David G. Mandelbaum,2022-07-12 Hindus and Muslims of northern South Asia share the belief that women should seclude themselves from men and that men must supervise the conduct of women so that their behavior will not sully men s honor While these practices are well known until now no book has attempted to explain why they are so crucially important to so many people The Oxford Handbook of Virtue Nancy E. Snow,2018 The late twentieth and early twenty first centuries have seen a renaissance in the study of virtue a topic that has prevailed in philosophical work since the time of Aristotle Several major developments have conspired to mark this new age Foremost among them some argue is the birth of virtue ethics an approach to ethics that focuses on virtue in place of consequentialism the view that normative properties depend only on consequences or deontology the study of what we have a moral duty to do The emergence of new virtue theories also marks this new wave of work on virtue Put simply these are theories about what virtue is and they include Kantian and utilitarian virtue theories Concurrently virtue ethics is being applied to other fields where it hasn t been used before including bioethics and education In addition to these developments the study of virtue in epistemological theories has become increasingly widespread to the point that it has spawned a subfield known as virtue epistemology This volume therefore provides a representative overview of philosophical work on virtue It is divided into seven parts conceptualizations of virtue historical and religious accounts contemporary virtue ethics and theories of virtue central concepts and issues critical examinations applied virtue ethics and virtue epistemology Forty two chapters by distinguished scholars offer insights and directions for further research In addition to philosophy authors also deal with virtues in non western philosophical traditions religion and psychological perspectives on virtue Poverty and the Quest for Life Bhargupati Singh,2015-04-06

The Indian subdistrict of Shahabad located in the dwindling forests of the southeastern tip of Rajasthan is an area of extreme poverty Beset by droughts and food shortages in recent years it is the home of the Sahariyas former bonded laborers officially classified as Rajasthan s only primitive tribe From afar we might consider this the bleakest of the bleak but in

Poverty and the Quest for Life Bhrigupati Singh asks us to reconsider just what quality of life means He shows how the Sahariyas conceive of aspiration advancement and vitality in both material and spiritual terms and how such bridging can engender new possibilities of life Singh organizes his study around two themes power and ethics through which he explores a complex terrain of material and spiritual forces Authority remains contested whether in divine or human forms the state is both despised and desired high and low castes negotiate new ways of living together in conflict but also cooperation new gods move across rival social groups animals and plants leave their tracks on human subjectivity and religiosity and the potential for vitality persists even as natural resources steadily disappear Studying this milieu Singh offers new ways of thinking beyond the religion secularism and nature culture dichotomies juxtaposing questions about quality of life with political theologies of sovereignty neighborliness and ethics in the process painting a rich portrait of perseverance and fragility in contemporary rural India

The Comparative Perspective Andrea Ercolani,Manuela Giordano,2016-03-21 The book is the third and concluding part of the investigation on Submerged literature in ancient Greece and beyond The book expands the inquiry to a comparative perspective in order to test the validity and usefulness of the hermeneutical approach in other fields and cultures The comparative case studies deal with gnostic text Qumran texts the Hebrew Bible Early Christianity Cuneiform Texts Arabic Islamic literature ancient Rome Medieval China and contemporary southern Italy The volume tackles themes and questions relating to author and authorship cultural translation and transmission the interaction between orality and literacy myth and folktale A particular emphasis is given to anthropological themes and methods In this vein the book further explores dynamics of emergence and submersion in ancient Greece including cultural trends promoted respectively by Sparta and Athens The volume provides the reader with a wide range of tools and methodological suggestions to reconstruct literary phenomena and cultural processes in a given historical epoch and context as well as offering new insights for both classical and comparative studies

Interpreting Islam in China Kristian Petersen,2017-09-01 During the early modern period Muslims in China began to embrace the Chinese characteristics of their heritage Several scholar teachers incorporated tenets from traditional Chinese education into their promotion of Islamic knowledge As a result some Sino Muslims established an educational network which utilized an Islamic curriculum made up of Arabic Persian and Chinese works The corpus of Chinese Islamic texts written in this system is collectively labeled the Han Kitab Interpreting Islam in China explores the Sino Islamic intellectual tradition through the works of some its brightest luminaries Three prominent Sino Muslim authors are used to illustrate transformations within this tradition Wang Daiyu Liu Zhi and Ma Dexin Kristian Petersen puts these scholars in dialogue and demonstrates the continuities and departures within this tradition Through an analysis of their writings he considers several questions How malleable are religious categories and why are they variously interpreted across time How do changing historical circumstances affect the interpretation of religious beliefs and practices How do individuals navigate multiple sources of authority How do practices inform belief Overall he shows that these authors presented an increasingly universalistic portrait of Islam through which Sino Muslims were encouraged to participate within the global community of Muslims The growing emphasis on performing the pilgrimage to Mecca comprehensive knowledge of the Qur'an and personal knowledge of Arabic stimulated communal engagement Petersen demonstrates that the integration of Sino Muslims within a growing global environment where international travel and communication was increasingly possible was accompanied by the rising self awareness of a universally engaged Muslim community

Scholars of Faith Usha

Sanyal,2020-06-12 Since the late twentieth century new institutions of Islamic learning for South Asian women and girls have emerged rapidly particularly in urban areas and in the diaspora This book reflects upon the increased access of Muslim girls and women to religious education and the purposes to which they seek to put their learning Scholars of Faith is based on ethnographic fieldwork in two institutions of religious learning the Jami a Nur madrasa in Shahjahanpur North India and Al Huda International an NGO that offers online courses on Islam especially the Qur'an In this monograph Sanyal argues that Islamic religious education in the early twenty first century particularly for women is thoroughly modern and that this modernity reflected in both old and new interpretations of religious texts allows young South Asian women to evaluate their place in traditional structures of patriarchal authority in the public and private spheres in novel ways

Contesting

Realities Susanne Dahlgren,2010-12-23 As a resident of Aden for more than three years spanning the late years of Marxist South Yemen Dahlgren presents the reader with an intimate portrait of Yemeni men and women in the home in the factory in the office and in the street demonstrating that Islamic societies must be understood through a multiplicity of social spheres and morality orders Within each space she examines the range of legal political religious and social regulations that frame gender relations and social dynamics Highlighting the diversity of women's and men's positions as a continuum rather than as distinct areas Dahlgren presents a vivid picture of this dynamic society providing an in depth background to today's political upheavals in Yemen

Embodying Charisma

Helene Basu,Pinna Werbner,2002-03-11 The continued vitality of Sufism as a living embodied postcolonial reality challenges the argument that Sufism has died in recent times Throughout India and Bangladesh Sufi shrines exist in both the rural and urban areas from the remotest wilderness to the modern Asian city lying opposite banks and skyscrapers This book illuminates the remarkable resilience of South Asian Sufi saints and their cults in the face of radical economic and political dislocations and breaks new ground in current research It addresses the most recent debates on the encounter between Islam and modernity and presents important new comparative ethnographic material Embodying Charisma re examines some basic concepts in the sociology and anthropology of religion and the organization of religious movements

Colonialism, Uprising and the Urban Transformation of Nineteenth-Century Delhi

Jyoti Pandey Sharma,2023-03-03 No other city in the Indian subcontinent can lay claim to having so many lives as Delhi This book examines Delhi in the politically and culturally dynamic nineteenth century which was marked midway by the 1857

uprising against British colonial rule as a watershed event Following British occupation Delhi became a receptacle for encounters between the centuries old Mughal traditions and the incoming colonial ideal producing a traditionalism modernity binary Employing the built environment lens the book traces the architectural trajectory of Delhi as it transitioned from the seventeenth century Mughal Badshahi Shahar imperial city first into a culturally hybrid Dilli Delhi combine of the pre uprising era and thereafter into a modern British city following the uprising This transition is presented via four constructs that draw on the traditionalism modernity binary of Mughal and British Delhi and include Marhoom Dilli Dead Delhi Picturesque Delhi Baaghi Dilli Insurgent Delhi and Tamed Delhi The book goes beyond the nineteenth century to examine the vestiges of Delhi s four nineteenth century lives in the present while making a case for their acknowledgement as a cultural asset that can propel the city s urban development agenda By bringing together the city s past and its present as well as addressing its future the book can count among its readers not just scholars but also those interested in cities and their evolving landscapes

The Novel in Nineteenth-Century Bengal Sunayani Bhattacharya,2023-07-13 How does a reader learn to read an unfamiliar genre The Novel in Nineteenth Century Bengal answers this question by looking at the readers of some of the first Bengali novelists including Bankimchandra Chattopadhyay and Mir Mosharraf Hossain Moving from the world of novels periodicals letters and reviews to that of colonial educational policies this book provides a rich literary history of the reading lives of some of the earliest novel readers in colonial India Sunayani Bhattacharya studies the ways in which Bengalis thought about reading how they approached the thorny question of influence and uncovers that they relied on classical Sanskrit and Perso Arabic literary and aesthetic models whose attendant traditions formed not a distant past but coexisted albeit contentiously with the everyday present Challenging dominant postcolonial scholarship The Novel in Nineteenth Century Bengal engages with the lived experience of colonial modernity as it traces the import of the Bengali reader s choices on her quotidian life and grants access to 19th century Bengal as a space in which the past is to be found enmeshed with the present

Rozeahna,2016-04-30 Robert Rozeahna traces the ritual practices and identity politics of a contemporary Sufi order in Pakistan the Chishti Sabris He takes multiple perspectives from the rich Urdu writings of Twentieth Century Sufi masters to the complex spiritual life of contemporary disciples and the order s growing transnational networks

The Politics of Muslim Cultural Reform Adeeb Khalid,1999-01-01 Adeeb Khalid offers the first extended examination of cultural debates in Central Asia during Russian rule With the Russian conquest in the 1860s and 1870s the region came into contact with modernity The Jadids influential Muslim intellectuals sought to safeguard the indigenous Islamic culture by adapting it to the modern state Through education literacy use of the press and by maintaining close ties with Islamic intellectuals from the Ottoman empire to India the Jadids established a place for their traditions not only within the changing culture of their own land but also within the larger modern Islamic world Khalid uses previously untapped literary sources from Uzbek and Tajik as well as archival materials from Uzbekistan Russia Britain and France to explore Russia's role as a colonial power and the politics of Islamic reform movements He shows how Jadid efforts paralleled developments elsewhere in the world and at the same time provides a social history of the Jadid movement By including a comparative study of Muslim societies examining indigenous intellectual life under colonialism and investigating how knowledge was disseminated in the early modern period The Politics of Muslim Cultural Reform does much to remedy the dearth of scholarship on this important period Interest in Central Asia is growing as a result of the breakup of the former Soviet Union and Khalid's book will make an important contribution to current debates over political and cultural autonomy in the region Beyond the Madrasa
