Cincinnati criminal defense attorney Foss Hopkins represented more than 550 clients. Never far from controversy, Foss specialized in murder and represented a wide array of colorful defendants. William Kuhlman and his gang left a trail of blood from Indiana to Kentucky after hacking up the body of Cincinnati fireman Cap Miller. Attractive and naive Louise Sharpe pumped three bullets into her older lover and left him dying on the floor of his Walnut Hills apartment. After Marie Abbott's farmhand lover killed her husband on their Butler County farm, Marie colluded with him to stage the murder as an accident. Foss lost only two clients to Ohio's electric chair and pulled off some astounding victories. Author Janice Schulz explores the fascinating life and career of Cincinnati's celebrity criminal defense attorney. Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1976

The Ethics of Self-defense Christian Coons, Michael E. Weber, 2016

The fifteen new essays collected in this volume address questions concerning the ethics of self-defense most centrally when and to what extent the use of defensive force especially lethal force can be justified. Scholarly interest in this topic reflects public concern stemming from controversial cases of the use of force by police and military force exercised in the name of defending against transnational terrorism. The contributors pay special attention to determining when a threat is liable to defensive harm though doubts about this emphasis are also raised. The legitimacy of so-called stand your ground policies and laws is also addressed. This volume will be of great interest to readers in moral, political, and legal philosophy.
