Monument Art Vulgarly Responsibility:

The Monument Kanan Makiya, 2003-12-31 In Baghdad an enormous monument nearly twice the size of the Arc de Triomphe towers over the city Two huge forearms emerge from the ground clutching two swords that clash overhead Those arms are enlarged casts of those of Saddam Hussein showing every bump and follicle The Victory Arch celebrates a victory over Iran in their eight year long war that never happened This text is a study of the interplay between art and politics of how culture normally an unquestioned good can play into the hands of a power with devastating effects Kanan Makiya uses the culture invented by Saddam Hussein as a window into the nature of totalitarianism and shows how art can become the weapon of dictatorship Under Saddam Hussein culture connived in his evil this text explains how It should be useful reading for anyone concerned with the power of culture and the culture of power The Monument Samir Al-Khalil, Samir Khalil, Kanan Makiya, 1991

Public Monuments Sergiusz Michalski, 2013-06-01 Public monuments to significant individuals or to political concepts are all too familiar But the notions underlying them are not so obvious Sergiusz Michalski traces the history of the public monument from the 1870s when erecting them became an artistic political and social pre occupation to today when the distinction between public monuments and public sculpture is increasingly blurred The author shows how in its golden age up until 1914 the public monument served the purpose of both education and legitimization The French Third Republic for example envisaged the monument as a symbol of bourgeois meritocracy In more recent decades the public monument has been charged with the task of commemorating and symbolizing one of humankind's most terrible catastrophes the Holocaust Today although the artistic failure of countless European war memorials has signaled the beginning of the demise of the public monument in the West it continues to flourish elsewhere commemorating despotic leaders from Kim Il Sung to Saddam Hussein

The Reckoning Sandra Mackey, 2003 Saddam Hussein is high on America's enemies list but does an Iraq without him hold the seeds of the next Yugoslavia To the dismay of many in the West the Gulf War ended with Saddam Hussein still in control still defiant and determined to use any means of striking back This book sounds an urgent note of caution a future Iraq without Hussein could be even more unstable and more problematical to the security of the United States The Reckoning is an account of the forces historical religious ethnic and political that produced Saddam's dictatorship Forged after World War I from the Mesopotamian region of the collapsed Ottoman Empire Iraq's people have never had a national identity or a sense of common purpose Hussein ruling by terror rather than persuasion has pitted the various ethnic groups religious interests and tribes against each other and in so doing achieved the destruction of Iraq's middle class and civilized society After he goes however he goes the country could be the site of conflict even more vicious than the Balkan wars

The Mourner's Song James Tatum,2018-10-30 No matter when or where they are fought all wars have one thing in common a relentless progression to monuments and memorials for the dead Likewise all art made from war begins and ends in mourning and remembrance In The Mourner s Song James Tatum offers incisive discussions of physical and literary memorials constructed in the wake of war from the Vietnam Veterans Memorial to the writings of Stephen Crane Edmund Wilson Tim O Brien and Robert Lowell Tatum s touchstone throughout is the Iliad not just one of the earliest war poems but also one of the most powerful examples of the way poetry can be a tribute to and consolation for what is lost in war Reading the Iliad alongside later works inspired by war Tatum reveals how the forms and processes of art convert mourning to memorial He examines the role of remembrance and the distance from war it requires the significance of landscape in memorialization the artifacts of war that fire the imagination the intimate relationship between war and love and its effects on the ferocity with which soldiers wage battle and finally the idea of memorialization itself Because all survivors suffer the losses of war Tatum s is a story of both victims and victors commanders and soldiers women and men Photographs of war memorials in Vietnam France and the United States beautifully augment his testimonials Eloquent and deeply moving The Mourner s Song will speak to anyone interested in the literature of war and the relevance of the classics to our most pressing

Gold, George Revill, 2014-09-15 This is a key text on the very topical themes of power defence and space Landscapes of Defence is an exciting collection of theoretical and empirical material from very well known contributors designed to help students understand how landscapes of defence fit in with some of the broader concepts of space power and place to which they are introduced in the 1st year The book is split into four sections and each section contains an introduction placing the subsequent chapters in context There is also a comprehensive introduction and afterword to tie the book s broad themes together 2nd and 3rd year undergraduates in urban and cultural geography will be the key market for this title as well as strong secondary market in departments of Sociology Anthropology Law and Planning Unburied Memories: The Politics of Bodies of Sacred Defense Martyrs in Iran Pedram Khosronejad, 2013-09-13 Today almost a generation has passed since the Iran Iraq war and the memory of it is set to diminish with each passing generation The following questions emerge Can we say that the gradual disappearance of war s memory means that increasingly Iranians will see the Iran Iraq war solely as an historical event How can we defend or reject this idea Today with which elements and values should we look at the Iran Iraq war memorials and ceremonies To what extent will war museums and materials culture be influenced by these new values In the period during and immediately after the Iran Iraq war 1980 88 national bereavement and commemoration of martyrs was neither apparent in common state policy nor a social need Even at the turn of the 21st century anyone walking through Iranian cities many of which had been the main scene of the bloody massacre and direct targets of the Iraqi Republican Guard will have found traces of the terrible almost unimaginable human losses However today s Iranians can see modern war memorials and monuments in many parts of the urban and rural landscape Yet at the same time the changing landscape has separated Iranians from such remnants of the violence It can be argued that many people in their wish to look forward to a more hopeful future do not wish to be reminded of this period in Iranian history This book was originally published as a special issue of Visual Anthropology
