Reverberations Interviews With The World:

Reverberations Robert M. Jacobson, 1974      Serving Genius Thomas D Saler, 2024-03-18

Serving Genius tells the life story of Carlo Maria Giulini one of the most renowned and beloved conductors of the twentieth century Detailing Giulini s extraordinary professional career Thomas D Saler also chronicles Giulini s personal life including his musical awakening while growing up amid the spectacular beauty of the Dolomite mountains his years as a student in Rome s Academy of St Cecilia his conscription into the Italian army during World War II his nine months in hiding for his anti fascist and pacifist beliefs and his selfless devotion to his wife Marcella A humble master who shunned the limelight Giulini took a deeply emotional and subjective approach to making music Saler provides uniquely detailed analysis of Giulini s nuanced musicianship and the way he conveyed that musicianship to the orchestra through physical gestures Meditating on the very art of conducting at which Giulini excelled Saler discusses each of the conductor s major musical appointments including stints with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra Philharmonia Orchestra Vienna Symphony and Los Angeles Philharmonic The book also addresses his repertoire of choice leadership style and moral framework Drawing on extensive interviews with Giulini s family music critics arts administrators orchestra members and collaborating soloists Serving Genius draws out the personal amid the professional life of this giant among twentieth century conductors

Practicing Perfection Roger Chaffin, Gabriela Imreh, Mary Crawford, 2005-04-11

The memory feats of famous musicians seem almost superhuman Can such extraordinary accomplishments be explained by the same principles that account for more ordinary everyday memory abilities To find out a concert pianist videotaped her practice as she learned a new piece for performance the third movement Presto of the Italian Concerto by J S Bach The story of how the pianist went about learning memorizing and polishing the piece is told from the viewpoints of the pianist the second author and of a cognitive psychologist the first author observing the practice The counterpoint between these insider and outsider perspectives is framed by the observations of a social psychologist the third author about how the two viewpoints were reconciled The CD that accompanies the book provides for yet another perspective allowing the reader to hear the polished performance Written for both psychologists and musicians the book provides the first detailed description of how an experienced pianist organizes her practice identifying stages of the learning process characteristics of expert practice and practice strategies The main focus however is on memorization An analysis of what prominent pianists of the past century have said about memorization reveals considerable disagreement and confusion Using previous work on expert memory as a starting point the authors show how principles of memory developed by cognitive psychologists apply to musical performance and uncover the intimate connection between memorization and interpretation

The Imaginary Museum of Musical Works : An Essay in the Philosophy of Music Lydia Goehr, 1992-03-26

What is the difference between a performance of Beethoven s Fifth Symphony and the symphony itself What does it mean for musicians to be faithful to the works they perform To answer such questions Lydia Goehr combines philosophical and historical methods of enquiry Finding Anglo American philosophy inadequate for the task she shows that a historical perspective is indispensable to a full understanding of musical ontology Goehr examines the concepts and assumptions behind the practice of classical music in the nineteenth century and demonstrates how different they were from those of previous centuries She rejects the finding that the concept of a musical work emerged in the sixteenth century placing its emergence instead around 1800 She describes how the concept of a work then came to define the norms expectations and behaviour that we now associate with classical music Out of the historical thesis Goehr draws philosophical conclusions about the normative functions of concepts and ideals She also addresses current debates among conductors early music performers and avant gardists

Introduction I The Analytic Approach Status and identity Analytical positions I Analytical positions II Critique and transition II The Historical Approach Normativity and Practice The central claim Musical meaning I Musical meaning II Musical production I Musical production II Werktreue Confirmation and challenge Atlantic Reverberations Paul C. Adams, 2017-11-30 The 2004 US election provided French citizens and their media with a springboard for re conceiving self and other Given its prominent opposition to recent US foreign policy such as the invasion of Iraq a volley of insults and caustic remarks reverberated between France and the US French observers linked the Bush administration's policies to particular groups and regions within the US to a democratic deficit to a perceived threat of US collapse and to the need for a stronger Europe By examining how the French media newspapers television the internet and scholarly research represented the election from a critical geopolitical perspective this book provides the first major in depth study of views of the US in contemporary foreign media

The Quest for Voice Lydia Goehr, 2002 Concentrating on the music politics and philosophy of Richard Wagner Lydia Goehr addresses some fundamental questions of German Romanticism Is all music musical Is music made less musical by the presence of words What is musical autonomy How do composers avoid censorship How are composers affected by exile Can music articulate a politics for the future What is the relation between music and philosophy

Music and Ideology in Cold War Europe Mark Carroll, 2006-11-02 This book places the radicalization of art music in early post war France in its broader socio cultural and political context It pursues two general and intersecting lines of inquiry The first details the stances towards musical conservatism and innovation adopted by cultural strategists representing Western and Soviet ideological interests at the onset of the Cold War The second which draws upon the commentaries of Theodor Adorno and Jean Paul Sartre recognizes that the Cold War generated a heightened political awareness amongst French musicians at the very time when the social relevance of avant garde music had become the subject of widespread debate The study considers the implications of the performance at L Oeuvre du XXe siècle an international arts festival staged in Paris in 1952 with the intention of discrediting socialist realism by means of two opposing musical types neo classicism represented by Stravinsky's Symphony in C and serialism Boulez's Structures 1a

And So I Sing Rosalyn M. Story, 1990-02 Black women bring a host of influences and ideologies with them to opera as well as their spirituality their strengths and passions The exclusion of blacks from opera for so many generations impoverished both the artists and the artistic world from which they were barred Imagine if Leontyne Price had been born 50 years earlier during a time when she would not have been allowed on an American opera stage This book not only supplies portraits of the greatest artists for future generations of students of black art and culture but also rescues from history s shadows the lost legacies of geniuses born too soon Photos      Conducting the Brahms Symphonies Christopher Dymont,2016 A major study sure to fascinate musicians Brahms enthusiasts and those interested in the history of recorded music How did Brahms conduct his four symphonies What did he want from other conductors when they performed these works and to which among them did he give his approval And crucially are there any stylistic pointers to these performances in early recordings of the symphonies made in the first half of the twentieth century For the first time Christopher Dymont provides a comprehensive and in depth answer to these important issues Drawing together the strands of existing research with extensive new material from a wide range of sources the views of musicians contemporary journals memoirs biographies and other critical literature Dymont presents a vivid picture of historic performance practice in Brahms s era and the half century that followed Here is a remarkable panorama showcasing Brahms himself conducting together with those conductors whom he heard among them Levi Richter Nikisch Weingartner and Fritz Steinbach and their disciples such as Toscanini Stokowski Boult and Fritz Busch Here too are other famed Brahms conductors of the early twentieth century including Furtwängler and Abendroth whose connections with the Brahms tradition are closely examined Dymont then analyses recordings of the symphonies by these conductors and highlights aspects which the composer might well have commended Finally Dymont suggests the importance of his conclusions for those contemporary conductors who are currently attempting to rediscover genuine performance traditions in their own re creations of the symphonies This major study is complemented with forty photographs and a frontispiece It is sure to fascinate musicians Brahms enthusiasts and those interested in the history of recorded music CHRISTOPHER DYMENT is author of Felix Weingartner Recollections and Recordings Triad Press 1976 and Toscanini in Britain The Boydell Press 2012 He has published many articles about historic conductors over the last forty years      Reverberations Wathen Mark Wilks Call,1875      Reverberations Yael Navaro,Zerrin Özlem Biner,Alice von Bieberstein,Seda Altuğ,2021-12-21 The turn to the nonhuman in the humanities and social sciences has arguably been mobilized through a washing away of political violence its histories and its traces Reverberations aims to redress this problem by methodologically and conceptually placing political violence and nonhuman entities side by side The volume generates a new framework for the study of political violence and its protracted aftermath by attending through innovative ethnographic and historical studies to its distribution extension and endurance across time space materialities and otherworldly dimensions as well as its embodiment in subjectivities discourses and imaginations Collectively in the study of political violence the contributions focus on human agencies and experiences in engagement with nonhuman entities such as objects land fields houses buildings treasures trees spirits saints and prophets In a variety of contexts the scholars herein ask the crucial question What can be learned about political violence by analyzing it in the terrain of relationality between human beings and nonhuman entities How are things such as objects spaces natural phenomena or spiritual beings entwined in histories of political violence And vice versa how are histories of political violence implicated in nonhuman things

Reverberation Jonathan Leeman,2011-02-01 What is the most effective way to grow a church It s not a new methodology or cultural outreach strategy it s the Word of God In this book Jonathan Leeman wants you to realize that the Word working through God s Spirit is responsible for the growth of God s church and we need to trust it Leeman not only informs and equips the leadership of local churches for greatest effectiveness in their preaching ministry but explains how to translate that into the life of the church throughout the week The book also deals with two errors not trusting the Word resulting in a pragmatic ministry philosophy and not living in light of the Word resulting in a ministry philosophy of preaching is enough

Reverberation explains the pulpit ministry and traces the theme of how the Word continues through the life of the church Both theological and practical Reverberation focuses on how the church hears responds discusses implements and is transformed by the Word No high octane production superstar personalities or postmodern entreaties just stuff that is really old really good and really powerful Catalog of Copyright Entries.
