The Spirituality of the Igbo People of Nigeria as an Example of Religious Modernization in a Global World Henry CHUKWUDI OKEKE,2020-02-18 If there is no religion in the world the world would more or less become a jungle The world will be inhuman Religion touches all aspects of human life Identifying God s will in our world today has become a major problem for many religions of the world In the past in Igbo Traditional Religion human sacrifice as well as the killing of twins were practised For the Igbo traditionalists then that was the will of the deities and equally not against God s will But following the encounter of Igbo Traditional Religion with Christianity these are no longer practised Misinterpretation of God s will by some religions of the world has given rise to religious violence religious extremism fanaticism and terrorism we are experiencing today in the world For these problems to be resolved it is pertinent that the study of various religions be taken seriously This study should be aiming at better understanding co existence respect for one another and frequent inter religious dialogues among the various religions of the world When this is achieved the believers of various religions would realize that many are worshipping one God and their desire is to communicate with Him although they may approach Him differently Life in Southern Nigeria Percy Amaury Talbot,2013-10-08 This work describes the beliefs customs and

Healing Insanity: a Study of Igbo Medicine in Contemporary Nigeria

Patrick E. Iroegbu, 2010-06-08 Healing Insanity A Study of Igbo Medicine in Contemporary Nigeria is an original and in depth study on endogenous medical system in an African society. It is craftily written and provides solid insight through case studies and theory into how insanity affects patients and the society. Particularly it explores various collective representations and strategies regarding insanity and healing as it examines the healing institutions, healers and ritual cults. The central question is: given the patterns of healing, how do the Igbo shape the incidence and symptoms of insanity, define its aetiology and provide healers with culture specific resources and skills to address this illness? The focus became increasingly centred on bodily semantics and endogenous knowledge systems and practices. Dr Patrick Iroegbu's work is a very valuable and rare study and has appeared at a desirable time. It is for an African society a comprehensive study of the many ways Igbo people in their practical, routine-like attitudes and body-centred experiences as well as in their more reflective aetiological knowledge and healing institutions relate to the phenomenon of insanity or ara in the cultural parlance. As the first of its kind, reminiscent of and assured by the various remarks of Igbo scholars and leaders at various meetings and discourses, the task this work has set out to accomplish is a very brave one. The author's account of his fieldwork experiences and adopted techniques illustrates his initiation, revealing him as a genuine ethnographer who is a friend of people and at ease with his field. With both the far seeing and inspiring analysis of Igbo medicine, life and culture accounted for in the work, the book stands out for ethnographers, teachers, students, leaders, policymakers and the general public. This is a book that deserves to be read as it shapes the critical path toward understanding ways of healing insanity in a culture specific context, crosscutting perspectives for a relationship between indigenous healing and the biomedical sphere. Prof Ren Devisch, Africa Research Centre, University of Leuven. This book is written with a clear purpose for everyone to read to understand and heal insanity and indeed provides a thick piece of cultural philosophy and vernacular of Igbo medicine in hopes of putting cultural wisdom in pursuit of integral health care development. Prof Pantaleon Iroegbu, Professor of Philosophy, Major Seminary, Ekpoma, January 2006. To read this book as I did is to get the benefit of Dr Patrick Iroegbu's ethnographic insight for an archetypical African healing system in Igbo land. It offers a fascinating theory of symbolic release that speaks of African symbolic action and knowledge system. Dr Paul Komba Esq, University of Cambridge. Daybreak in the Dark Continent Wilson Samuel Naylor, 1912 The Academy, 1907.

Academy and Literature Charles Edward Cutts, Birch Appleton, Charles Edward Doble, James Sutherland Cotton, Charles Lewis Hind, William Teignmouth Shore, Alfred Bruce Douglas, Ellis Ashmead-Bartlett, Thomas William Hodgson Crosland, 1907. Bibliography of Nigeria Nduntuei O. Ita, 2019-05-23. First published in 1971, this major bibliography devoted to Africa's most populous country, Nigeria, is therefore a timely contribution which must be welcomed by all. The Bibliography of Nigeria contains over 5,400 entries in archaeology, all branches of anthropology, linguistic and relevant historical and sociological studies. Many of the entries carry indicative or informative annotations which have greatly enhanced the usefulness of the work The history and culture of Africa constitutes a rich area of study and research which is attracting an ever increasing number of scholars the world over The new impetus which African studies is receiving in the major centre of learning today has added urgency to the long neglected problem of bibliographical control of the vast literature The dearth of bibliographies in the field of African studies has been a main source of frustration to all those working in this area The book is divided into two parts part one deals with Nigeria as a whole and lists general works or those concerned with several regions or several ethnic groups Part two is devoted to the various ethnic groups An analytical table of contents a comprehensive ethnic index an author index and an index of Islamic studies together with generous cross referencing ensure ready and easy location of individual entries
