Moral Fragments And Moral Community A Proposal For Church In Society:

Moral Fragments and Moral Community Larry L. Rasmussen, 1993 Western society today lives from community fragments and moral fragments alone and these fragments are being destroyed more quickly than they are being replenished Larry Rasmussen assesses the long term reasons for this situation and then proposes the forms and tasks that churches can undertake to help mend and improve civil society This book which had its origin in the Hein Fry Lectures in 1991 92 functions both as an assessment of the moral climate in America today and also as a proposal for the church in contemporary society The Promise of Lutheran Ethics Karen L. Bloomquist, John R. Stumme, 1998-08-01 Here ten Lutheran theologians explore Lutheran emphases themes and approaches to offer their account of Christian ethics as a way of life in today's world Writing in dialogue they raise foundational concerns of biblical and theological sources and norms of Christian freedom and responsibility of call and social witness of justice and formation in prayer Then in a lively Table Talk the participants discuss and debate the tradition's insights and oversights and show how it might illumine today's burning ethical issues such as homosexuality Methodist Morals Darryl W. Stephens, 2024-01-12 Methodist Morals offers keen insight into the public church interpreting the United Methodist Social Principles as a dynamic discourse about morality and human rights in light of faith Revised every four years by the General Conference of the United Methodist Church the Social Principles exposes the moral deliberations of this distinctly American and increasingly worldwide church as it struggles to achieve community across multiple languages and cultures Perhaps no other document provides as rich a depiction of Protestants participating in the moral argument of public life This is the first full length study of Methodist social teachings in over fifty years

Examining official Methodist teachings from institutional historical and cross cultural perspectives Darryl Stephens provides a rich analysis of this case study of Protestant social witness drawing on his expertise in church polity Methodist history and Christian social ethics A wide range of comparisons with documents of the United Nations with moral debate in Germany and Zimbabwe and with historical Methodist statements of social witness shows the Social Principles to be a unique form of social witness The issues of war abortion human sexuality and marriage illustrate the messiness of democratic deliberation in an ecclesial context and the evolution of a people ever concerned with the sin of worldliness even as they become more attuned to transforming social structures Stephens also contrasts this conception of the public church with the ecclesiologies of prominent Methodist ethicists Stanley Hauerwas and Paul Ramsey Intended for students of Methodism ecumenical church leaders and scholars of Christian social ethics and contemporary US mainline religion this work reveals the challenges to and possibilities for achieving moral community in an increasingly global and diverse world DARRYL W STEPHENS director of United Methodist studies at Lancaster Theological Seminary is former assistant general secretary for advocacy and sexual ethics in the UMC's General Commission on the Status and Role of Women He is the coeditor of Professional Sexual Ethics A Holistic Ministry Approach Wounds of the Spirit Traci C. West, 1999-03 West a professor of ethics and African American studies at Drew University and a United Methodist clergyperson employs first person accounts from slave narratives to contemporary interviews to Tina Turner s autobiography to document a historical legacy of violence against black women in the US She confronts the ways that racism and sexism can intensify black women s anguish in the wake of intimate assault situating spiritual matters within a discussion of the psychosocial impact of violence against women

Rasmussen, 1998-01-22 This book offers an original assessment of the crisis caused by the combined impact of overpopulation overconsumption and economic and political injustice It summons religious scholarship into urgent dialogue with the other disciplines and with the world s policymakers The authors seek a new understanding of religion and its power since for good or for ill the world s religions will be players in the crises relating to population and the threat of ecocide Two thirds of the world s people affiliate with these religions and the other third cannot escape the influence of these symbol filled cultural powerhouses Ethics for a Small Planet offers complementary studies by two major social ethicists on these issues Daniel C Maguire indicts our male dominated religions for the problems they have caused for our ecology and reproductive ethics He raises the controversial questions of whether the very concept of God is a problem and whether Christianity s notions of afterlife and a divinized male have done more harm than good Larry L Rasmussen also recognizes that the problems of our planet are largely male made and rich dominated He writes that Europeans packaged a form of earth unfriendly capitalism and shipped it all over the world with missionary zeal He ably scans the long history that led to the current manic rush to push the earth beyond its limits and goes on to suggest moral norms and policy guidelines for sustainable communities and genuinely shared power Both authors argue that there are positive and renewable moral energies in the world s religions and that unless religion understood as a response to the sanctity of life animates our ethical debates the prospects for the world are grim The sense of the sacred is presented here as the nucleus of the good and the only force that can bring about the lifestyle changes and power reallocations that are necessary to prevent terracide Desire for God and the Things of God

Wyndy Corbin Reuschling, 2012-09-21 For many Christians spirituality and ethics are in separate mental and experiential compartments Spirituality may be understood as an inner experience while ethics is focused on decisions or positions on issues Both of these views reduce spirituality and morality in Christian faith and practice and ignore the centrality of desire for God and the things of God as key focal points for spiritual and moral formation These aspects of Christian formation must be located in their scriptural and theological contexts in order to understand more fully what God desires for human life This focus on desire provides content and context to Christian spirituality and morality We are drawn outward to focus on God and the good of others while we learn to embody virtues such as compassion courage self control gratitude humility and hope Practices are crucial ways by which we learn to incarnate our ultimate desire of love for God and for what God desires in the pursuit of justice and goodness for all creation In so doing practices enable us to more fully integrate spiritual and moral growth in the processes of our desire for God and the things of God What You Sow Is a Bare Seed Celeste Kennel-Shank, 2023-08-17 What You Sow Is a Bare Seed is a group biography that tells the stories of ordinary but extraordinary people who were engaged in movements for renewal in the church and justice in broader society. People such as Dora Koundakjian Johnson, an Armenian Lebanese linguistics scholar and activist, and Doug Huron, an attorney who won a landmark US Supreme Court civil rights case. They were among those who came together as the ecumenical Community of Christ in Washington DC, Planted in the inner city in 1965 when many churches were leaving. The Community distinguished itself from the more organized church without rejecting it, as one former member says. They believed that helping each other identify their gifts was a compelling way to shape their collective ministry beyond themselves. The Community initially intended not to own property but later bought a building and opened it up as a community center. As a final act of ministry, the Community gave its building away to a nonprofit partner when it closed in 2016, leaving a legacy that continues today.

Towards a Contextual Transformational Practical Theology for Leadership Education in South Africa Gordon E. Dames, 2016 Towards a contextual transformational practical theology for leadership education in South Africa is a courageous effort by a prominent South African practical theologian to develop a framework for the theory and practice of leadership education in an African context. Taking the harsh realities of South Africa as point of departure, the author demonstrates how an indigenous South African practical theology can be developed through a critical interaction between Western and African ideas. Prof. Jaco S. Dreyer, Professor of Practical Theology, University of South Africa. Green Witness Laura Ruth Yordy, 2010-04-29 A call for the reappraisal of why Christians can and should work towards the wholeness of the biophysical environment. Green Witness explores the church's role as exemplar in striving towards the fulfillment of God's promise of peace, health, and diversity to his Kingdom. An insightful work in theological ethics. Color of Violence INCITE! Women of Color Against Violence. INCITE! Women of Color Against Violence, 2016-09-02 The editors and contributors to Color of Violence ask: What would it take to end violence against women of color? Presenting the fierce and vital writing of organizers, lawyers, scholars, poets, and policy makers, Color of Violence radically repositions the antiviolence movement by putting women of color at its center. The contributors shift the focus from domestic violence and sexual assault and map innovative strategies of movement building and resistance used by women of color around the world. The volume's thirty pieces, which include poems, short essays, position papers, letters, and personal reflections, cover violence against women of color in its myriad forms, manifestations, and settings while identifying the links between gender, militarism, reproductive and economic violence, prisons, and policing, colonialism, and war. At a time of heightened state surveillance and repression of people of color, Color of Violence is an essential intervention. Good Room Marcia Y. Riggs,2008-12-01 I offer this book as an outgrowth of my faith journey in the African American Church and as an ethicist who is deeply concerned about the distorted relationship between the professed theological and ethical beliefs and moral practices with respect to gender in that church I am concerned with the way that we interpret our beliefs about justice in particular in order to match our sexual gender oppressive practices while maintaining that we received such interpretation by way of the Bible and or church tradition Marcia Y Riggs In Plenty Good Room Women Versus Male Power in the Black Church Riggs discusses African American church life as a case study for ethical reflection about sexual ethics and clergy ethics the prevailing silence about sexuality in the black church as well as the fact that sexuality is generally a taboo in the Christian tradition The author feels that sexism has been perpetrated by misuse of the Scriptures and by circumscribing the role of women and seeks to transform current discourse about sexual behavior and clergy misconduct from a concentration on formulating policy to re train Riggs offers both descriptive analysis and normative proposals for transforming the moral life of the African American church the way of being and doing characteristic of the African American church in the areas of Sexual gender relations Clergy ethics Ministerial ethics Ecclesial practices Riggs begins each chapter with a scenario and ends each chapter with dialogue questions for further group reflection Beyond

Cutting Edge? Paul C. Heidebrecht,2014-03-10 A quick scan of any newsstand is enough to confirm the widespread preoccupation with technological change As a myriad of articles and advertisements demonstrate not only are we preoccupied with technology but we are bombarded with numerous reminders that the cutting edge is in constant motion Most often the underlying assumption of Christians is that we have no choice but to find ways to cope with the latest and greatest Indeed it is often assumed that the church has no choice but to find ways to cope with its new technological context This book does not make the same assumptions Building on the work of Mennonite theologian John Howard Yoder it argues that the practices of the church make it possible for Christians to conscientiously engage technology This happens when we recognize that marks of the church such as patience vulnerability and servanthood can put technological ideals such as speed control and efficiency in their proper place In the course of grappling with three examples of morally formative technologies automobiles genetically modified food and the Internet this book goes beyond Yoder s thought by emphasizing that the church also plays a crucial role in our moral formation African Christian Ethics Samuel Waje Kunhiyop,2019-04-09 An introduction to African Christian ethics for Christian colleges and Bible schools African Christian Ethics is divided into two main parts The first deals with the theory of ethics while the second discusses practical issues The issues are grouped into the following six sections Socio Political Issues Financial Issues Marriage Issues Sexual Issues Medical Issues Religious Issues Each of these six section begins with a brief general introduction followed by the chapters dealing with specific issues in that area Each chapter begins with an introduction discusses traditional African thinking on the issue presents an analysis of relevant biblical material and concludes with some recommendations There are questions at the end of each chapter for discussion or personal reflection often asking students to reflect on how the discussion in the chapter applies to their ministry situation
