John Hollander

Mooring Of Starting Out:

The Mooring Of Starting Out John Ashbery, 1998-11-01 Most critics would agree that John Ashbery is one of 20th century American poetry's finest voices Perhaps his most admired book is Self Portrait in a Convex Mirror a culmination of themes styles and forms with which the poet experimented over the course of two decades Now the poet's devoted readers can trace his development through the first five books of his poetry collected here in one handy volume The Mooring of Starting Out represents Ashbery's work from 1956 through 1972 comprising Some Trees his first book The Tennis Court Oath written while he was living in Paris

The Mooring of Starting Out John Ashbery, 1997-01-01 To mark John Ashbery's 70th birthday Carcanet publish his first five books of poems in a single volume The Tennis Court Oath 1962 Same Trees 1956 Rivers and Mountains 1966 The Double Dream of Spring 1970 and Three Poems 1972

I Am Otherwise Alex E. Blazer, 2007 I Am Otherwise The Romance between Poetry and Theory after the Death of the Subject examines the contemporary poet's relationship with language in the age of theory As the book works through close readings and interpretations of Adrienne Rich and Harold Bloom John Ashbery and Paul de Man Jorie Graham and Maurice Blanchot and Barrett Watten and Jacques Lacan it shows how the main psychological modes of contemporary poetry and the postmodern poet are anxiety irony abjection and destitution The book ultimately concludes that the new theoretical poetry self consciously renders the effect of critical theory in its own construction Whereas poets of the past tarried with nature self or philosophy poets of our time unite lyric feeling with literary theory itself

Music's Making Michael Cherlin, 2024-07-01 A personal voyage of discovery drawing on musicology literary theory Jewish studies and philosophical phenomenology As a work of musical theory or meta theory Music's Making draws extensively on work done in philosophy and literary criticism in addition to the scholarship of musicologists and music theorists Music's Making is divided into two large parts The first half develops global attitudes toward music emergence out of self and hearing through drawing on Kabbalah and other sources middle voice as discussed in philosophical phenomenology liminal space as discussed in literary theory an ethics of intersubjectivity drawing on Levinas and character canon and metaleptic transformations drawing chiefly on Harold Bloom The second half embodies a search for metaphors figurative language toward understanding music's endlessly variegated shaping of time space The musicians and scholars who inform this part of the book include Pierre Boulez Gilles Deleuze Anton Webern Morton Feldman and James Dillon The book closes with an extended inquiry into the metaphors of horizontal and vertical experience and the spiritual qualities of musical experience expressed through those metaphors

American Writers in Europe F. Asya, 2013-10-03 These essays explore the impartial critical outlook American writers acquired through their experiences in Europe since 1850 Collectively contributors reveal how the American writer's intuitive sense of freedom coupled with their feeling of liberation from European influences led to intellectual independence in the literary works they produced

Theory into Poetry, 2022-05-20 At the beginning of the 21st century there is still no generally accepted comprehensive definition of the lyric or differentiated modern toolkit for its analysis The reception of poetry is largely characterised either by an empathetic identification of critics with the lyric persona or by exclusive interest in formal patterning The present volume seeks to remedy this deficit All the contributors theorise the lyric to overcome the impasse of an impressionistic and narrowly formalistic critical debate on the genre Their papers focus on a variety of different questions the problem of establishing a framework for definition and classification the search for dynamic and potent critical approaches investigations of poetry's cultural performance and its fundamental relevance for the construction of group cohesion The essays collected in this volume offer a consciously polyphonic range of theories and interpretations suggesting to the reader a variety of theoretical frameworks and practical illustrations of how a discussion of poetry may be firmly grounded in modern literary theory

The Work of Art in the Age of Deindustrialization Jasper Bernes, 2017-05-16 A novel account of the relationship between postindustrial capitalism and postmodern culture this book looks at American poetry and art of the last fifty years in light of the massive changes in people's working lives Over the last few decades we have seen the shift from an economy based on the production of goods to one based on the provision of services the entry of large numbers of women into the workforce and the emergence of new digital technologies that have transformed the way people work The Work of Art in the Age of Deindustrialization argues that art and literature not only reflected the transformation of the workplace but anticipated and may have contributed to it as well providing some of the terms through which resistance to labor was expressed As firms continue to tout creativity and to reorganize in response to this resistance they increasingly rely on models of labor that derive from values and ideas found in the experimental poetry and conceptual art of decades past

The Work of Poetry John Hollander, 1997 The Work of Poetry is organized into three parts Poetic Substance explores the nature of poetry and the poet with essays that cover the poet being and feeling at home in his or her work and the parallels between dreams and poetry The Wallflower Avant-Garde Brian Glavey, 2015-11-02 The Wallflower Avant Garde highlights a strain of formalism visible in both modernist literature and contemporary queer studies drawing attention to an aesthetic that is as quiet and quirky as it is queer In studies of Gertrude Stein Djuna Barnes Richard Bruce Nugent Frank O'Hara and John Ashbery Brian Glavey argues for a recalibrated understanding of the relation between sexuality and the aesthetic revealing a non oppositional avant gardism that opts out of some of the binaristic imperatives that have structured recent debates in queer theory Refusing to decide between positive and negative affects or to side with either utopian or antisocial ambitions The Wallflower Avant Garde explores models of reading and writing about art that remain flexible enough to dig deep even as they gloss the surface At the heart of this argument is a revaluation of modernist ekphrasis a mode understood as literature's imitation or description of the visual arts From the well wrought urns of the New Critics onward ekphrasis has figured prominently in the legacy of modernist literary criticism but a tendency to read its complicated modes of relationality in terms of either autonomy or antagonism has obscured the forms of creative failure and imitation embodied in the desire to confuse poetry for pottery Attending to mimetic and descriptive strategies without dismissing the aspirations for wholeness and closure that often animate them allows for the recognition that queerness and modernism are intertwined in unexpected and unpredictable ways revealing new insights into the varieties of abstraction preterition and spatial form that stand behind modernism s investment in the aesthetic Museum Mediations Barbara K.

Fisher,2006-01-24 This interdisciplinary study participates in the ongoing critical conversation about postwar American poetry and visual culture while advancing that field into the arena of the museum Turning to contemporary poems about the visual arts that foreground and interrogate a museum setting the book demonstrates the particular importance of the museum as a cultural site that is both inspiration and provocation for poets The study uniquely bridges the dual canon in contemporary poetry and calls the lyric avant garde distinction into question by analyzing museum sponsored anthologies as well as poems by John Ashbery Richard Howard Kenneth Koch Kathleen Fraser Cole Swensen Anne Carson and others Through these case studies of poets with diverse affiliations the author shows that the boom in ekphrasis in the past 20 years is not only an aesthetic but a critical phenomenon a way that poets have come to terms with the critical dilemmas of our moment Highlighting the importance of poets peripheral vision awareness of the institutional conditions that frame encounters with art the author contend that a museum visit becomes a forum for questioning oppositions that have preoccupied literary criticism for the past 50 years homage and innovation modernism and postmodernism subjectivity and collectivity The study shows that ekphrasis becomes a strategy for negotiating these impasses a mode of political inquiry a meditation on canonization a venue for comic appraisal of institutionalization and a means of site specific feminist revision in a vital synthesis of critique perspicacity and pleasure EPZ Deconstruction and Criticism Harold Bloom,2004-12-23

Five essential and challenging essays by leading post modern theorists on the art and nature of interpretation Jacques Derrida Harold Bloom Geoffrey Hartman Paul de Man and J Hillis Miller The New York School Poets and the Neo-Avant-Garde Mark Silverberg,2016-02-17 New York City was the site of a remarkable cultural and artistic renaissance during the 1950s and 60s In the first monograph to treat all five major poets of the New York School John Ashbery Barbara Guest Kenneth Koch Frank O Hara and James Schuyler Mark Silverberg examines this rich period of cross fertilization between the arts Silverberg uses the term neo avant garde to describe New York School Poetry Pop Art Conceptual Art Happenings and other movements intended to revive and revise the achievements of the historical avant garde while remaining keenly aware of the new problems facing avant gardists in the age of late capitalism Silverberg highlights the family resemblances among the New York School poets identifying the aesthetic concerns and ideological assumptions they shared with one another and with artists from the visual and performing arts A unique feature of the book is Silverberg s annotated catalogue of collaborative works by the five poets and other artists To comprehend the coherence of the New York School Silverberg demonstrates one must understand their shared commitment to a reconceptualized idea of the avant garde specific to the United States in the 1950s and 60s when the adversary culture of the Beats was being appropriated and repackaged as popular culture Silverberg's detailed analysis of the strategies the New York School poets used to confront the problem of appropriation tells us much about the politics of taste and gender during the period and suggests new ways of understanding succeeding generations of artists and poets The Contemporary Narrative Poem Steven P.

Schneider, 2012-12-15 Over the past thirty years narrative poems have made a comeback against the lyric approach to poetry that has dominated the past century Drawing on a decade of conferences and critical seminars on the topic The Contemporary Narrative Poem examines this resurgence of narrative and the cultural and literary forces motivating it Gathering ten essays from poet critics who write from a wide range of perspectives and address a wide range of works the collection transcends narrow conceptions of narrative antinarrative and metanarrative The authors ask several questions What formal strategies do recent narrative poems take What social cultural and epistemological issues are raised in such poems How do contemporary narrative poems differ from modernist narrative poems In what ways has history been incorporated into the recent narrative poetry How have poets used the lyric within narrative poems How do experimental poets redefine narrative itself through their work And what role does consciousness play in the contemporary narrative poem The answers they supply will engage every poet and student of poetry Modernist Poetry and the Limitations of

Materialist Theory Charles Altieri, 2021-06-15 In Modernist Poetry and the Limitations of Materialist Theory Charles Altieri skillfully dissects the benefits and limitations of Materialist theory for works of art He argues that while Materialist theory can intensify our awareness of how art can foreground sensual dimensions of experience it does not yet serve as an adequate description of much of what we experience as mental activity especially in the domain of art which depends on active imaginations and constructive energies for which no Materialist theory is yet adequate He carefully shows how constructive imaginations operate in a range of modernist poetry that is especially attentive to the mind's powers because it provides alternatives to Impressionist sensibilities which thrive on Materialist modes of attention These modernists turned to versions of Hegel's idea of the inner sensuousness stressing how a work's very construction can provide different levels of sensuousness inseparable from the work of self-consciousness Pastoral, Pragmatism, and Twentieth-Century

American Poetry A. Mikkelsen, 2011-01-31 In the first expansive study of American pastoral since Leo Marx's The Machine in the Garden Mikkelsen reinvigorates discussion of this literary mode as a form of cultural commentary whose subjects extend beyond the simple or rustic life to encompass the major social economic and political transformations of the past century Changing Subjects Srikanth Reddy, 2012-07-12 Theoretical accounts of modern American poetry often regard literary texts as the expression of a subjectivity irremediably fractured by the dividing practices of power In Changing Subjects Srikanth Reddy seeks to redress our critical bias toward a fatalistic poetics of rupture and fragmentation by foregrounding a fluent tradition of writers from Walt Whitman to John Ashbery who explore digression rather than disjunction as a rhetorical strategy for the making of modern poetry Mapping the ramifying topography of literary digression Changing Subjects offers a wide ranging anatomy of the excursus within twentieth century American poetics Moving from aesthetics to the archive to narratology to figures of identity Reddy considers various spheres in which American writers revisit and revise our models of purposeful discourse by cultivating a poetics of digression in modern literature In new readings of authors such as Wallace Stevens Marianne Moore Frank O Hara and Lyn Hejinian this study proposes that changing the subject offers a digressive method for negotiating the vexing complexities of art knowledge history and subjectivity under the curious conditions of modernity The book concludes with a survey of Elliptical strategies employed by a new generation of poets writing in the wake of John Ashbery s aleatory craft who seek to extend the digressive project of American poetry into the twenty first century Fundamentals Of Sailing Cruising And Racing Revised And Expanded Stephen Colgate,1996-03-05 Removes the mystery of sailing and reduces sailing techniques to basic simple principles

Purgatorio Dante Alighieri,2021-07-13 The second installment in Mary Jo Bang s exhilarating innovative translation of Dante s The Divine Comedy Award winning poet Mary Jo Bang s new translation of Purgatorio is the extraordinary continuation of her journey with Dante which began with her transformative version of Inferno In Purgatorio still guided by the Roman poet Virgil Dante emerges from the horrors of Hell to begin the climb up Mount Purgatory a seven terrace mountain with each level devoted to those atoning for one of the seven deadly sins At the summit we find the Terrestrial Heaven and Beatrice who will take over for Virgil who as a pagan can only take Dante so far During the climb we are introduced to the myriad ways in which humans destroy the social fabric through pride envy and vindictive anger In her signature lyric style accompanied by her wise and exuberant notes Bang has produced a stunning translation of this fourteenth century text rich with references that span time languages and cultures The contemporary allusions echo the audacious character of the original and slyly insist that whatever was true in Dante s era is still true Usain Bolt Tootsie Fruit Chews the MGM logo Leo the Lion Amy Winehouse Marvin Gaye Bob Dylan and Gertrude Stein are among those who make cameo appearances as Bang with eloquence and daring shepherds The Divine Comedy into the twenty first century

Beautiful Enemies Andrew Epstein,2006-09-21 Although it has long been commonplace to imagine the archetypal American poet singing a solitary Song of Myself much of the most enduring American poetry has actually been preoccupied with the drama of friendship In this lucid and absorbing study Andrew Epstein argues that an obsession with both the pleasures and problems of friendship erupts in the New American Poetry that emerges after the Second World War By focusing on some of the most significant postmodernist American poets the New York School poets John Ashbery Frank O Hara and their close contemporary Amiri Baraka Beautiful Enemies reveals a fundamental paradox at the heart of postwar American poetry and culture the avant garde s commitment to individualism and nonconformity runs directly counter to its own valorization of community and collaboration In fact Epstein demonstrates that the clash between friendship and nonconformity complicates the legendary alliances forged by postwar poets becomes a predominant theme in the poetry they created and leaves contemporary writers with a complicated legacy to negotiate Rather than simply celebrating friendship and poetic community as nurturing and inspiring these poets represent friendship as a kind of exhilarating maddening contradiction a site of attraction and repulsion affinity and rivalry Challenging both the reductive critiques of American individualism and the idealized heavily biographical celebrations of literary camaraderie one finds in much critical discussion this book provides a new interpretation of the peculiar dynamics of American avant garde poetic communities and the role of the individual within them By situating his extensive and revealing readings of these highly influential poets against the backdrop of Cold War cultural politics and within the context of American pragmatist thought Epstein uncovers the collision between radical self reliance and the siren call of the interpersonal at the core of postwar American poetry Living on a Boat Paul Clevett, 2005-12 A book written by a United Kingdom liveaboard family covering topics such as The Lifestyle Getting Started buying a boat New or Used Things to look for when buying a boat What type of boat Is it a cheaper way to live Moorings and how to find one Paperwork and Legal Documents Internet Access on a Boat Electricity Wind Generators Solar Panels Electrical General Hints Gas Water Boat Trips What people think of you Children on a Boat Toilets I d rather have an elsan than a mortgage Maintenance Isn t it cold on a boat or heating systems What about a postal address Healthcare Doctors and Schools Animals on Boats Driving a boat How to Turn Round Reversing and more
