Stealing Things Rosemary A. Peters, 2013-08-28 Stealing Things traces the representations of thieves and thievery in nineteenth century French novels Re-reading canonical texts by Balzac the Comtesse de S gur and Zola through the lens of crime Peters highlights bourgeois anxiety about ownership and objects while considering the impact of literature on popular attitudes about crime and its legislation and punishment A detailed analysis of the role of objects this work chronicles nineteenth century changes in legal attitudes popular mentalities and individual and social identity focusing particularly on the resulting transformations in representations of gender class and criminal subjectivity A Critical History of French Children's Literature Penny Brown,2007 Class List Tufts Library,1900 List of French Fiction Mme. Sophie Cornu,William Beer,1898 Tender Is the Night F. Scott Fitzgerald,2020-06-30 Now available in a beautifully designed collector's edition this modern classic set in the South of France after World War I is the story of a brilliant psychiatrist and the bewitching wealthy and dangerously unstable patient who becomes his wife Set in the south of France in the late 1920s Tender Is the Night is the tragic tale of a young actress Rosemary Hoyt and her complicated relationship with the alluring American couple Dick and Nicole Diver A brilliant psychiatrist at the time of his marriage Dick is both husband and doctor to Nicole whose wealth pushed him into a glamorous lifestyle and whose growing strength highlights Dick's decline Lyrical expansive and hauntingly evocative Tender Is the Night was one of the most talked about books of the year when it was originally published in 1934 and is even more beloved by readers today Ladies of the Leisure Class Bonnie G. Smith,2020-03-31 In a social and cultural study of nineteenth century bourgeois women in northern France Bonnie Smith shows how the advent of industrialization removed women from the productive activity of the middle class and confined them to a largely reproductive experience Out of this she suggests they created their own world centered on domesticity family and religion To understand these women the author argues it is necessary to examine their world on its own terms as a coherent whole Professor Smith draws on demographic psychoanalytic anthropological linguistic as well as historical insights and uses a variety of evidence that includes personal interviews photographs letters genealogical records and traditional archival sources Part One outlines the transition from mercantile to industrial manufacturing that terminated the relationship between home and business and that separated the sexes according to their respective functions Part Two concentrates on the lives of the women following their acceptance of an exclusively reproductive function and shows how the interdependence and fusion of household chores religious values and social conscience fostered a unified cultural system Part Three then explores the propagation of this domesticity by the convent as the primary educational system and by the sentimental novel as the vehicle most suited for an ideological expression of domestic life
