Acts of Resistance in Late-Modernist Theatre Richard Murphet, 2019-10-29 In Acts of Resistance in Late Modernist Theatre Richard Murphet presents a close analysis of the theatre practice of two ground breaking artists Richard Foreman and Jenny Kemp active over the late twentieth and the early twenty first century In addition he tracks the development of a form of epileptic writing over the course of his own career as writer director Murphet argues that these three auteurs have developed subversive alternatives to the previously dominant forms of dramatic realism in order to re think the relationship between theatre and reality They write and direct their own work and their artistic experimentation is manifest in the tension created between their content and their form Murphet investigates how the works are made rather than focusing upon an interpretation of their meaning Through an examination of these artists we gain a deeper understanding of a late modernist paradigm shift in theatre practice
