Econometrics and Data Analysis for Developing Countries Chandan Mukherjee, Howard White, Marc

Wuyts,2013-09-13 Getting accurate data on less developed countries has created great problems for studying these areas Yet until recently students of development economics have relied on standard econometrics texts which assume a Western context Econometrics and Data Analysis for Developing Countries solves this problem It will be essential reading for all advanced students of development economics IBSS: Sociology: 1993 Vol 43 International Committee for Social Science Information and Documentation,1994 This bibliography lists the most important works published in sociology in 1993 Renowned for its international coverage and rigorous selection procedures the IBSS provides researchers and librarians with the most comprehensive and scholarly bibliographic service available in the social sciences The IBSS is compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science at the London School of Economics one of the world s leading social science institutions Published annually the IBSS is available in four subject areas anthropology economics political science and sociology Rethinking Development Economics Ha-Joon Chang,2003 Impressive provides a very good compendium of what are usually classified as heterodox development economics an excellent volume Journal of International Development This important new collection tackles the failure of neoliberal reform to generate longterm growth and reduce poverty in many developing and transition economies As dramatically demonstrated in the collapse of the WTO s Seattle talks there is increasing dissatisfaction in both developing and developed countries with the emerging neoliberal global economic order The resignations of Joseph Stiglitz and Ravi Kanbur from the World Bank emphasize that this disillusionment with the orthodoxy now exists at the very heart of the establishment Yet the increasing demand for an alternative to this orthodoxy is not being met Over the last few decades the older generation of development economists have been edged out of most major universities particularly in the USA The situation in most developing countries is even worse although there is more demand for alternatives to orthodox development economics these countries have even less capability to generate such alternatives Rethinking Development Economics is intended to fill this gap It addresses key issues in development economics ranging from macroeconomics finance and governance to trade industry agriculture and poverty Bringing together some of the foremost names in the field this comprehensive and timely collection constitutes a critical staging post in the future of development economics Class, Caste, Gender Manoranjan Mohanty,2004-05-24 Annotation This volume of essays looks into the dynamic interconnection of class caste and gender in the Indian political process The focus is on interconnection that is a relationship involving more than one category while at the same time trying to understand each category by itself The complex issues of caste gender and class have been studied through a collection of essays that look into the people s struggle for social equality Social oppression has been analyzed in the context of protests against such exploitation Anti caste movements and women s movements have been studied in much detail The volume is divided into five sections and well known specialists have contributed pertinent essays This important book will contribute immensely in the understanding of the contemporary Indian political process Ideals, Images, and Real Lives Alice Thorner, Maithreyi Krishna Raj,2000

Women studies as a distinct field emerged in India in the mid seventies But preoccupation with the position of women dates back to more than a century and a half By the use of methods of history literary criticism and analysis of discourse this volume seeks not only to illustrate the broadening of the sphere of women studies in India in recent years but also to point to the need for relating ideas about women and gender relations to the social and economic forces that shape history India Jean Drèze, Amartya Sen, 2002 This book explores the role of public action in eliminating deprivation and expanding human freedoms in India The analysis is based on a broad and integrated view of development which focuses on well being and freedom rather than the standard indicators of economic growth The authors place human agency at the centerstage and stress the complementary roles of different institutions economic social and political in enhancing effective freedoms

Population and Environment in Arid Regions UNESCO/IUSSP/IGU Conference on Population and Environment in Arid Regions, 1995 The National Geographical Journal of India, 2000 My Professional Life and Publications, 1929-1998 Ester Boserup, 1999 Ester Boserup's writings have had major impact over the last quarter century on the evolution of thought in anthropology demography economics and sociology about the interrelationships among economic demographic and technical change In the present booklet the author reviews seventy years of work and writing on development economics and its relation to her own experience from government planner in Denmark during the Second World War via the UN to consultant concerning today's problems of the Third World District-wise Agricultural Data Base for Maharashtra, 2004 The Journal of Developing Areas, 1993 International Congress on Kerala Studies, 27-29 August 1994, Thiruvananthapuram, 1994 Economic and Political Weekly, 1998-09 The Journal of Asian Studies, 1995
