

The Fairy....

She whispered as she landed
She giggled as she walked
She twinkled as she danced
She sang but never talked
She smiled as she watched me
She showered me with dust
She sighed as she left me
As with every child, she must
She fluttered to the window
She looked into the sky
She turned her head and blew a kiss
Her final last goodbye
She left behind a present
A pigment of her past
A fortune for the future
A memory made to last
She Blessed a sleeping Child
Sound asleep in bed
With no clue that she'd been or gone
Or what her songs had said
She farewelled the sleeping angel
Though at her heart it tore
For this child was growing up
And needed her no more
She soared through the night
As the slumbering child slept
And of a magical fairy
The sleeping Angel dreamt
