Hirst, 1977-03-01 Mode of Production and Social Formation, 1978 A Critique of Postcolonial Reason Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak, 1999-06-28 Are the culture wars over When did they begin What is their relationship to gender struggle and the dynamics of class In her first full treatment of postcolonial studies a field that she helped define Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak one of the world's foremost literary theorists poses these questions from within the postcolonial enclave The Female Body and the Law Zillah R. Eisenstein, 2024-06-04 The Female Body and the Law provides an original and incisive reexamination of the dynamics of sexual equality Eisenstein contends that sexual inequality is fostered both by the law and by the insistence that men and women are biologically different Through a fascinating discussion of a series of issues including affirmative action AIDS Baby M pornography and abortion Eisenstein shows how the law operates as a political language that establishes and curtails choices and actions This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1990 Hegemony Now Alex Williams, Jeremy Gilbert, 2022-08-30 Today power is in the hands of Wall Street and Silicon Valley How do we understand this transformation in power And what can we do about it We cannot change anything until we have a better understanding of how power works who holds it and why that matters Through upgrading the concept of hegemony understanding the importance of passive consent the complexity of political interests and the structural force of technology Jeremy Gilbert and Alex Williams offer us an updated theory of power for the twenty first century Hegemony Now explores how these forces came to control our world The authors show how they have shaped the direction of politics and government as well as the neoliberal economy to benefit their own interests However this dominance is under threat Following the 2008 financial crisis a new order emerged in which the digital platform is the central new technology of both production and power This offers new opportunities for counter hegemonic strategies to win back power Hegemony Now outlines a dynamic socialist strategy for the twenty first century Contemporary Sociological Theory Steven Loyal, Sinisa Malesevic, 2020-10-12 Introducing you to the most important thinkers and schools of thought in contemporary sociological theory from Parsons and Merton to the Frankfurt School to Foucault Bourdieu Giddens and Hochschild this accessible textbook firmly locates key ideas in social political and historical context By doing so it helps you to understand the development of central sociological concepts and how they can help us understand the contemporary world The book includes Lively biographical sections so you can get to know each thinker Clear and easy to understand accounts of each theorist's arguments and the most common criticisms Key concept boxes highlighting the most influential ideas This comprehensive textbook brings the diverse field of contemporary sociological theory to life Essential reading for all students of Sociology and Sociological Theory Marxism and the Interpretation of Culture Cary Nelson, Lawrence Grossberg, 1988 This title provides a picture of the state of Marxist thinking It aims to provoke a debate that will be of interest to those concerned with the status and development of Marxism and also to theorists in all fields of the human sciences History and Theory in Anthropology Alan Barnard, 2021-12-16 An updated and expanded edition of Barnard's classic overview of the history and theory of anthropology Marxism and Historical Practice (Vol. I) Bryan D. Palmer, 2015-09-01 The two volumes of Marxism and Historical Practice bring together essays written by one of the major Marxist historians of the last fifty years The pieces collected in Volume I Interpretive Essays on Class Formation and Class Struggle offer a stimulating empirically grounded survey of North American collective behaviour popular mobilizations and social struggles ranging from a rich discussion of ritualistic protest like the charivari through the rise of the Knights of Labor in the 1880s to campaigns against neoliberal labour reform in British Columbia in the early 1980s What emerges is Palmer's sustained reflection on long standing interpretive historical problems of class formation the dynamics of social change and how popular social movements arise and relate to law the state and existing cultural contexts Torn Halves Robert Young, 1996 What is the relation of politics to theory Theories make political claims theorists make political critiques and academics use theory in the pursuit of institutional ends theory is not only about politics but is itself a political practice

Arresting Development Craig Johnson, 2008-11-28 Scholars have become increasingly concerned about the impact of neo liberalism on the field of development Governments around the world have for some time been exposed to the forces of globalization and macro economic reform reflecting the power and influence of the world's principal international economic institutions and a broader commitment to the principles of neo classical economics and free trade Concerns have also been raised that neo classical theory now dominates the ways in which scholars frame and ask their questions in the field of development This book is about the ways in which ideologies shape the construction of knowledge for development A central theme concerns the impact of neo liberalism on contemporary development theory and research The book's main objectives are twofold One is to understand the ways in which neo liberalism has framed and defined the meta theoretical aims and assumptions of what is deemed relevant important and appropriate to the study of development A second is to explore the theoretical and ideological terms on which an alternative to neo classical theory may be theorized idealized and pursued By tracing the impact of Marxism postmodernism and liberalism on the study of development Arresting Development contends that development has become increasingly fragmented in terms of the theories and methodologies it uses to understand and explain complex and contextually specific processes of economic development and social change Outside of neo classical economics and related fields of rational choice the notion that social science can or should aim to develop general and predictive theories about development has become mired in a philosophical and political orientation that questions the ability of scholars to make universal or comparative statements about the nature of history cultural diversity and progress To advance the debate a case is made that development needs to re capture what the American sociologist Peter Evans once called the comparative institutional method At the heart of this approach is an inductive methodology that searches for commonalities and connections to broader historical trends and problems while at the same time incorporating divergent and potentially competing views about the nature of history culture and development This book will be of interest to scholars and students of Development Social and Political Studies and it will also be beneficial to professionals interested in the challenge of constructing knowledge for development
