Paulinus Noster:

Paulinus Noster Catherine Conybeare, 2000-12-07 The aristocratic convert Paulinus of Nola was revered by contemporaries and correspondents like Augustine of Hippo and Sulpicius Severus as Paulinus noster our Paulinus But his role as a shaper of and exemplar to the early Christian Church has until recently been often overlooked This literate and accessible study examines the profound impact Paulinus had on Christian thought during a crucial period of its development His ideas on friendship Christian symbolism and the nature of personal identity were produced on the cusp of the transition from the classical world to the burgeoning Western Christian civilization by a thinker with strong links to both Paulinus letters and other writings reveal the roots of many important strands of Christian thought the works of Augustine and others attest to this influence The letters of Paulinus and his correspondents portray an early Christian web of shared concepts intellectual discussion and group development Catherine Conybeare examines how the very process of writing and transmitting letters between members of a far flung community helped to bind that community together and to aid the creation of ideas which would continue to reverberate for centuries after Our Paulinus was key to that group iconic as a model of behaviour as a conversion success story and as a intellectual contributor able to bridge the old world and the new

Paulinus Noster Catherine Conybeare, 2000 Augustine in the Pelagian Controversy Andrew Chronister, Andrew C. Chronister, 2024-10-04 This book examines St Augustine of Hippo s involvement in the Pelagian controversy and argues that this involvement was prompted not simply by his opposition to Pelagian doctrinal views but to a significant degree by his desire to defend Church unity To prove this thesis Andrew Chronister analyzes the historical context of the controversy as well as Augustine s argumentation in his anti Pelagian works Attending to the historical context reveals the fact that at various moments in the controversy Augustine was faced with what he believed to be significant threats to Church unity For example the beginnings of the controversy coincided with a key attempt in June 411 to end the Donatist schism that had split the African Church for a century at the very moment when one schism was being healed another threat to unity appeared in Caelestius and Pelagius At the same time internal evidence in Augustine s anti Pelagian works reveals his desire not only to refute Pelagian doctrinal views but also to undermine the Pelagians claims that they were simply teaching what the Church had always and everywhere taught This can be seen in a particular way in Augustine s frequent appeals to liturgical and sacramental praxis as well as in his rather novel practice of citing renowned Christian authors as evidence for the antiquity and universality of his views Augustine in the Pelagian Controversy has two main contributions 1 it offers a new perspective on Augustine s involvement in the controversy that makes his prolonged and polemical engagement with the Pelagians more intelligible and 2 it provides a detailed history of the controversy itself Living Martyrs in Late Antiquity and Beyond Diane Fruchtman, 2023-02-01 This book demonstrates that living martyrdom was an important spiritual aspiration in the late antique Latin west and argues that consequently attempts to define study or locate martyrdom must move away from conceptualizations that require or center on death After an introduction that traces the persistence of living martyrs as real objects of spiritual devotion and emulation across the span of Christian history and discusses why such martyrs have been overlooked the book focuses on three significant authors from the late ancient Latin west for whom martyrdom did not require death the Spanish poet Prudentius c 348 413 the senator turned ascetic Paulinus of Nola 353 431 and the influential North African bishop Augustine of Hippo 354 430 Through historically and literarily contextualized close readings of their work this book shows that each of these three authors attempted to create a new paradigm of martyrdom focused on living rather than dying for God By focusing on these living martyrs we are able to see more clearly the aspirations and agendas of those who promoted them as martyrs and how their martyrological discourse illuminates the variety of ways that martyrdom is and can be mobilized in any era to construct new community creating worldviews Living Martyrs in Late Antiquity and Beyond is an important resource for historians of Christianity scholars of religious studies and anyone interested in exploring or understanding martyrological discourse The Introduction of this book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

The smaller number of longer papers put such matters into context and indicate wider trends The whole reflects the state of Patristic scholarship and demonstrates the vigour and popularity of the subject Food, Virtue, and the Shaping of Early Christianity Dana Robinson,2020-08-13 In this book Dana Robinson examines the role that food played in the Christianization of daily life in the fourth century CE Early Christians used the food culture of the Hellenized Mediterranean world to create and debate compelling models of Christian virtue and to project Christian ideology onto common domestic practices Combining theoretical approaches from cognitive linguistics and space place theory Robinson shows how metaphors for piety such as health fruit and sacrifice relied on food related domains of common knowledge medicine agriculture votive ritual which in turn generated sophisticated and accessible models of lay discipline and moral formation She also demonstrates that Christian places and landscapes of piety were socially constructed through meals and food production networks that extended far beyond the Eucharist Food culture thus provided a network of metaphorical concepts and spatial practices that allowed the lay faithful to participate in important debates over Christian living and community formation Building the Body of Christ Daniel C. Cochran,2020-11-17 In Building the Body of Christ Daniel C Cochran argues that monumental Christian art and architecture played a crucial role in the formation of individual and communal identities in late antique Italy The ecclesiastical buildings and artistic programs that emerged during the fourth and fifth centuries not only reflected Christianity's changing status within the Roman Empire but also actively shaped those who used them Emphasizing the importance of materiality and the body in early Christian thought and practice Cochran shows how bishops and their supporters employed the visual arts to present a Christian identity rooted in the sacred past but expressed in the present through church unity and episcopal authority He weaves together archaeological and textual evidence to contextualize case studies from Rome Aquileia and Ravenna showing how these sites responded to the diversity of early Christianity as expressed through private rituals and the imperial appropriation of the saints Cochran shows how these early ecclesiastical buildings and artistic programs worked in conjunction with the liturgy to persuade individuals to adopt alternative beliefs practices and values that contributed to the formation of institutional Christianity and the Christianization of late antique Italy Late Antique Letter Collections Cristiana Sogno,Bradley K. Storin,Edward J. Watts,2019-11-19 Bringing together an international team of historians classicists and scholars of religion this volume provides the first comprehensive overview of the extant Greek and Latin letter collections of late antiquity ca 300 600 c e Each chapter addresses a major collection of Greek or Latin literary letters introducing the social and textual histories of each collection and examining its assembly publication and transmission Contributions also reveal how collections operated as discrete literary genres with their own conventions and self presentational agendas This book will fundamentally change how people both read these texts and use letters to reconstruct the social history of the fourth fifth and sixth centuries Late Ancient Christianity Virginia Burrus,2010-03-01 The particular excitement of this volume lies in its focus on the everyday realities of Christians lives in the era of Christian ascendancy and Roman decline Popular fiction childrearing and toys rituals of inclusion the beginning of veneration of saints and shunning of heretics the ascetic impulse food practices all these and more lend color and texture to the story of a people's Christianity in this formative stage The Rhetoric of Unity and Division in Ancient Literature

Decimus Magnus Ausonius, 1823 The Soteriology of Leo the Great Bernard Green, 2008-04-10 Leo the Great was the beneficiary of the consolidation of the power of the papacy in Rome and the Christianization of the city over the course of the preceding century In this carefully nuanced study Bernard Green demonstrates the influences at work on this celebrated pope's development as a theological thinker including two of the most renowned theological names of the period Ambrose of Milan and Augustine of Hippo Green charts Leo's theological journey from his first encounters with the Pelagian and Nestorian controversies where he engaged Cassian as an advisor Leo took an admiring though limited view of Cyril of Alexandria but misunderstood the weaknesses in Nestorius' thought As pope Leo preached a civic Christianity accessible to all citizens baptising the virtues of the classical and civic past The study then examines Leo's recently dated sermons and reveals the evolution of his thought as he worked out a soteriology that gave full value to both the divinity and humanity of Christ especially in reaction to Manichaeism In the crisis that led to Chalcedon Leo's earlier misunderstanding of Nestorius affected the content of his Tome which was atypical of the Christology and soteriology he had developed in his earlier preaching Green persuasively concludes that its emphasis on the distinction of the two natures was an uncharacteristic attempt to respond to both Eutyches and Nestorius as this pope understood them In the light of Chalcedon Leo produced a revised statement of Christology the Letter to the Palestinian monks which is both more accomplished and better aligned with his characteristic thought Teuffel's History of Roman Literature Wilhelm Sigmund Teuffel, 1892 The Oxford Handbook of Literature and the English Revolution

Laura Lunker Knoppers, 2012-11-29 This Handbook presents a comprehensive introduction and thirty seven new analytical essays on the issues contexts and texts of the English Revolution Offering textual literary critical historical and methodological information the volume exemplifies new and diverse approaches to revolutionary writing and maps out future avenues of research Vivid Rhetoric and Visual Persuasion

Klingshirn, Linda Safran, 2007 From the very beginning Christianity was a religion of books a lived but also a written faith The essays in this collection focus on the ways in which books were produced used treasured and conceptualized in the early Christian centuries AD 100 600 During this crucial period just after the New Testament writings were composed Christianity grew from the religion of a tiny minority in the eastern Roman Empire to the religion of the empire itself and beyond To no small extent this success was based on the power of its books Written by experts in the field the essays in this volume examine the early Christian book from a wide range of disciplines religion art history history Near Eastern studies and classics Topics include theories of the book book production and use books as sacred objects and problems of gender authorship and authority readers into the entire bookish world of early Christianity a world of writing and reading practices of copying and exchanging texts of persuading and debating with books and of representing holiness and power through codices of the law the scriptures and the lives of the saints Essays cover a wide geographical range and discuss texts written all across the Mediterranean world in Greek Latin Coptic Syriac and Hebrew All ancient texts are translated into English some for the first time Intended for general readers students and scholars alike anyone with a serious interest in early Christianity this work brings together exciting currents of new research It also opens up fresh questions and lines of inquiry in the study of this perennially important and fascinating subject An introduction by Philip Rousseau provides a valuable overview followed by essays written by Daniel Boyarin Catherine Burris Catherine Chin Gillian Clark Catherine Conybeare Kim Haines Eitzen Caroline Humfress Chrysi Kotsifou John Lowden Claudia Rapp Daniel Sarefield and Mark Vessey Literature and Society in the Fourth Century AD Lieve Van Hoof, Peter Van Nuffelen, 2014-10-23 Late Antiquity is often assumed to have witnessed the demise of literature as a social force and its retreat into the school and the private reading room whereas the sophists of the Second Sophistic were influential social players their late antique counterparts are thought to have been overshadowed by bishops Literature and Society in the Fourth Century AD argues that this presumed difference should be attributed less to a fundamental change in the role of literature than to different scholarly methodologies with which Greek and Latin texts from the second and the fourth century are being studied Focusing on performance the literary construction of reality and self presentation this volume highlights how literature continued to play an important role in fourth century elite society

Intercessory Prayer and the Monastic Ideal in the Time of the Carolingian Reforms Renie S. Choy, 2016-11-17 In early medieval Europe monasticism constituted a significant force in society because the prayers of the religious on behalf of others featured as powerful currency The study of this phenomenon is at once full of potential and peril rightly drawing attention to the wider social involvement of an otherwise exclusive group but also describing a religious community in terms of its service provision Previous scholarship has focused on the supply and demand of prayer within the medieval economy of power patronage and gift exchange Intercessory Prayer and the Monastic Ideal in the Time of the Carolingian Reforms is the first volume to explain how this transactional dimension of prayer factored into monastic spirituality Renie S Choy uncovers the relationship between the intercessory function of monasteries and the ascetic concern for moral conversion in the minds of prominent religious leaders active between c 750 820 Through sustained analysis of the devotional thought of Benedict of Aniane and contemporaneous religious reformers during the reigns of Charlemagne and Louis the Pious Choy examines key topics in the study of Carolingian monasticism liturgical organization and the intercessory performances of the Mass and the Divine Office monastic theology and relationships of prayer within monastic communities and with the world outside Arguing that monastic leaders showed new interest on the intersection between the interiority of prayer and the functional world of social relationships this study reveals the ascetic ideal undergirding the provision of intercessory prayer by monasteries
