that Christians share in complex ways with the Jewish people The contemporary experience of the Shoah the dominating religious event of the 20th Century has complexified that relationship and left an indelible mark on the religious sensibility of both Jews and Christians Engaging with a range of thinkers from Heschel Levinas and Edith Stein who were all deeply affected by the Shoah to Metz Panikkar and Rowan Williams who are always pressing the limits of what can and cannot be said with integrity about the self revealing Word of God this book shows how Judaism is a necessary if not sufficient source of Christian self understanding What is commended by this foundational engagement is a hope filled waiting on grace made possible by virtues of empathy and patience A theology of dialogue focuses not on metaphysical abstractions but on biblical forms of thought about God s presence to human beings which Christians share with Jews and under the continuing guidance of the Spirit of Christ learn to adapt to a whole range of contested cultural and political contexts
