tools How Children Discover New Strategies Robert Siegler, Eric A. Jenkins, 2014-01-14 This well documented book divides the process of constructing new problem solving strategies into two parts discovery of the new strategy and its generalization to new contexts By using a trial by trial analysis the authors are able to identify the exact trial on which the new strategy is first used the circumstances that lead to the discovery and the generalization of the strategy beyond its initial use These observations disconfirm popular stereotypes of the discovery process and provide important insights into the nature of long term learning and strategy discovery Transforming Organizations Mark A. Abramson, Paul R. Lawrence, 2001 Transforming Organizations provides in depth case studies of outstanding government executives who dramatically changed both the performance and management of their organizations The book includes case studies of Dan Goldin of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration Ken Kizer of the Veterans Health Administration James Lee Witt of the Federal Emergency Management Agency and four high ranking government officials who changed procurement in the Department of Defense In addition the book includes interviews with NASA Administrator Goldin and FEMA's Director Witt The volume also includes an essay by Ken Kizer on his experience transforming the Veterans Health Administration From these case studies Mark A. Abramson and Paul R. Lawrence develop eight lessons that all executives can learn from in transforming their organization select the right person involve key players engage employees and persevere
