Revelation Proclaiming A Vision Of Hope:

Revelation Wilfrid J. Harrington, 1994 This commentary by noted Dominican scripture scholar Fr Wilfrid Harrington explains apocalyptic thought in a way that anyone can understand showing how this difficult concept has meaning for today The meaning of all symbols the beasts the dragons the seven seals the elders the lamb fall into place The Army Chaplaincy, 1996 Our Only Hope Margaret B Adam, 2014-08-28 The most popular source of theological hope for modern Christians is that of Jurgen Moltmann Preachers teachers and lay people reflect Moltmann's influence with their hope in a this worldly eschatology and suffering God However an exclusive reliance on that hope deprives the church of crucial resources in the face of global economic environmental and military crises Our Only Hope explores Moltmannian hope and considers its costs before looking elsewhere for additional contributions from Thomas Aquinas theological virtue of hope to nihilism and beyond in order to encourage the church to sustain and practise hope in Jesus Christ our only hope Seeking Spiritual Growth Through the Bible Wilfrid J. Harrington, 2002 In looking to the Bible's witness this book offers readers a spirituality that is understood as faith lived in love and sustained by hope Visions of Hope Kevin Ahern, 2013 Fifty years after the Second Vatican Council emerging theologians are in a unique position to offer hopeful visions for the next fifty years of the Church in light of the pressing internal and external challenges it faces today Rooted in the texts of Vatican II and a commitment to the church Visions of Hope brings together the research of leading young scholars around five important topics dialogue ecclesiology ethics liturgy and ministry These ideas represent the future shape of the Church because they are from the theologians who are planting the seminal ideas of Church The Wayfinding Bible NLT Tyndale, Tyndale House Publishers Staff, 2014-11 ECPA 2014 Christian Book Award Finalist What if you had a trusted friend to guide you through God's Word every day Whether you want a fast overview of the grand story of the Bible or a deeper exploration of the riches of Scripture The Wayfinding Bible is that guide With an innovative full color visual guide at the top of each reading The Wayfinding Bible provides you with three paths through God's Word the Fly Over Route the Direct Route and the Scenic Route Following the Fly Over Route you'll cover the most important events in the Bible in just 40 readings giving you a fresh overview of how these events tell the story of God's redemption Following the Direct Route's 200 readings you'll develop a better understanding of how God's story develops through history Following the Scenic Route you'll explore new territory while discovering a richness and depth in God's Word that you've not seen before All without the discouragement of getting bogged down in any single book Whether you are encountering the Bible for the first time or simply looking for a new journey through Scripture you will always know where you are and where you're going in God's Word Just choose your route and prepare yourself for life changing experiences with God Special features Getting Your Bearings These 8 two page articles occur at major turning points of Scripture and help the reader stay on track Side Trips Explore a known concept in greater depth or read about a topic for the first time Scenic Overlooks Stunning visuals including maps photos infographics and

Visions of Hope Donald Sneen, 1978 Elenchus of Biblica Robert North, 1997 Hope for the Earth Ernst M. Conradie, 2005-05-18

Hope for the Earth explores the viability of an eschatological approach to an ecological theology spirituality and praxis in the South African context The basic intuition of such an eschatological approach is that an environmental praxis can only be empowered on the basis of an adequate understanding of Christian hope Despair in the face of environmental destruction will inevitably lead to a spirit of resignation Where then can a vision of hope that includes hope for the earth be found The author proposes a road map for eschatology based on the observation that eschatology has traditionally responded to three aspects of the human predicament namely 1 the evil effects of sin 2 the problem of finitude and transience and 3 the limitations of human power and knowledge in space

Part A This analysis is used to fathom the depths of despair as a result of environmental destruction

Part B The Biblical roots and subsequent history of Christian eschatology are discussed briefly

Part C Recent contributions in Christian eschatology ecological theology cosmology and South African expressions of hope are explored in depth in search of a vision of hope that includes hope for the earth itself

Part D The eschatological road map is used to develop a vision of hope for the earth on the basis of a theology of life life amidst death and destruction life beyond death and eternal life in the presence of God

Part E Finally the implications of this vision for an ecological ethos spirituality and praxis in the South African context are indicated

Part F The Catholic Biblical Quarterly Wendell Stephen Reilly, 1995 Includes various reports of the Association

Sunday Matters Mark O'Brien, 2012-12-31

Recently Pope Benedict remarked the quality of homilies needs to be improved The Pope made this comment in the context of his extended reflection on the recent Synod in Rome 2010 on the word of God in the mission and life of the Church The homily is an integral part of Christian liturgy It is an honoured way of bringing the word of God to life such that people are helped to see the relevance of the word in their everyday lives The homily is also an art form which needs to be practised and developed with skill It seems to me as a preacher myself that what people are looking for in the homily is an articulate faith filled knowledgeable commentary on the word of God which speaks to their everyday life and experience People want to see the fire desire and conviction in the person who preaches This is a constant challenge Mark O'Brien here presents his reflections on Year C of the lectionary based on the Gospel of Luke This is the companion volume to the earlier ones for Years A and B Mark offers homilists a great service here In two to three pages or several hundred words he gives an erudite and practical reflection on the word of God for the particular Sunday or feast as a good foundation on which any homilist can then build Pope Benedict continues The art of good preaching based on the lectionary is an art that needs to be cultivated In these short but insightful reflections on the readings of the lectionary Mark makes an excellent contribution to developing the art form of good preaching to the benefit of both those who preach and those who hear them

Bibliographies for Biblical Research Watson E. Mills, 1995 The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index, 2003 Living Hope David H. Jensen, 2010-01-01 Eschatology the theological name for the study of the endtime often conjures up frightening concepts of the rapture the final judgment heaven and hell Armageddon and the anti Christ Author David Jensen's theological approach offers a brighter perspective on the end time as a time of hope when Christians will see the full glory of the Kingdom of God the resurrection of the body and Christ's promised return

The Nonviolent Apocalypse Jeffrey D. Meyers, 2021-11-08 Revelation is resistance literature written to instruct early Christians on how to live as followers of Jesus in the Roman Empire The Nonviolent Apocalypse uses modern examples and scholarship on nonviolence to help illuminate Revelation's resistance arguing that Revelation's famously violent visions are actually acts of nonviolent resistance to the Empire The visions form part of Revelation's proclamation of God's way as a just and life giving alternative to the system constructed by Rome Revelation urges its readers to pursue this radical form of living engaging in nonviolent resistance to all that stands in the way of God's vision for the world
