Phoenix Rising Impressions Of Vietnam:

A Phoenix Rising Zoë Schramm-Evans,1996 Author s account of her travels in Vietnam including her impressions with the country s political and social atmosphere and her encounters with area inhabitants A Phoenix Rising Zoe Schramm-Evans,1996-06-01 In this informative very personal account of a journey from Ho Chi Minh City the Mekong Delta to Hanoi Halong Bay Zoe Schramm Evans delves behind the cliché ridden images of Vietnam to discover a country poised on the brink of the most remarkable political social change On her journey she meets former Viet Cong fighters students journalists civil servants street children prostitutes entrepreneurs of course fellow travellers Throughout her travels she observes with humor occasional despair the energy the excitement the struggles the sometimes surreal juxtapositions of old new East West which are Vietnam Going Places Robert Burgin,2013-01-08 Successfully navigate the rich world of travel narratives and identify fiction and nonfiction read alike with this detailed and expertly constructed guide Just as savvy travelers make use of guidebooks to help navigate the hundreds of countries around the globe smart librarians need a guidebook that makes sense of the world of travel narratives Going Places A Reader s Guide to Travel Narratives meets that demand helping librarians assist patrons in finding the nonfiction books that most interest them It will also serve to help users better understand the genre and their own reading interests The book examines the subgenres of the travel narrative genre in its seven chapters categorizing and describing approximately 600 titles according to genres and broad reading interests and identifying hundreds of other fiction and nonfiction titles as read alike and related reads by shared key topics The author has also identified award winning titles and spotlighted further resources on travel lit making this work an ideal guide for readers advisors as well a book general readers will enjoy browsing The A to Z of Vietnam Bruce M. Lockhart,William J. Duiker,2010-04-14 Vietnam became part of French Indochina in 1887 and did not regain its independence again until after the Vietnam War However despite a relatively peaceful two decades the country experienced little economic growth because of conservative leadership policies In an effort to change this stagnation Vietnamese authorities have committed to economic liberalization and enacted structural reforms needed to modernize the economy and to produce more competitive export driven industries The A to Z of Vietnam focuses on the recent changes and leadership of Vietnam while giving due attention to the earlier kingdoms the period of French Indochina the wars for liberation the Vietnam War and much more Hundreds of cross referenced A to Z dictionary entries are included on political economic social and cultural aspects as well as the major cities and geographic features This book also contains a chronology and introduction that traces Vietnam s history as well as a bibliography Asian Universities Philip G. Altbach,Toru Umakoshi,2004-12-10 Since 1980 higher education access and endorsement have grown more dramatically in Asia than in any other area of the world Both developed and developing nations are witnessing rapid expansion in the higher education sector Nor is this progress entirely quantitative a number of Asian universities are on a par with the finest institutions of higher education in the U S and Europe Until now however there has been little historical analysis and virtually no comparative analysis of Asian higher education This volume offers a detailed comparative study of the emergence of the modern university in Asia linking the historical development of universities in the region with contemporary realities and future challenges The contributors describe higher education systems in eleven countries Korea China Vietnam Cambodia Malaysia Phillippines Singapore Indonesia Thailand India and Japan and explore similarities and differences through two comparative essays Each case study includes a discussion of the nature and influence of both indigenous and European educational traditions a detailed analysis of development patterns and a close examination of such contemporary issues as population growth and access cost the role of private higher education the research system autonomy and accountability
