Pathways To Re Creating Religious Communities:

Pathways to Re-Creating Religious Communities Patricia Wittberg, 1996 Religious life has always been an essential and dynamic component of the church Religious communities historically have met the needs of the surrounding society in education the arts medical care and social work But why do we need religious communities now What purpose do they serve within the church and within society Patricia Wittberg offers some practical and prophetic answers There are four basic questions that a religious community must answer if it is to survive and grow in the twenty first century What is our fundamental reason for existing as a community What distinguishes members from non members How will we live out our fundamental purpose in daily life What resources do we need and where can they be found Using the metaphor of a journey this book suggests ways of addressing these questions based on studies of other religious communities past and present Catholic and those of other religions The author also identifies pitfalls that commonly deter new communities and suggests how these pitfalls may be avoided Included is a selection of journey stories that present some fictional founding and refounding journeys these can serve as starting points for brainstorming by religious communities interested in refounding themselves This is a hopeful popularly written book that will appeal not only to all religious but to general readers as well since it has great importance for the life of the entire church BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Within and Without Michael John Cunningham, 2003 A Visual Approach to the

Marie Schneiders, 2001 An examination of the internal reality of contemporary religious life particularly that of ministerial women religious in the first world setting through the focusing lenses of commitment consecrated celibacy and community

Becoming Apostolic Catherine Sexton, 2024-07-01 This book explores the experience and understanding of Roman Catholic sisters of their vocation to the apostolic form of religious life as they age Based on interviews with twelve religious women it draws on the practice of Lectio Divina to explore how these women describe their call to service and activity at a time in life when these might be curtailed by physical diminishment and increasingly reduced social interaction and influence As the very institutions of religious life are themselves under threat the book identifies new emerging forms of ministry through presence to each other and to their carers Against the Stream Richard P. Cimino, 1997 Against the Stream examines the phenomenon of young adult conversion and return to traditional Christian religiosity The book is based on 50 case studies of young adults who have converted or returned to three tradition based faiths conservative and traditionalist Roman Catholicism the conservative Reformed or Calvinist tradition and Eastern Orthodoxy The book provides an account of these young adults beliefs as well as how they relate their faith to everyday life and social issues and illuminates the challenges of adhering to religious traditions in a society shaped by pluralism and religious consumerism These young adults are going against the stream by refusing to take a pick and choose approach to religious beliefs Choice plays a major role in how these young adults adopt and adapt these faiths to their lives Such selective retrievals of tradition for these young adults provide benefits and solutions for the ills and dislocations created by modernity such as the fragmentation secularism and politicization of society Co published with Religion Watch History of North American Benedictine Women Laura

Swan, 2001 A much needed research and reference bibliography for all who are interested in the history of Benedictine Women in North America Those interested in Benedictine spirituality liturgy and prayer will find useful resources here as well Catholic Theology Facing the Future Dermot A. historical resource for the study of women's religious orders in the twentieth century and in analysing the impact of Vatican II on the self understanding of all women

Mysticism and Social Transformation Janet K. Ruffing, 2001-02-01 Where do Mysticism and and political action meet How does faith empower its adherents to resist oppression What are the origins of authentic contemporary mysticism From the thirteenth century Franciscan movement to African American mystics this wide ranging volume of essays considers exemplars of Christian mysticism including Teresa of Avila Ignatius of Loyola the Quakers and the Society of Friends whose practices and influence brought about social change Linking major conceptual issues and social theory the essays examine the historical impact of mysticism in contemporary life and argue for a hermeneutical approach to mysticism in its historical context The contributors look at how mystical empowerment can serve as a catalyst for expressing compassion in acts of justice and long term social change We learn how Sojourner Truth and Rebecca Cox Jackson driven by mystical experiences to take up lives of preaching faced the same misogynistic religious environments as did women mystics throughout history which has submerged this key area of women's experience The final two essays describe the development of socially engaged Buddhism in Asia and America and the mystical roots of deep ecology
