12 Featuring contributions from a range of organizational contexts Group Analysis Working with Staff Teams and Organizations identifies the key features to group analytic practice as well as how different theoretical orientations such as Systemic and Tavistock Consultancy approaches can be incorporated into the process The book addresses two essential features of group analysis the exploration of unconscious dynamics in groups and the shifts of observational attention between the group as a whole the individual in the group and the group in the individual Including perspectives from both organizational consultancy and reflective practice chapters feature analysis with groups and subgroups in a range of settings including a forensic psychiatric hospital a children s hospice an Anglican religious community and the management team of a global organization Group Analysis Working with Staff Teams and Organizations is a major contribution to the developing literature on group analysis It will be of great interest to psychotherapists organizational consultants facilitators of reflective practice groups coaches trainees in these disciplines and any professionals who work with staff teams and organizations

Heroine Abuse Thomas Gaiton Marullo, 2015-10-15 Fyodor Dostoevsky's first novel Netochka Nezvanova written in 1849 remains the least studied and understood of the writer's long fiction but it was a seedbed for many topics and themes that became hallmarks of his major works Specifically Netochka Nezvanova was the first in Dostoevsky's corpus to focus on the psychology of children and the first to feature a woman in a leading and narrative role It was also the first work in Russian literature to deal with problems of the family In Heroine Abuse Thomas Marullo contends that Netochka

Nezvanova also provides a striking example of what psychologists today call codependency the ways often deviant and destructive in which individuals bond with people places and things as well as with images and ideas to cope with the vicissitudes of life Marullo shows how at age twenty eight Dostoevsky intuited and illustrated the workings of relationship addiction almost a century and a half before it became the scholarly focus of practitioners of mental health The moral monsters infernal women children adults and adult children who populate Netochka Nezvanova seek codependence in people places and things and in images ideas and ideals to satiate cravings for love dominance and control as well as to indulge in narcissism sexual perversion and other aberrant or alternative behaviors Indeed in no other work would Dostoevsky examine such phenomena as pedophilia and lesbianism with such abandon Racing from tie to tie bond to bond and caught in a debilitating loop that they claim to detest but sadomasochistically enjoy the characters in Netochka Nezvanova wreak havoc on themselves and the world They do so moreover with impunity their addictions moving them from momentary exultation as self styled extraordinary men and women through prolonged darkness and despair and once again to old and new addictions for physical and emotional release Readers of Heroine Abuse will see Netochka Nezvanova as a timeless model in depicting codependency in the world of the twenty first century as it did in St Petersburg in 1849 Marullo s original work will appeal to scholars and students of Russian and comparative fiction to doctors psychologists and therapists to laymen and women interested in relationship addiction and finally to codependents and relationship addicts of all types

Sitting on a Suitcase Halina Brunning,Olya Khaleelee,2025-03-27 Sitting on a Suitcase Psychoanalytic Stories contains eighteen moving tales of disparate Jewish lives from Eliat Aram Leslie B Brissett Louisa Diana Brunner Halina Brunning Leila Djemal Shmuel Erlich Mira Erlich Ginor Franca Fubini Stan Gold Larry Hirschhorn Susan Kahn Alicia E Kaufmann Olya Khaleelee James Krantz Vega Zagier Roberts Edward R Shapiro Mannie Sher and Marlene Spero The book begins with a thought provoking preface from former Archbishop of Canterbury Rowan Williams and ends with a sensitive epilogue from Rabbi Jonathan Wittenberg both providing societal containment for what comes between them The contents also include two non Jewish German writers Claudia Nagel and Dorothee von Tippelskirch Eissing who between them provide a bravely honest introduction and conclusions to the stories contained within Also contained within the book are black and white photographs of the contributors young selves that provide an additional evocative layer to the words contained within Plus four black and white line drawings to illustrate each of the four parts of the book Orthodox beginnings Sitting on the boundary Marginality and belonging Emigration and identity and Will history repeat itself This was not an easy book for its authors to write revisiting the past unlocked painful memories and re awoke fears of persecution The manuscript was nearing completion when Hamas attacked a kibbutzim on October 7 2023 and the war in Gaza followed Incidents of anti Semitism increased worldwide and questions were raised whether the book should be held back However its themes became more relevant than ever and these stories need to be read Themes such as issues around having a voice or finding a voice during formative years finding a family through friends a sense of not belonging because of constant relocation or finding a sense of belonging through family and friends Aspects of life that resonate with us all alongside the deeper theme of the impact of Jewish identity on every facet of life This is a book full of emotion and meaning that needs to be read by all with an interest in humanity and fostering connection and understanding across nations Embracing Organisational Development and Change Antonie van Nistelrooij,2020-11-02

This book focuses on human behavioural processes and describes them from an interdisciplinary perspective It introduces readers to the main theories and approaches in the field of organisational development and change ODC and discusses their relevance and purpose with a clear focus on improving how readers perceive and handle change The book is tailor made for business students without any background in the humanities helping them to conceptualise organisational development and change and to practically organise interventions to increase organisational effectiveness The book s goal is to help future managers and consultants recognise and handle the full situation which includes purposes people and relationships Furthermore it elaborates on those theories and instruments that can deliver real benefits to real people working in real fuzzy and complex circumstances and includes several practical cases focusing on the role of the interventionist The Evolution of the Unconscious Susan Long,2025-02-12

Drawing on over four decades of professional and academic experience Susan Long explores how the concept of the unconscious has evolved from the nineteenth to the twenty first century showing that it is more than an individual phenomenon but also a group organisational and institutional phenomena Each chapter examines theories that use the idea of the unconscious first covering the work of Schelling Freud Bion and Lacan After examining traditional psychoanalytic ethos the author takes a look at the mid twentieth century extension of the meaning of the unconscious towards the social field Here she explores three main traditional categories of approaches the Neo Freudians the Frankfurt School and social scientists historians and anthropologists The book also covers the idea of approaching the unconscious from the perspective of the neurosciences as well as its connections with nature showing a broader more cosmic view of the unconscious in nature and the universe Lastly Long looks at how we might understand today s organisations and society through the lens of the changing ideas presented throughout the book Broad sweeping and accessible this book is a valuable resource for organisational psychologists consultants and managers exploring psychoanalytic and socioanalytic approaches as well as those in academic settings wanting to pursue an interest in the unconscious
